WEATHER TODAY.

Portland, Nov. 7.—Western Oregon, Western Washington: Increasing cloudiness followed by showers. Eastern Oregon: Generally fair. Eastern Washington: Increasing in cloudiness and probably followed by showers in the North portion.

CAMPAIGN STATUS.

The withdrawal of Mr. Elmore and Mr. Wise from the heads of the primary nominating tickets in the present campaign, leaves the whole situation wide open for readjustment. There is an unwonted silence on the part of the heterogeneous opposition, due primarily no doubt, to the painful reaction from Mr. Wise's considerate and irrevocable retirement. But silence does not always mean inertia, and it is reported that the Demo-Citizens have their lines laid their men chosen, and will foist the combine upon the public at the propitious moment, (if there is a propitious moment in store for them.) On the other hand the Republicans have gone ahead in the full light of day, have signified their wishes as to men and have not been at all backward in announcing their municipal doctrines. In due and timely season, that is, just as soon as some respected citizen shall be chosen for the head of their ticket and before the primaries, they will perfect the alignment of its personnel and put it where it will do the most good for the City of Astoria.

NEW WEALTH.

It is not to be doubted for a moment that the residents of this city and county are fully alive to the wonderful channels for investment and industry found for them by the scientific pilot, Dr. David T. Day, in the matter of the mineral bearing sands that lie about here in billions of tons awaiting exploitation to the last dollar of inconceivable profit. The work will develop slowly perhaps, as is natural in the case of a brand new idea suddenly launched; but once started under intelligent auspices, the industry will soon overshadow the best and richest of all Astoria's present commercial engagements.

GENUINE SCRAPPER.

The English papers tell a new story of Nelson, one which is not particularly appropriate to these days of friendliness between England and France. Nelson was talking one day with Mrs. Swinburne, of Hamsterly, and the conversation turned upon Frenchmen. "I never see a Frenchman," Mrs. Swinburne, said Nelson, "without shivering from head to foot." As the relator of the anecdote says, any one who has seen a dog quivering when restrained from falling upon a familiar enemy will appreciate the feeling that made Nelson shiver. He felt as he fought.

MAN OF CONVICTIONS.

A. D. Parker, the new vice president of the Colorado & Southern Company, owes his good fortune to the fact that he once "grubstaked" a prospector. This was five years ago. Today he is worth fully $800,000 and has some new mining ventures. The foundation of his fortune was laid in Goldfields, Nev., where his prospective partner "struck it rich." Mr. Parker, aside from being wealthy, is a preacher of ability. Nearly every Sunday he fills a pulpit in Montclair, a fashionable suburb of Denver, and preaches in a highly creditable manner.

POOR CHICAGO.

One of the most frequent and offensive phenomena of mental violence in this country has made its reappearance in Chicago, where the chief of police is now exhibiting his own character by demanding that all works of art in that city be draped. This, however, was to be expected in a community where policemen are the art critics.

WORK IN DARKNESS.

The total number of persons employed at mines and at the quarries in the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man during 1904 was 974,634, of whom 877,057 were employed in or about mines and 97,577 in or about quarries. Of the 877,057 persons employed at mines, 698,967 worked under ground and 178,090 above ground; of the latter, 5748 were women.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, it is reported, is determined to test the question of whether or not it has jurisdiction over private car lines. Considering how little power the commission really has even where its jurisdiction is unquestioned, it is difficult to see how the result of the test can seriously affect the private car lines, one way or the other.

Yes, and how many of those who are crying "tainted money" and are objecting to church organizations receiving donations from Mr. Rockefeller would, had they had the financial success of that man have given others the opportunity to take the same stand against them?

"Why is it that lovely woman is more beautiful at this particular time of year than at any other particular time of year?" asks the St. Louis Republic. It is probably because she has more clothes on. Lovely woman usually looks best the more she has on.

Summing up the evidence thus far taken in the insurance inquiry, it seems that the principle of philanthropy was extended in every direction save that of the policy-holders. They "paid the freight."

"Some North Montana communities," says the Butt Inter-Mountain, "feel so sorely oppressed by Uncle Jim Hill's railways that they are eager to have him build new lines to increase his facilities for giving them the worst of it."

President McCurdy does not appear to know enough about the affairs of his insurance company to justify his big salary. The investigating committee is having trouble to get the most ordinary information from him.

Senator Burton would be more pleased with the dismissal of the indictment against him if the court had not ordered the grand jury to prepare one that will fit him better.

Bilious Attack Quickly Cured.

A few weeks ago I had a bilious attack that was so severe I was not able to go to the office for two days. Failing to get relief from my family physician's treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the next day I felt like a new man.—H. C. Bailey, Editor of the News Chapin, S. J. C. These tablets are for sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

Bell Boy—Four more highballs for the gent in room 231.

Barkeep—Why, he's up there all by himself.

Bell Boy—Nope. He says he's got some snakes an' he wants to treat 'em.—Cleveland Leader.

Neuralgia Pains.

Rheumatism, lumbago and sciatic pains yield to the penetrating influence of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It penetrates to the nerves and bone and being absorbed into the blood, its healing properties are conveyed to every part of the body, and effect some wonderful cures. 25c, 50c, and $1.00. Sold by Hart's drug store.

Gagley—I was just watching Markey while he was talking to you. It was so funny the way he kept jumping up and down. What did he remind you of?

Boroughs—Of the $10 I've owed him since last winter.—Philadelphia Press.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Than of All Others Put Together.

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do all other lines I have on my shelves, put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

"How long does it take to empty this hall?" asked the lecturer, looking about the auditorium.

"I don't know exactly," replied the janitor; "but if you wish, when you begin lecturing, I'll tell 'em."—Youkers Statesman.

Man's Unreasonableness.

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican" of Leverworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by Charles Rogers, druggist, price 50c.

Mrs. Smith—But how did you manage to keep that secret a whole week, dear?

Mrs. KJones—It wasn't hard. I simply staid away from the Browning club, and when callers came I sent word that I wasn't home.—Cleveland Leader.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla. writes, Feb. 12, 1892: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation. Sold by Frank Hart.

There's no beauty in all the land That can with her face compare, Her lips are red, her eyes are bright, She takes Rocky Mountain Tea at night. Sold by Frank Hart, druggist.

No Case of Pneumonia on Record

There is no case on record of a cold resulting in Pneumonia, or other serious lung trouble, after had been taken. It stops the cough and heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold.

Do not take chances on a cold wearing away or experiment with some unknown preparation that costs you the same as Foley's Honey and Tar.

Remember the name and get the genuine.

A Severe Cold for Three Months.

The following letter from A. J. Nuebaum, of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and eight doses cured me."

Three sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00. The 50 cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY CHARLES ROGERS, Druggist.
