ASSAULTED BY NEGROES.

Italians Are Assaulted and Shot by Negroes. LOS ANGELES, April 18.—One man was fatally and another seriously shot by three negroes who waylaid them on Enterprise street shortly after eleven o'clock last night. Garo Amato and Luke Zebella, both Italians, were the victims. Amato will die. One bullet entered his breast and passed through the lungs. The other struck him in the stomach and came out at the back. Zebella was shot through the right arm. The two Italians had been making call at the house of some friends in Sacramento street. Leaving the house the men proceeded down the street and when at the corner of Enterprise and Wilson streets three negroes stepped from behind a growth of large castor beans and commenced firing at the Italians with pistols. Amato fell to the pavement at the first volley and Zebella ran. After firing six shots the negroes took to their heels and disappeared in the darkness. No reason is known for the shooting and robbery was evidently not the motive. It is believed to be the result of a recent race war between negroes and Italians in the colony in the neighborhood of where the shooting occurred. No arrests have been made, although the police are searching for the men who did the shooting.

SOLE BENEFICIARIES.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Mrs. Clara Goldsmith, widow of Mr. M. K. Goldsmith and her three children are the sole beneficiaries under the will of L. K. G. Smith of Portland, Ore., who died recently. The estate is large, and Smith's reason for so bequeathing it as expressed in his will, filed for probate yesterday, was that Dr. Goldsmith had befriended him when he was in need. Mrs. Goldsmith and her children formerly lived at the Hotel Ashton. Smith's property consists of 400 acres of Oregon land, 2400 shares of Continental Tobacco preferred stock, 80 $1000 bonds of the Consolidated Tobacco Company, 5579 shares of Greene Consolidated Copper Company stock, 800 preferred and 020 common shares of Republic Iron & Steel, and 100 preferred and 700 common shares of United States Steel corporation stocks. The securities are estimated to be worth about half a million. The deeds and stock are on deposit with the bank of Montreal.

WRIGHTMAN IS WRIGHT.

The people have begun to hurray for the candidacy of Hon. Frank T. Wrightman for nomination for Secretary of State on the Republican ticket. They say Wrightman is right. They know that he is honorable, capable, industrious and honest. They know, too, that he is peculiarly fitted by education and experience for the efficient performance of the duties of that important office. Besides having a personal advantage over his opponents, Mr. Wrightman's geographical situation commends his candidacy. That nomination should go to Marion county—first, because the political geography of the location and second, because Hon. Frank T. Wrightman lives there and is the best man yet named for the office. Mr. Wrightman is an able, thorough-going, practical, popular gentleman. He is well known throughout the state and enjoys the confidence of hosts of friends in every county who are working industriously for his success because they know he deserves it. He is an able attorney-at-law, a close observer, an industrious, conscientious business man and has proved himself to be a faithful public official, worthy of the honor of any position of trust to which he may aspire. He will undoubtedly receive the nomination, in which event will be followed by a Rooseveltian majority.—Portland New Age.

FOR U. S. SENATOR

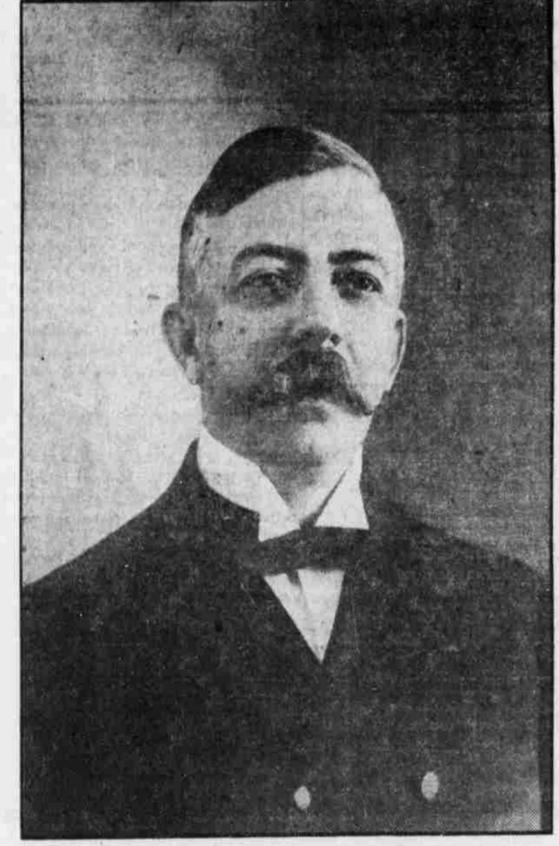

Hon. H. W. Cake and the Platform He Stands Upon.

PLAIN STATEMENT OF FACTS

Republican Principles the Basis of All—Development of Oregon—Labor Interests—Opposition to Trusts—Railroad Legislation.

H. M. Cake, republican candidate for United States Senator, has announced the platform upon which he will go before the people of Oregon at the primaries. The man and the platform will certainly meet with the approval of the people. Loyalty to Republican principles, devotion to the development of Oregon, improvement of rivers and harbors, a vigorous policy in the reclamation of arid lands, Government ownership of the Oregon City locks, tariff for protection and not for monopoly, opposition to trusts, equitable railroad rate legislation aid to deserving veterans, a fair trial of the primary law, construction of the Panama canal, a strong position on the rights of labor, exclusion of Chinese coolie labor, direct election of United States Senators, and a strong stand with the President for the people, are some of the propositions upon which Mr. Cake faces the people of Oregon.

He holds the enforced principles of the Republican party a condition necessary to the prosperity of the people and the maintenance of our institutions, and points to the progress the nation has made along all lines under Republican administration. He declares for harmony in the party and advocates that consideration be shown those who have assisted in maintaining the stability of the organization, and condemns discord, factions and unsettled allegiance to its principles. He urges the necessity of strong efforts to develop the resources and industries of Oregon and movements to procure Federal appropriations to aid in building up the state. In the subject of improvement of rivers and harbors he pledges himself, in the event of his election, to spare no effort to procure Federal appropriations for the completion of jetty construction at the mouth of the Columbia opening of the Dalles-Celilo canal, the dredging of the Willamette river, and the deepening of the harbors of Tillamook, Coos and Yaquina Bays and the Coquille River. He advocates continuing contracts whereby the improvement work will be permanent and effective and not more contingent appropriations which result in little good.

His platform favors a more vigorous prosecution of the work of reclaiming arid lands in Oregon than has been the case heretofore. He takes a strong stand for Government ownership of the Oregon City locks as a means of affording relief to the people of the Willamette Valley from tolls on their traffic. He declares in favor of a tariff for protection, not for monopoly, and takes the position that when a particular industry has become able to take care of itself, the tariff should be modified to meet the changed conditions. The tariff laws, he says, should not be manipulated in the interests of a monopoly of any commodity of the people's necessities. A strong stand is taken in opposition to trusts which Mr. Cake declares to be a menace to the liberties of the people and contrary to every principle of public policy, and he declares in favor of the prohibition of trust combines from carrying on business, their dissolution, and the punishment of violators of the law in this respect; besides such additional legislation as is necessary to correct the evil. He strongly favors giving the Interstate Commerce Commission power to regulate railroads and other corporations carrying on an interstate business. He favors national aid for deserving veterans of the Civil War, declaring that those who risked life, limb, and property for their country in times of national danger, are entitled to aid from the Government. He is in entire accord with the policy of aiding those deserving veterans. The primary law, says Mr. Cake, has been adopted by an overwhelming vote of the people and he favors giving it a full, fair, and complete trial. He stands for the completion of the Panama Canal with all possible dispatch in the interests of American commerce, and as a means of facilitating the movements of the American navy. He declares the right of the American workman to organize for the protection of his rights to be an inherent one and the only means by which he can compete with organized capital. He is in favor of reducing the hours of labor and takes the position that the employment of children in classes of labor that injure them in mind and body, should be prohibited by law. The platform takes a strong stand in opposition to the modification or repeal of the Chinese exclusion act. The present system of electing United States Senators is unsatisfactory, says Mr. Cake, and he fully endorses the policy of electing United States Senators by direct vote of the people. He applauds the stand taken by President Roosevelt in opposition to trusts and combines of capital, and pledges himself that in the event of his election, he will stand with the President on the side of the people in the fight against organized greed.
