WILLIAMS IS LEADER

Will Represent Democracy in the House.

CAUCUS IN WASHINGTON

Policies and Procedure Decided Upon in Order that the Minority May Be Solidified and Matters Be Harmoniously Acted Upon.

Washington, Dec. 2.—For two hours today, the Democratic members of the House discussed party policies and procedure with a view of solidifying the minority and action harmoniously upon all matters of a partisan character that may come before the House.

John Sharp Williams was unanimously chosen as the nominee for Speaker, and this action of the caucus makes him the minority leader for the ensuing Congress to succeed himself. The routine proceedings were without special incident.

R. L. Henry, of Texas, was elected chairman for this Congress, and Messrs. Powers, of Mississippi and Robertson of Louisiana as secretaries. Other officers nominated were: Clerk, Former Representative Cowherd, of Missouri; Sergeant-at-arms, Charles A. Edwards, of Texas; Doorkeeper, J. R. Taylor of Arkansas; Postmaster, Robert L. Douglas, of South Carolina; Chaplain, Rev. Austin C. Rouch, of Alabama.

TAWNEY IS "WHIP"

Republicans Re-Elect Cannon as Their Candidate for Speaker.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Republican members of the Fifty-ninth Congress met in caucus today in the hall of the House of Representatives, and re-nominated all the elective officers of the House who served during last session. William P. Hepburn, was again chosen chairman of the caucus.

The principal feature of the evening was the speech of Joseph G. Cannon, who was for the second time unanimously chosen for speaker. The nomination of Cannon and his speech of acceptance created hearty enthusiasm among the Republican members and his remarks were generally approved.

The officers re-nominated were: Clerk, Alexander McDowell, Pennsylvania; Sergeant-at-arms, Henry Casson, Wisconsin; Doorkeeper, F. B. Lyon, New York; Postmaster, Joseph C. McElroy, Ohio; Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, Michigan.

ARMY AND NAVY TIE

Thousands of Spectators Watch Game of Football.

NAVY SCORES BY FOUL PLAY

Near Close of Game Soldiers Hold the Members of Navy Team and Ball Is Given to Soldiers, Who Gain in Exchange and Make Touchdown.

Princeton, Dec. 2.—Army, 6; Navy, 6. While the army and navy football game today was probably one of the most exciting ever played between the two institutions, it was simply a side show to the social football event of the season.

Twenty-five thousand people saw the game. From all sections of the United States came spectators, who ordinarily would not travel a score of miles to see a football contest. All this was doubtless brought about by the fact that President Roosevelt was present.

The teams were evenly matched, and though dashing runs were few, Torney of the army got away for a pretty 35 yard run, and at another, Decker, of the navy, electrified the spectators by almost getting away from the army eleven. Near the close of the first half, the army got the ball on the navy's 35 yard line, on an exchange of kicks.

Howard, who kicked very brilliantly for Annapolis, sent the spiral high in the air. An easterly wind carried the ball back toward the navy goal so in distance, it traveled not more than five yards. From this point the West Pointers carried the ball over for a touchdown.

A West Point player was responsible for the tie game. On an exchange of kicks, within ten minutes of the close of the game, the navy had the ball near the mid-field. Howard sent a beautiful punt back of the West Point goal. As the navy eleven started down the field, an army man was detected by the umpire, holding one of the navy players.

As a penalty, the ball was brought back and given to the navy on the army's thirty yard line. An exchange of kicks followed, resulting in the navy's favor, and with a last desperate effort that could not be denied, the sailors carried the ball over the army goal.

Iowa Against Football.

Des Moines, Dec. 2.—After a long and stormy session today, the Athletic Conference of Iowa Colleges, adopted the following resolution.

"Resolved, that American football as now played, is not a game suitable as athletic sport, for institutions of learning and unless the authorities controlling the game make radical changes, we shall favor the discontinuance in the Iowa colleges next fall."

San Francisco, Dec. 2.—Seattle, 0; San Francisco, 5.
Los Angeles, Dec. 62.—Los Angeles, 9; Tacoma, 1.
Bakersfield, Dec. 2.—Portland, 0; Oakland, 1.

MISSILE IS THROWN

President Made No Comment.

The President knew nothing of the incident for some time after it occurred. He made no comment upon it, passing it off as a wanton act of some irresponsible person. As a measure of precaution, curtains at the windows of several of the cars were drawn down after news of the incident had spread among the passengers.

Secret service officers, who accompanied the President took charge of the missile and an effort will be made to apprehend the person who threw it. Barring this untoward incident on the trip of the President, from Princeton to Washington was not out of the ordinary.

KILLED BY STREET CAR.

Seattle, Dec. 2.—Justice of the Peace Henry A. White, of Rainier Beach, South of Seattle, was instantly killed by a street car near his home this afternoon. He had left one street car and was standing on the opposite track when struck by another bar. His body was horribly mangled.
