Berge to A. S. Kerry, warranty, $1200, southwest quarter, section 25, T. 8 N., R. 5 W.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

The recent fire on Astor street disclosed a state of affairs that is intolerable. Old mattresses, umbrellas, broken furniture, rags and combustible filth of all descriptions are thrown into the back yards of the houses. Such refuse makes good kindling for fires and furnishes food for flames, thereby endangering the lives and property of the people. This condition of affairs obtains, not only on Astor street, but also on Bond, Commercial and other streets; and after consultation with the Committee on Fire and Water, it has been decided to give public notice to all concerned, that all such premises must be cleaned up within thirty days from date. At the expiration of that period, members of the Committee on Fire and Water, together with the Chief of Police and Chief of the Fire Department, will make a tour of inspection, and all corporations, firms or individuals, failing to clean up will be prosecuted, in accordance with the ordinances of the city. HERMAN WISE, Mayor. Astoria, May 7, 1906.

Suit Filed.—Nolan & Smith attorneys for the plaintiff, yesterday filed suit in the circuit court of Clatsop county, in which John Hahn is plaintiff, and the Astoria Savings Bank, and others are defendants.

Licensed, and Wedded.—Yesterday morning County Clerk Clinton issued a marriage license in favor of Mr. R. W. Hubbler of Rainier and Miss Augusta Johnson, and at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, Judge C. J. Trenhard married the happy pair at his office on Ninth street.

Chrysanthemums, Asters, Heliotrope plants, beautifully filled hanging baskets, etc., at Columbia Nursery Co., 516 Bond street. 5-6-3t.

At County Court.—A case of assault and battery was filed in Justice Goodman's court yesterday by one Frank Evanson as against Joseph Kelly. The case was called at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and Kelly entered a plea of not guilty, and demanded a full jury trial, and demanded that witnesses be summoned for his defense, and then went to jail in default of a twenty-dollar bail, to await the fulfillment of his wishes at the expense of the county. The case will come up at 10 o'clock this morning.

Republican Headquarters.—Headquarters of the Clatsop county Republican party were opened yesterday evening at 121 Tenth street in this city, and at noon yesterday Mr. L. E. Selig was duly appointed by the County Central Committee as the custodian of the place, with instructions to "hold the fort" against all comers and to make everyone as welcome as the flowers in May" with an over-lap to the 5th of June. The place will be made as comfortable and cozy as possible, and the press of the state and county will be represented on the tables at the rooms, and other good things may be had for the bare intimation that they are wanted. Full arrangements will be made for ascertaining the full and exact Republican majorities at this point in due season, and in the meantime, every Republican and every one else who so desires may have the courtesies and comforts of a political home by merely appearing there.

Parlor Meeting.—Yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jennie Busey, Mrs. Emma Smith De Voe conducted a parlor meeting in a very pleasing manner. Mrs. De Voe has the happy faculty of winning all who meet her and a most enjoyable and helpful afternoon was spent. Mrs. De Voe also spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience in the Norwegian Lutheran Church last night on "True Americanism," and urged that fair play and justice be given. She is a fine speaker and captures her audience by her bright ways, and convinces them by her logic. The Norwegian male chorus added greatly to the success of the meeting by their fine singing, which was greatly appreciated. Mrs. De Voe will conduct a parlor meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. J. Curtis, corner Fifteenth and Exchange streets, to which all ladies are invited, and tonight she will speak in the Baptist Church. A special invitation is extended to the members of the G. A. R. and all unions to be present at this meeting. Mrs. De Voe's husband is a member of the G. A. R. and a song composed by him will be sung at the meeting tonight. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

From This Day On.—The Fair Eastern Millionaire store will place its entire elegant stock of dress and street hats and all dainty accessories, before its customers, today, upon a basis of liberal discount from recent prevailing prices. This concession will continue indefinitely, and ladies should avail themselves of the pronounced cut. 5-6-tf.

In the New Barracks.—The local Salvation Army corps will inaugurate their new barracks at the corner of Eighth and Commercial streets, this evening, and will remain there permanently.

Two Fair Expressions.—The regular meeting of the Retail Clerks' Association was held last night, and a number of routine matters were disposed of; after which the association went on record as a contributor to the suffering San Franciscans, to the tune of $15 spot cash; and, after that, they ratified and commended the action of the city council in regulating that matter of the janitorship at the city hall, in the way it did.

In the Police Court.—Eva Gingham, appeared in the Police Court yesterday afternoon and pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk. Eva is well and familiarly known in police circles, as she has the habit of imbibing too freely of alcoholic beverages, which inevitably lands her in the shadow of the bars. The last time Eva fell from grace she spent a week in jail, and the prospect of spending another seven days did not appeal strongly to her. Judge Anderson fined Eva $40, suspending sentence, upon her promise to leave the city. E. Ellsworth was sentenced to five days in jail for drunkenness, and another individual received a fine of $5.00 for the same misdemeanor.

SEVEN DAYS MORE!

The insistent duty of the hour for Republicans, is to register. There is nothing just so imperative as this, and further neglect of this essential must be deemed a tacit breach of good faith and purpose. Go on record as a Republican and stay on record to the last moment of the campaign. It is just as much a duty as voting and the full registration of the party is one of the requirements of the elective processes provided by law. Fulfill the law and take your victory as becomes the best of citizens! Register now! NOW!! NOW!!!

Friday, May 18th.—On Friday night, May 18th, at the Star Theatre, the Astoria Musicians' Union will give a grand benefit, the money results of which will be sent to the suffering musicians of San Francisco. A splendid program will be offered and the expectations of a crowded house should be realized to the limit. It is said that the union will insist upon the professional contribution of every musician in the city, and will fine the one who fails, either in the sum of five dollars or the cost of a substitute from Portland. They evidently do not intend to have any back-sliding in the ranks on a big and generous proposition like this.

Now in Arizona.—Judge F. J. Taylor yesterday received a letter from his old friend, W. C. Parsons, formerly of this city, and who was an earthquake colleague of his in San Francisco lately. Mr. Parsons is now in McCabe, Yavapai county, Arizona, and feeling splendidly after his recession from the turmoil and distress of the beleaguered city.

Grand Army Banquet.—The ladies of the Grand Army in this city intend to give a genuine New England dinner tomorrow, beginning at 11:30 o'clock and lasting all day, at the store-room formerly occupied by Robinson, the furniture man. The meal, which will be of the very best, will cost the modest sum of 25 cents, and a good dinner and a better cause, ought to result in a redundant and gratifying income for the good women at the head of it. Go, everybody!

A COUNTER-STATEMENT.

A communication in Saturday morning's Astorian, signed by C. L. Perkins and C. Erickson, relative to the Imperial Music Company, in which they express dissatisfaction at the treatment claimed to have been received from the representatives of the company, is false in every particular and when Messrs. Perkins and Erickson were employed. It was with the distinct understanding that they had some knowledge of the business of canvassing, and being able-bodied men, could make sufficient to pay their board bills.

There was no misrepresentation of the intents and purposes of the Imperial Music Co., which is a company organized in every city in the United States where it has built up a good business, and where all responsible agents employed have made good wages. The company has been successful in Astoria, having nearly 100 pupils, and is yet in its infancy, so far as a thorough canvass of the city is concerned. The venture has never been a failure in any city and particularly not in Astoria, although it might have been, had the company continued in their service such unexperienced men as Perkins and Erickson. IMPERIAL MUSIC CO.

THE NIMBLE COIN.

The nimble coin of the country never does so good a thing as when it supplies a man with a well-cooked and healthful meal of the sort he is hungry for. In this instance it becomes a blessing, and no pocketbook is the poorer for the expenditure; this is why everyone you see coming out of the Palace Restaurant carries such a grateful and satisfied expression of countenance. Just watch for a day or so, and the first thing you know you'll be a steady customer there. It is one of the certainties of Astoria life.
