THE PROPRIETORS OF THE BARGAIN HOUSE

Were forced to the wall by their creditors and as they could not make a settlement with the Board of Trade, the Referee of Bankruptcy sold the stock at 28c on the dollar to Wienstien Bromberg Company of Portland, who have rented the store room on Commercial street known as the old News-Herald building, and will be sold out at once. The guaranteed bankrupt prices following will give you an idea of what this sale means to every man, woman and child in dollars and cents. EVERY article to be sold at less than cost of material.

The above states how and why we can sell these goods at such Prices.
