Knew Nothing.

CHICAGO, May 7 .- A large audience in St. James' Methodist Church, Fortysixth street and Ellis avenue, was thrown into a turmoil last night when the pastor, the Rev. William A. Quayle, was denounced at the close of his sermon by a woman who rose from a pew in the center of the house and declared the pastor to be "an ignorant man, preaching of things of which he knew After she had shouted her protest, in spite of the efforts of the organist, who tried to drown her voice by playing a hymn, the woman turned and walked out of the church, muttering a curse upon the sermon and its author.

The woman's name was not learned but it is believed she is a trance medium. Dr. Quayles sermon had considered chiefly of a scathing arraignment of certain ideas, which, in some quarters have taken possession of the public mind, and a warning to his con-
