PORTLAND MARKETS

Latest Quotations in the Portland Markets.

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

PORTLAND, March 19.—Beef cattle and pork hogs were marked up quite perceptibly in Portland this morning, on account of supplies becoming short. Beef steers are quoted at $4@4.25; first grade, grade cows, $3.25@3.50, and second-grade cows, $2.75@3.

Hogs are quoted at $7@7.25 for first-class; $6.50@6.75 for light. Mutton is about as high as it can get, and so no advance in sheep is noted.

No Change In Eggs.

Fresh eggs were still quoted at 16½c a dozen on Front street today, but the price was considered weak. The cold weather had no effect on receipts, which were heavy Saturday and today. There is no market except locally, and as more eggs come in than are used, prices are naturally inclined to come down.

Cold storage men are holding off this season and this renders egg prices weaker than last year.

Study the Map

Thirteen states and territories of the Middle West are traversed by Rock Island lines. There are more cities of 25,000 population and upwards on the Rock Island System than on any other Western road! From Minnesota to Texas, from the Rocky Mountains to the Great Lakes, it is Rock Island country. The Rock Island System occupies a strategic position in the western railway world.

Going somewhere? Get a Rock Island folder and study the map—ten to one your destination is on the Rock Island or reached by way of it.

Note our several offices maintained in the Northwest:

Portland, Seattle, Spokane, Butte and Salt Lake City.

The Rock Island is reaching out for business—and solicits yours.
