Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

Portland, Nov. 5.—Hop sales are frequent, though prices are not encouraging. Over 1000 bales of hops changed hands yesterday in Portland and vicinity, but only a small proportion were choice. Sales were made of the latter at 11c, but as a rule holders of choice hops will not sell at present offerings.

The market in this city is very firm as far as the local demand is concerned and most of the mills will be engaged in grinding oriental orders until after the first of the new year. The reason why the oriental wants the flour shipped before January one is on account to the advance on freight rates, which goes into effect on that date from all Pacific Coast ports. At the moment no new orders are coming from the Orient because the mills cannot deliver the goods in time to take advantage of the lower rates. On this account the claim is made that export values are too high. Millers on the other hand are of the opinion that they cannot do business at less with wheat selling at its present value.

All wheat values except the valley grade, are lower today on account of the lower price ruling throughout the world. Valley is higher on account of the general scarcity of that grade. Millstuffs are very firm with prices held at the highest level.

Rolled Barley is 50c a barrel higher today, the new price being held at $22.50
