Portland, Dec. 11 .- Poultry dealers, in figuring upon what turkeys are to be worth Christmas week, are inclined to think they will be cheaper than at Thanksgiving. "A great many birds were put away on cold storage the day after Thanksgiving," one firm reports, "and these must be disposed of by New Year, Besides this, a number of new turkeys will be sent in on consignment, as there are no buyers in the country engaging birds, as there were two weeks before Thanksgiving. Dealers who were anxious to get turkeys then did not make anything, as the profits have gone into cold storage for Christmas I look for 18c to be the top quotation for dressed turkey Christmas week in this city."
