WEATHER.

Oregon and Washington—Occasional light rain.

MR. BAKER'S RESIGNATION.

There is not a Republican in the State of Oregon but deprecates the necessity behind the resignation of Hon. Frank C. Baker as chairman of the state central committee; indeed, their regret finds no parallel except in the real pleasure experienced when he took charge of the party destinies in 1903.

$6,000,000 NET.

This is the sum of net profit attained to by the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company during the compass of its last fiscal year.

THE MUNICIPAL LEAGUE.

There is a new political faction in the field at Astoria. Just what has inspired its creation is not yet determinable.

have something new and wholesome to offer as to methods of teaching the public considering in the matter of its candidates, but disappointments it all that remains after one discovers that no man of the new party may go before the local public as an aspirant for any office until he shall have passed the analytical scrutiny of an executive committee of mine, which alone has the right to offer names to the general meeting in this matter.

SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY.

In a port of this prominence there should not be lacking a very friendly spirit toward the toilers of the sea who harbor here, and the present purpose of establishing a general reading room and headquarters for the comfort and safety of the sailor ashore, should be carried out with despatch and complete success.

A TRIBUTE TO A DOG.

One of the most famous speeches ever made by the late Senator Vest of Missouri was delivered in course of a trial of a man who had wantonly shot a dog belonging to a neighbor.

Gentlemen of the jury: The best friend a man has in this world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter that he has reared with loving care may prove ungrateful.

Gentlemen of the jury, a man's dog stands by him in prosperity and in poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground, where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side.

As the Hon. Bourke Cockran reads partisan history since 1896 there have been two great parties in this country—the rogues and the lunatics. And the rogues have prevailed over the lunatics.

A Chicago preacher has discovered what is called a "candy jag." It seems to be specially intended for sweet sixteen.

EDITORIAL SALAD.

Ex-Judge Parker wants to shift the centric gravity in Democratic politics from the shores of the Hudson to the prairies of Texas.

Associate Justice Brewer of the United States Supreme Court, is the latest voyager to spelling by ear instead of by the spelling book and the dictionaries.

St. Louis' Million Club encourages growth to a million population. Misdirected energy. St. Louis should be better, better, larger. Make Chicago your awful warning and stick to quality, Klein Schwester.

Some of the St. Louis East Side poor supply deficiencies in bedclothing by buying Sunday papers. It is hardly successful, however; the youngsters are tickled into wakefulness by their colored sheets.

When people go to church and, instead of a sermon, hear an editorial based on incomplete reports of a battle in the Philippines there is much in the situation to recall Milton's line—The hungry sheep look up and are not fed.

Senator Tillman is said to be writing an article in defense of the Senate against recent attacks upon it in the magazines. When the aspiring magazine writer finds himself impaled upon the Tillman pitchfork he may conclude that the Senate is not decadent after all.

A Kurdish Tent.

The tents of the Kurds, in which they seek the pasturage of the mountains in summer, vary much in size, though in appearance and shape they conform throughout to one plan. The covering of the tents consists of long narrow strips of black goat's hair matted and sewed together lengthwise.

Funeral Customs in Greece.

Many funeral customs in Greece are unique. The body of an unmarried girl is always dressed as a bride, the custom saying being "She is married to death." The body of a boy is always dressed as a sailor.

The Test.

We never know what we can do until we are put to the test by some great emergency or tremendous responsibility. When we feel that we are cut off from outside resources and must depend absolutely upon ourselves we can fight with all the force of desperation.

A Race of Genealogists.

Some one said of the Welsh in the eighteenth century every old woman was a genealogist. This is still true, for no race is truer to type, more retentive of national characteristics—London Outlook.

NOTES.

A note given by a minor is void. Notes bear interest only when so stated.

Altering a note in any manner by the holder makes it void.

It is not legally necessary to sign on a note "for value received."

If a note is lost or stolen it does not release the maker. He must pay it.

If the time of payment of a note is not inserted it is held to be payable on demand.

Notes falling due Sunday or on a legal holiday must be paid on the day previous.

A note obtained by fraud or from a person in a state of intoxication cannot be collected.

An indorser has a right of action against all whose names were previously on a note indorsed by him.

An indorser of a note is exempt from liability if not served with notice of its dishonor within twenty-four hours of its nonpayment.

Sleeplessness.

Disorders of the stomach produce a nervous condition and often prevent sleep. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets stimulate the digestive organs, restore the system to a healthy condition and make sleep possible.

GOVERNOR CURRY SAFE.

Samar's Chief Executive is Rescued by Soldiers.

MANILA, March 26.—Governor Curry is safe and well, but the particulars of his rescue are not available at this hour. General Buchanan, commanding the department of Visayas, has left for Cebu.

The insular government has not yet requested federal aid.

Major General Wood has loaned the constabulary 500 Krag-Jorgensen rifles to supplant the single shot Springfield they have been using.

CHILD'S AWFUL SKIN HUMOR

Screamed with Pain—Suffering Nearly Broke Parent's Heart—Twelve Years of Misery—Doctor Called Case Incurable—Helped from First, and

SPEEDILY CURED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I wish to inform you that your wonderful Cuticura has put a stop to twelve years of misery I passed with my son. As an infant I noticed on his body a red spot and treated same with different remedies for about five years, but when the spot began to get larger I put him under the care of his treatment the disease spread to four different parts of his body.

"One doctor told me that my son's eczema was incurable and gave it up for a bad job. One evening I saw an article in the paper about the wonderful Cuticura and decided to give it a trial.

"I tell you that Cuticura Ointment is worth its weight in gold; and when I had used the first box of Ointment there was a great improvement, and by the time I had used the second set of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent my child was cured. He is now twelve years old, and his skin is as fine and smooth as silk.

That All Important Bath Room

You have often heard people remark "If I were ever to build, I would plan my bath room first and would not put all my money into the parlor with all its finery." That is good common sense sentiment, for the bath room is the most important of all the household.

We would like to help you plan your bath room and will gladly quote you prices on "Standard" Ware, the best and most sanitary fixtures made.
