SURVIVORS SUFFER

Men Who Reached Shore Have Awful Hardships.

ONE HAS SPRAINED ANKLE

Men Who Reach Shore Walk Many Miles Without Hardly Any Clothing, and Soaked to the Skin—Salvor Party Reaches Them.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 27.—The survivors who reached shore near the scene of the wreck have now been cared for, the last party of nine who had been installed at the Darling river on account of the flooded waters reaching the steamer Salvor at Bamfield Creek tonight. They were in a bad condition.

Great credit is due to the party from the Salvor, headed by Captain Farris, who left early Wednesday and traveled an almost impassable trail for fifteen miles after a night spent on the trail they started home with the survivors. Before returning Captain Farris visited the wreck. He reports the beach literally covered with wreckage and at that time five bodies were on shore being identified. A second party left the Salvor yesterday morning. They went as far as Pachena, carrying packs of provisions and extra clothing. At 3 o'clock they were joined by a landing party sent from the United States revenue cutter Grant. The provisions were made to succor the survivors. The party was sighted at 3:10 p. m. on a point of rock having taken to the beach as the trail was too hard for the men to negotiate in their famished condition. The Associated Press correspondent was the first to reach them. He found F. F. Bunker, assistant superintendent of schools of Seattle, and F. Marshall on the beach in a bad condition, the latter having walked the whole way, suffering from a sprained ankle and experiencing severe pain. The remainder of the party had taken to the trail. Bunker had lost his coat and shirt and was wearing a blanket with arm holes cut in it.

Marshall's ankle was in a bad condition. The two men were taken to a telegraph hut at Pachena and given food. Soon afterwards while these two were being cared for the rescue party arrived with the other survivors. All were completely fatigued. The entire party was equipped with shoes, those who had been without having been supplied with shoes taken from the corpses washed ashore. The survivors are loud in their praises of the rescue party from the Salvor. The trail is in a frightful condition and travel is most difficult.

Messrs. Richmond, Mousley and McWha, cable operators, were the first to reach the survivors. The telegraph men were completely worn out, having swum several streams, and it would have been impossible for them to bring in the survivors without the assistance from the Salvor's party. The survivors who were picked up by the Salvor today at Toquart the men found on Turtle Island, and those brought in by the rescue party have been removed on board the United States revenue cutter Grant, with the exception of two, who are too ill to be transferred. The bodies secured by the Salvor have also been removed to the revenue cutter. The Grant will leave Bamfield at daylight this morning for Seattle. Arrangements have been made to have the Grant take charge of the bodies at the wreck. There are eleven bodies reported washed ashore. One has been identified through papers found as that of Mr. Doherty of New York. The name of W. Doherty appears in the crew list as a fireman. Another is identified as F. Griffenstaf, of San Jose, Cal.

Mr. F. F. Bunker, who was recently appointed school superintendent at Seattle, said there was an evident lack of discipline among the officers and this statement has been corroborated by other passengers. A mess boy cursed an officer to his face for not giving proper orders. Mr. Bunker said Boat No. 2 was sent through the surf with more than twenty passengers in it and only seven got ashore after it capsized. He got in the next boat lowered, with his wife and two children. This boat was sent out without officers or seamen. The boat capsized and he tried to crawl back. As he did so the boat righted and nearly filled. He got in and his wife was clinging to the side of the boat.

COLD WAVE PASSED.

Much Suffering Caused to the Poor in Mexico.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 27.—The cold wave which has caused so much suffering in Central Mexico and even on the gulf coast, has abated and the warmth of the sun has been most welcome after three days of clouds and north winds. The police report that night before last twelve members of the lower class perished on the streets from cold and exposure, being poorly clad and most of them victims of alcoholism.

IMPORTANT RACES.

Notable Handicaps to be Run at Oakland Track.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—The most important handicaps that will be run in America this year outside of New York will be decided this afternoon at the Oakland track. It looks as if the Burns' handicap this year will be run over a good track which is quite a change.

The following are the entries, weights and jockeys: Proper, 122, Knapp; Eugenia Burch, 120, W. Dugan; Lubin, 119, Davis; Dr. Leggo, 114, Prior; San Nicholas, 114, Fountain; Veterano, 107, Jackson; Sir Brillar, 106, Clerk; Red Leaf, 100, Radtke; Neelson, 104, Williams; J. Sanders, 109, —; Dr. Gardner, 110, —; Gregor K, 100, Walsh.

The horses entered are as fit as skillful hands can make them. Proper will undoubtedly be favorite, but a big plunge will likely be made on Eugenia Burch. Lubin would be liked by more race goers on any kind of track except the dry one of today.

In the pool rooms last night the odds were as follows: Proper, 21 to 1; Eugenia Burch, 3 to 1; Lubin and Dr. Leggo, 4 to 1; San Nicholas, Jake Sanders, Sir Brillar, and Red Leaf, 10 to 1; Schreiber entry, 8 to 1; Veterano, 50 to 1.

CALL MEETING.

Mayor Dunne and Citizens Will Organize Life Insurance Protective Body.

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—In response to the request of a committee of citizens Mayor Dunne yesterday called for Tuesday, January 30, a conference of representatives of clubs and organizations to consider the organization of a permanent local life insurance protective body.

The petition upon which the mayor acted was signed by a score of business and professional men. The aim was declared to be to unite the Chicago members of all mutual companies into an organization capable of gaining a voice in the affairs of each company.

MORE COMFORT THAN EVER.

On Sunday, December 17th, the Denver & Rio Grande railroad will inaugurate a daily line of standard and tourist sleeping cars between Denver and Los Angeles in connection with the new Clark road. Both cars will leave Denver daily at 9:30 a. m., and arrive at Salt Lake City at 1:35 p. m., the next day. At this point the cars will be held over until midnight, thus allowing through passengers the privilege of a stop-over of ten hours and a half in Salt Lake City. Eastbound, these cars will leave Los Angeles at 8 p. m., and arrive at Salt Lake City at 6:30 a. m., second morning where they will remain over until 3:50 p. m., thence to Denver where they will arrive at 4:20 the following afternoon. This stop-over at Salt Lake City of the regular line of sleeping cars promises to be an attractive feature for transcontinental travelers.

WAS NOT SURPRISE

Newspaper Men Knew of Packers Bribery Attempts.

REPORTERS OFFERED MONEY

Packers Offered Reporters Money to Influence the Public in Their Favor—Government Shadowed the Reporters and Obtained the Evidence Wanted.

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—The Record-Herald says today:

The revelations from Washington dealing with an attempt to influence opinion in favor of Chicago beef packers were not wholly a surprise to a majority of the newspaper men who have been connected in a professional way with the government investigation of the packing business and the subsequent proceedings resulting in the indictments under which the packers are being prosecuted. The federal grand jury which voted the indictments had been in session but a short time when rumors began to float about that certain newspaper reporters had been approached. Proof that offers of money had been made to reporters came into the possession of United States District Attorney Morrison while the grand jury was making its investigation. No evidence could be obtained, however, that any of the offers had been accepted. As a matter of fact the government information was first obtained from newspaper men who had been given the indirect hint that they might make some "easy money" if they wished.

It was through these vague intimations that venal reporters were being subsidized, so to speak, that Mr. Morrison reached the conclusion that the interests of the government demanded the assistance of the secret service. The matter was placed in the hands of Chief Wilkie at Washington and through him Captain Porter, in charge of the Chicago branch of the secret service was authorized to watch the movements of suspected persons. For a time while the federal grand jury was pursuing its investigations nearly every newspaper man connected with the case was aware that he was being "shadowed" by secret service operators.

The espionage of the government of the representatives of the packing companies has never relaxed since the beginning of the grand jury investigation last March. This was vouched for last night by a federal official who is cognizant of the facts connected with the charges in District Attorney Morrison's letter to Attorney-General Moody. When the work of selecting a jury to try the immunity pleas began a new force of secret service operators was detailed for duty under Captain Porter, those who had been previously working in Chicago being generally known.

GOOD GOVERNMENT.

Corea Will Have Better Government Than Formerly.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—Edwin Morgan, former United States Minister to Corea, who arrived here from the Orient en route to Cuba, as minister of the republic, in an interview on Korean affairs, said:

"When I left Tokio Marquis Ito, the new appointed governor-general, was preparing to start for Seoul. He is in no sense a military governor. The people have feared that Corea was to be placed under a harsh military government. The contrary is the case. Corea will have a better government than it has ever had, and I think the future of the country is very bright. In going over the foreign relations of Corea, Japan gave assurances to all of the treaty powers that existing foreign treaties would not be disturbed. This means that American interests in Corea will not be affected and that American enterprise will continue to find a profitable field of activity in the country.

American goods find a big market there, and mining enterprises conducted by Americans are being successfully worked."

GO TO JAPAN.

United States to Send Men to Investigate Fish and Fisheries.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Jan. 27.—The United States government has commissioned Dr. David Starr Jordan and Professor Charles H. Gilbert, head of the Department of Zoology to conduct an investigation of the fish and fisheries of Japan and the island of Sakhalin during the coming summer.

Professor J. O. Snyder and Harold Heath of Stanford University and Professor H. B. Torrey, of the University of California, will also accompany the expedition. In addition other faculty men from the California University and the Universities of Japan will assist in the work.

SAVED THE FLAGS

Three Russian Prisoners Conceal Colors on Bodies.

HIDDEN FROM THE JAPANESE

When Port Arthur Was Surrendered Men Tore Colors From Staffs and Concealed Them Beneath Their Uniforms—Flags Sent to Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 27.—An inspiring story of the preservation of the Standards of the Russian regiments engaged in resisting the Japanese siege of Port Arthur was revealed today when an officer and two privates called on General Dayloff, head of the Russian prisoners commission and presented to him the colors which, during their long sojourn as prisoners in Japan, they had concealed from the Japanese.

When Port Arthur was surrendered the men ripped the colors from the staffs and concealed them beneath their uniform, wearing them around their bodies by night and by day until they boarded a steamer for their return to Russia after the conclusion of peace. General Dayloff desired to present the colors to the Emperor who, he said, would suitably reward those who had so faithfully upheld the honor of their flag.

Sent to Portland.—Jay Yen Foo, of Astoria, representing Goon Dip, a Chinese merchant, of Portland, is preparing to ship the stock of the late Jay Yen Kwong to Portland. The stock was valued at $500, and was obtained on credit from Goon Dip, by the deceased, and had not been paid for, when he died. Before dying, Jay Yen Kwong instructed his cousin, Jay Yen Foo, to have the stock sent back to Portland and he is now carrying out the wishes of the deceased. It seems that Jay Yen Kwong also owed several Chinese in this city bills. He was indebted to Chin Dogg in the sum of $70, to Kung Wing for $30, and to Kwong On Chong to the amount of $10. Chin Dogg succeeded in procuring about $11 worth of silk handkerchiefs from the deceased Chinaman's store, which is the extent of what he is likely to get. Kung Wing and Kwong On Chong seem to be left out of the deal and from present indications will receive no return for their money.
