Startling Episode-The sea took on a sudden and startling turn yesterday afternoon at Seaside and for awhile engaged the attention of "all hands" there. The whole ocean suddently turned to "white caps," the swell running in very high, and augmented by the flood. It surged up to the front porch of the Hotel Moore and one roller broke on the Necanicum shell road and the invading waters ran back as far as the Hermosa Park road. Captain Staples, the pioneer pilot verified the extraordinary conditions, in reporting the bar

Nominations Made at Meeting Held Last Evening.

MAYOR SUPRENANT BACKED

Full Ticket Put Out-Platform Announced-Three Police Commissioners Chosen-Large Crowd in Attendance-County Judge Presided-Notes.

The Non-Partisan mass meeting called for last night, convened in good season at the city hall. There were, by actual count, 180 people present.

At 8:10 o'clock F. E. Wright, acting as temporary chairman, with C. C. Utzinger, as temporary secretary, ascended the rostrum and called the meeting to order. As soon as this was attained, Mr. Wright placed County Judge C. J. Trenchard in nomination for permanent chairman of the meeting and upon motion of Herman Wise, seconding the same, the nomination was made unanimous and was so declared by the citizens present. The election of a permanent secretary followed, the honor falling to Gus Caruthers upon the withdrawal of Mr. Utzinger who had also been nominated.

Organization having been duly effected, the appointment of a committee of three, on order of business and platform was moved by F. E. Wright and carried, Chairman Trenchard naming A. W. Smith, E. Ford and E. M. Baker in this behalf. A recess of twenty minutes was taken to await the rejolly character socials. It will be Irish, port of the committee. This arrived in this time, and the scope of humor must due course and was instantly and unanimously adopted as to order of business, which provided for the nomias it is interesting, and as unique, as nations in sequence, of a mayor, auditor and police judge, treasurer, surveyor, superintendent of streets and councilmen for the several wards. An amendment prevailed, however, providing for the nomination of three police commissioners instead of one.
