the president believes that ultimately we will have some sort of taxation on fortunes which are either given in life or inherited, to prevent more than a stated amount passing to anyone individual. This taxation which he believes should be made by the national government should be aimed only at those fortunes swollen beyond all healthy limits. The president also advocated government supervision of corporations, by legislation framed to do justice both to them and the public, He denounced the warped morality which denouncer bribery, and is blind to blackmail, which foams with rage at favors to corporations and lears hide. prietor and are now guests at the home ously when the corporation itself is wronged. The president declared the on ly public servant to be trusted was the one just as willing to protect one as the other. In effect he said a man who yielding to public clamor would wrong a corporation would secretly wrong the public in the interest of a corporation. Agitators Condemned.

The president condemned the equally rich man who plotted to prevent the regulation of control of their business in the interests of public good, and wild preachers of unrest and agitators against the entire existing order of things.

The most important of all is sympathy, man for man. The welfare of the wage worker and a tiller of the soil he declared, will depend on the welfare of the entire country, and not on pulling of others down.

He urged a broader economic opportunity and clean living and thinking and concluded by declaring the founda-Progress to illustrate the man in every tion stone of the national life must be high individual character.

HAVE LITTLE HOPE.

PHILADELPHIA. April 14 .- Despite the optimism of President Mitchell regarding the anthracite situation, the miners themselves and business men express little hope of a peaceful settlement of the existing differences. The operators are obviously making preparations for a long and extended suspension of mining. FEARS ANOTHER ERUPTION.

NAPLES, April 14 .- Several more bodies were recovered today at Ottaiano and there was a considerable fall of ashes there and at Castellamare. Sulphur fumes are coming from the fissures which opened at Ottajano and fears have been aroused of the opening of a new crater there and the swallow ing up of the town. Basaltic masses exploded here today wounding several soldiers, Ceremony Begins.

Upon the arrival of the grand lodge Masons of the District of Columbia with Walter A, Brown, Grand Master at the head the ceremonies of laying the corner stone were carried out. An hermetically sealed box was placed in the stone, and as it was lowered the marine hand played an intermezzo from the "Cavallier Rusticana." Corn and oil were poured over the stone according to the ancient custom, following which grand master Brown delivered an address

The president was in splendid voice

A liar is no better than a thief and if his mendacity takes the form of slander he may be worse than most thieves. An epidemic of indiscriminate slander does no good, and brings happiness to the soul of every scoundrel who sees an honest man assailed or even a scoundrel assailed untruthfully. Equally as had said the president was too general condemnation, in which the innocent suffer with the guilty. This will result either in a cynical indifference to public corruption or the inability to discriminate between good and bad. Roosevelt counselled the use of great defisedimination between the fortames made and well won, and those made by keeping merely within the limits of the law of honesty, "Of course" said the president. " no amount of charity in spending such fortunes in any way compensates for misconduct in making them."

GORKY DENIES THE CHARGE DESOLATION - IS EVERYWHERE

Story that Russian Revolutionist Is Correspondent Sees Ruin and Death on Traveling With Woman Not His Wife Is Vigorously Denied by Him,

NEW YORK, April 14.-When Maxim Gorky arrived in this country Tues day he stated to immigration officials that he was accompanied by Madame Gorky. This morning a statement was published that his companion was not his legal wife. As a result of the accusation Gorky today issued a state ment denying the accusation. Gorky says he does not believe the American people originated it but it was concocted by friends of the Russian government He declares that Madame Gorky is his wife-the wife of Maxim Gorky. He also stated that the publication of such a libel is a dishonor to the American press and is surprised in a country noted for fair play that such slimy slander should have gained credence. The published story asserted that the Madame Gorky now with the author is Andra Eva, a Russian actress, with whom it is stated Gorky has lived since the separation from his wife two years ago. An explanation was made that it was impossible for Gorky to secure a vorce in Finland , and he was married to Andre Eva before a notary.

Mary Twain when asked whether he would refuse to act on the committee to forward the Russian revolutionary cause said he did not know what effect the publication would have on the members of the committee. He added that he believed in sticking to the flag to say before deciding.
