to the trust and after he parted from the girl at the depot he became intoxicated, and while in that condition he ran foul of Patrolmen Burke and Price and was taken to the station some few hours after landing at the depot. Miss

Hornshaw became cognizant of teh arrest and telephoned the police to hold the man until she could call and identify her belongings and see her erestwhile friend. She was told to call at 9 o'clock and she would be ac-

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

to Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for Its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a juxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. RESIGN OR EXPLAIN

Mutual's Trustees are Called on to Resign.

BY BRITISH POLICYHOLDERS

Holders Have Only to Name Those Whom They Desire to Resign.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The Tribum

"President Peabody of the Mutual Life Insurance Company said vesterday that if the British policy holders would Maxim Gorky Says Priest Worked say which trustees they wanted to resign those, trustees would resign or explain why they would not do so. The statement was made in a discussion WANTED IN PORTLAND ALSO with reporters of a cable message from London say that the British policy hol ders wanted the retirement of trustees who had been closely associated with President McCurdy. President Peabody smiled when he was told that the despatch from London stated that the policy houders there were dissatisfied with the reply of Joseph Choate to their requests which were , before the trustees of the Mutual Life by A. D.

"Forty eight bours ago," he said. I saw a cable message from London in which the British policy holders said they would be guided only by Mr. Choate. Now that Mr. Choate has done something for them, seemingly, they are not satisfied with what he has done and want something else. The retirement of McCurdy trustees would mean that all the present Board except myself would resign. The British policy holders have not intimated to us that wanted retirement of any particular trustee but if the McCurdy trustees were to retire today, they would request something else tomorrow.

"I want to say however, that if the British policy holders will write over and say what tretuees should resign. the trustees will resign or explain why o'clock last evening may cost the young they should not."

> "First they asked us to permit an English actuary to verify the computation of the reserve liabilities which already had been made by the insurance department of the state of New York that we cheerfully assented.

> "Second, they asked that we elect one or more English trustees. This I presume the company will do very cheerfully, and we will be glad to have names suggested by the English policyholders.

"Third, we have been asked to turn over the English business of the company to a new company to be formed to recover her money and watch, she in London, and to pay over at the same time the total reservees held against the English policies. This we see no time set, and imagine her chargin to legal or lawful way of doing at present. find that her quarry had been freed on For that and for other reasons we have not considered it practicable. The legal questions involved are being examined now by Mr. Choate."

HE SHOWED BASE TREACHERY

Russian Government Gave Him 219,000 Rubles for Securing Support of the Workingmen-Betrayed Peoples Trust.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Maxim Gorky made it clear vesterday that he was not mly an irrepressible for of the Bussian bureaucracy but a merciless critic of such as he regarded as false friends of the Russian people. Speaking of Father Gapon, he said:

"He is an adventurer. He was acidently advanced by a popular wave He is a demagogue. He is warm hearted and possessed of magnetism, but is not a man of strong intellectual abilily. I know Gapon well,

"You must" said Gorky, "Understand the physiology of the situation. Ga pon was not a leader by his own viol lition. He was with the working men and pushed to the front."

Following from the events of "Red Sunday" Gorky said Gapon told him he had not anticipated what had happened. He begged the be sent away, and it was a result that the priest disapeared from public view

Subsequently as Gorky said, Gapon expected to be given by installments the sum of 219,000 rubles as his price for securing the support of the workingmen for the government. "His treachery" said Corky, "Was no surprise. He was obviously of the type that could be expected to sacrifice the interest of the people for his own beneefit whenever the opportunity should arise. He was a man of that Gorky issend yesterday an address to the jewish population in which he said the future history of Russia would devote some of its most thrilling pages the jews. He said that they had evinced superhuman courage in the Russian struggle for liberty and that there was little atti-semitic sentiment in Russia. All that existed here would be spread and encouraged by the government itself.
