

These Were Called Great.
 Abbas I. of Persia was designated the Great. The same title has been borne by many sovereigns, among them Alexander of Macedon, Alfred of England, Alfonso III. of Asturias, Boleslaus I. of Poland, Canute of England, Casimir III. of Poland, Charlemagne, Constantine I., emperor of Rome; Ferdinand I. of Castile, Frederick II. of Prussia, Frederick William, the great elector; Gregory I., pope of Rome; Henri IV. of France, Herod I., king of the Jews; Herod Agrippa I., the tetrarch; Hsiao Wen Tee of China, because of the fact that under his patronage agriculture was practiced to a greater extent in China than ever before; John III. of Portugal, Justinian I., emperor of the east; Khuro of Persia, Leo I., Louis XIV. of France, Ludwig of Hungary, Mohammed II. of Turkey, Napoleon I. of France, Nicholas I., pope of Rome; Otto I. of Germany, Pedro III. of Aragon, Peter I. of Russia, Sapor II. of Persia, Sigismund I. of Poland, Theodoric, king of the Ostrogoths; Theodosius I., emperor of Rome; Waldemar I. of Denmark, Catherine of Russia.

The Meaning of Different Colors.
 Colors have a language of their own. White, for instance, which is a reunion of the seven primitive colors, is the symbol of power, divine wisdom, purity, candor, innocence and chastity. Red represents fire. It is therefore symbolic of passion, power and riches; hence kings and the powerful rulers of the earth wore red mantles. It is also emblematic of hardness and cruelty, being the color worn by the executioners of old and by the members of the Inquisition.

Blue denotes fidelity, sweetness, tenderness, loyalty, a spotless reputation. With the ancients yellow denoted glory and fortune. Now it is called the color of infidelity and shame. How is it that yellow has become the emblem of infidelity, perfidy and misfortune? Because Jews were forced to wear yellow during the middle ages, and the house doors of traitors were smeared with the yolk of eggs.

Green is the color of hope and joy and the emblem of youth. Black denotes sadness. Pink denotes health, youth, pleasure, love, violet the color allowed to faith. Orange means divine inspiration and poetry. The muses are all represented clad in orange colored draperies. Orange was also the color of Hymen. Brides once wore orange colored veils called flammemum, and they could not pronounce their vows unless covered with the flammemum.

The Keystone State.
 More than one reason is given for the name Keystone State, which has long been used for Pennsylvania. When the vote adopting the Declaration of Independence was taken by the states at Philadelphia in 1776 six of the original thirteen states had voted in the affirmative and six in the negative. The delegates from Pennsylvania then came in, and John Morton cast the deciding vote in favor of independence. This decision of the great issue is one reason for the title the Keystone State.

It is also said that in building a bridge between Pennsylvania avenue and Georgetown, Washington, a single arch was made of stones left from building the walls of the capital. On the thirteen arch stones the names of the thirteen states were engraved, and as the stone marked Pennsylvania formed the keystone that state became still more widely known as the Keystone State. Probably the two reasons are linked together as cause and effect.

Properly Pious.
 Pious propriety reached high tide in the case of a man who was about to undergo an operation for appendicitis, and he declared that he did not want the operation to be performed until his pastor could be present.

"Why do you want your pastor present?" asked the physician.
 "Because I wish to be opened with prayer," was the reply.—Lippincott's Magazine.
