

THE MORNING ASTORIAN. ASTORIA, OREGON.

CONVENTION HELD

"Citizens Gather at Logan's Hall In Two Sessions.

NAME DEMOCRATIC LINE-UP

Same Old Farce Enacted by Practically the Same Men—Platform Adopted Big Crowd Present at the Evening Session.

The Citizens' county central committee's call for a mass convention, at Logan's Hall at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, was answered at that hour by fully 100 people from the city and the outlying districts, and promptly at the hour named the gavel of Chairman C. J. Trenhard fell and the house came to order, while Secretary Max Pohl read the call.

The convention at once proceeded with the formal organization and Mayor Herman Wise was unanimously chosen as permanent chairman, while the honors of the secretaryship were, as unanimously, thrust upon Mr. Pohl, and the naming of a committee on platform then engaged the time and attention of the house resulting in the choice of the following citizens: J. E. Gratke, B. F. Allen, C. F. McDermott, Charles E. Lancaster and H. M. Lorntsen.

At this point, adjournment was taken until 8 o'clock last evening, in order to give opportunity for many who were engaged in business and unable to attend the day session, to be present and participate in the final work of the convention.

The work of the morning session was purely formal and was unmarked by any speeches of moment or other business of a livier sort.

Evening Convention.

Two hundred Democrats of Clatsop county met last night in Logan's Hall for the coming election, in June, and adopted a platform alleged to contain the sentiments of their party.

Mayor Wise, who had been chosen at the morning session, called the meeting to order and Secretary Max Pohl read the report giving the order of business to be followed.

On motion of the office of state central committeemen was stricken from the order of business, Bert Ross was named to act as assistant secretary. Olof Anderson, Dr. Logan, and Robert Wherry acted as tellers.

The platform was read by Secretary Max Pohl, and later adopted.

The first office which came up under the order of business for consideration, was that of State Senator. The name of Dr. H. L. Henderson was placed in nomination, and on motion the nomination was made unanimous. He was called on for a speech, and stated that he did not represent any ring, or clique, but the people.

Following the choosing of State Senator, nominations were in order for representative, and the names of Andrew Young and H. M. Lorntsen were placed before the convention. Both of these gentlemen declined the honor and the matter was deferred until later when C. J. Trenhard and George W. Morton were nominated, and elected as the choice of the Democrats of Clatsop county.

For the office of County Judge there was quite a spirit'd contest between the present incumbent, C. J. Trenhard and O. I. Peterson, with W. E. Demint running along in the rear. The vote resulted in Peterson's receiving the nomination, having received 91 votes, and Trenhard 73, with Demint 15.

O. I. Peterson was called on for a speech and the audience were treated to an oration which lack of space forbids publishing.

During a lull in the proceedings a collection was taken for the San Francisco sufferers, and $63.10 was raised.

Another heated contest occurred when the office of Sheriff came up for consideration. John Gratke placed the name of G. W. Morton before the convention and Olof Anderson nominated J. V. Burns. When the vote was taken and the dust had cleared somewhat, it was discovered that Burns had beaten Morton by four votes, having received 92 votes to Morton's 88. Three blanks were cast.

The office of county clerk was passed on motion.

For the office of County Treasurer, R. E. Wallace, a barber who holds down the second chair in the Palace barber shop, was declared the unanimous choice of the convention.

For County Commissioner Joe Bartoldus received the nomination over B. F. Coffey, by a vote of 73 to 36.

The office of county surveyor was filled by G. E. Parker receiving the nomination.

For Coroner, William C. A. Pohl received the unanimous nomination.

C. C. Utzinger was made the unanimous choice of the convention for Justice of the Peace.

John Sayres was made the unanimous choice of the convention for Constable.

On motion of City Attorney Smith the convention unanimously endorsed Governor Chamberlain as its choice for Governor.

The whole ticket was ratified as a whole.

A telegram was read from Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco stating that tents and blankets were in great demand.

The precinct committee were then named after which the convention adjourned.

The platform which was adopted by the convention is given below.

Platform.

We, your committee appointed to draft a platform for presentation to the present assembly respectfully beg to report the following for your consideration and adoption:

"The citizens of Clatsop county in convention assembled do affirm and pledge its representative candidates at the forthcoming election to be held on Monday, June 4, 1906, to the following:

"We believe in a non-partisan business of all county and municipal affairs.

"Just and equal enforcement of all laws.

"A reduction in the burden of excessive taxation.

"An eight-hour work day for all laborers.

"We endorse Statement No. 1, the election of United States Senators and all other public officials by popular vote of the people.

"Granting equal suffrage to women.

"Municipal ownership of all public utilities requiring a franchise.

"Public ratification at a general election of all charter amendments.

"The construction of permanent public highways for the development of the county.

"A public highway leading from east to west in the City of Astoria to be maintained by general taxation.

"Adequate protection to our salmon industry and liberal appropriations for the maintenance of state fish hatcheries.

"Strict enforcement of laws governing the protection of our timber for the future preservation of the forests.

"We abhor the existence of vice and its eliminating influences and pledge our candidates to strict enforcement of the state laws regulating public gambling in its various forms.

"Respectfully submitted,

"J. E. GRATKE,

"B. F. ALLEN,

"C. F. McDERMOTT,

"CHAS. E. LANKESTER,

"H. M. LORNTSEN,

"Platform Committee."

Miss Mikelson who has a sweet soprano voice pleased her audience so well that she was recalled and rendered a second selection which was also heartily received.

Mr. Charles Abercrombie sang a bass solo in his usual pleasing manner.

The Star Theatre performers who had arrived with their "Balaho band" earlier in the evening then proceeded to make the audience forget that there is any such thing as trouble in this world.

Mr. Wilson rendered the violin selection, "Cavallero Rusticano" in a manner which showed wonderful feeling and technique. He responded to a hearty encore with "The Mocking Bird," and his imitation of a bird singing.

Miss Madden kept the audience interested with one of her lectures and gave some very sage advice.

Mr. Barth told some of his German dialect stories in a manner which kept everyone in a roar of laughter.

Mr. Beach also gave some character work and his Chinese story brought down the house.

G. W. Larner rendered a baritone solo in a very creditable manner.

Mr. Agnew sang a tenor solo with a cello obligato which showed that while Mr. Agnew may shine as a rat catcher, he is also a singer and a good one.

The entertainment netted a very neat sum which was turned into the relief fund at once.

More immigrants are needed. Eastern factories want; western railroads must have them. The employment agencies grab them as soon as they land.

Herman Wise will give 10 per cent of all cash sales during the balance of this month to the relief of the earthquake sufferers in California.

As Mr. Wise carries the largest stock of men's and boys' goods and has all of his goods marked in plain figures, you will do well to buy your goods from Mr. Wise and indirectly help those who are in want in California.
