Passes Over Three Hundred Private Pen sion Bills Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Aprill3.-Owing the fact that none of it's members were prepared to speak on the railroad rate bill, that measure was temporarily laid aside today, in the senate, permitting the devotion of the entire time to a consideration of the other bills on the calendar. Of those more than 300 were passed most of them being private pension bills.

Petition to Government Was Published-Alleges His Honor Is Hurt.

PENDLETON, April 13.-Major O. C. Edwards, superintendent of the Umatilla Indian Reservation threatens, as Oregon met in this city today and nomi a result of the recent publication of nated the following officers and candithe petition to the Bureau of Indian dates for the various state offices. Affairs signed by 133 Indians and charging him with various actions to bring what may be a widely distributed suit for criminal libel.

Major Edwards is charged in the petition with using obscene and profane language towards his wards, with drawing a revolver on them, killing their dogs, cutting their hair, and allowing cattle to cross the reservation contrary to the instructions of the department,

Today Major Edwards visited Distriet Attorney Phelps and stated it as his desire to prosecute all the newspapers responsible for the publication for criminal libel. He holds the allegations of the petition to be false, that the publication has injured his official character and his private honor. He also holds that in as much as the petition was filed with the interior department it was not for public record.
