Amalgamated Copper Company Pays Heinze $25,000,000 For Properties in Dispute - Litigation Involving $50,-000,000 in Claims, Will be Settled.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14-Discussing the transaction completed yesterday by which a majority of the Heinze mines in Montana were taken over by the Amalgamated Company, John D. Ryan. president of the Anaconda Copper Company and the managing director of the Amalgamated Copper Company, last night said:

"By the acquisition of the various properties from the Heinze there is nothing left to make trouble or start litigation. The purchase has cleared the entire Montana situation for all time. The Montana Copper producers will now be left in a position to produce copper cheaper than ever before, and more of it.

'The name of the new company, which will acquire the various Heinze properties has not been selected, nor have the incorporation papers been filed. You can state, however, that the majority interests will be friendly to the Amalgamated Copper Company and will be in a position to arrange all matters that might ever cause a dispute or conflict between themselves and the latter's subsidiary concerns.

"At the present time the pending litigation covers more than one hundred suits, involving $50,000,000 in claims In the fight between the rival interests every possible claim was bought, so that there is now nothing left in the disputed areas on which litigation might be started afresh. The purchase of these properties, therefore, includes the settlement of the suits."

Mr. Heinze when seen last night expressed satisfaction over the termination of the war and said the details a close resemblance to the malaria germ, which were made public during the day the most effective remedy is Dr. King's in Wall street were correct, and that New Life Pills.
