Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vege-

PORTLAND, April 16.-Dealers who have been out during the past few days find farmers holding potatoes in someseason would seem to warrant. While the price rules strong at 60@75c for fancy, dealers are fairly well stocked, but could dispose of increased shipments. California new potatoes are coming in in small lots and are of pretty good size and appearance. Arrivals are not large enough to break prices on held stocks and will not come in for some weeks in such quantities, California new quoted at 416 41c per 1b.

Steamer and car lots of green stuff arrivals supplied the street pre-try libin good condition and are meeting with @15c. ready sale, Cabbage is hard to get, even at the high prices ruling. The Los Angeles iced carload is due tomorrow, and the condition in which it arrives will largely determine future deals.

A Dandy for Burns,

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill. writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. 'It is a dandy for burns.' Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept

WRIGHTMAN IS WRIGHT.

The people have begun to hurrah for the candidacy of Hon, Frank T. Wrightman for nomination for Secretary of State on the Republican ticket, They say Wrightman is right. They know that he is honorable, capable, industrious and honest. They know, too, that he is peculiarly fitted by education and experience for the efficient performance of the duties of that important office. Besides having a personal advantage over his opponents. Mr. Wrightman's geographical situation commends his candidacy. That nomination should go to Marion county-first, because the pofitical geography of the location and second, because Hon. Frank T. Wrightman lives there and is the best man yet named for the officee.

Mr. Wrightman is an able, thoroughgoing, practical, popular gentleman. He is well known throughout the state and enjoys the confidence of hosts of friends in every county who are working industriously for his success because they know he deserves it. He is an able at torney-at-law, a close observer, an industrious, conscientions business man and has proved himself to be a faithful public official, worthy of the honor of any position of trust to which he may aspire. He will undoubtedly rewill be followed by a Rooseveltian majority.-Portland New Age.
