Sciatica Cured After Twenty Years of Torture.

For more than twenty years Mr. J. B. Massey, of 3322 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endur ed during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle has effected a permanent cure. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 5-cent bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by Frank Hart, and leading druggists.

Young Girls

Nowadays girls are pushed Sufferings of Womanhood to the limit of their endurance both in school and society. They must make a success -even if they are forever unfitted for the larger school of life and debarred from the happiness of motherhood.

At this time of life, when just entering upon womanhood, nature makes heavy drains upon the vitality, especially at each monthly period,

Lydia E.Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

the most wonderful of all tonic restorative medicines for women, will tide a young girl over this trying time and bring her safely into strong, noble, beautiful womanhood.

Experience of a Beautiful High School Girl

My Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I write to see if you can suggest some means to cure me. A fittle more than a year ago I was unwell for the first time, and since then I have been sick all the time in some way or other and suffered with painful and irregular periods. I went to a summer resort for my health and was doctored all summer, but to no effect. I have not been unwell for two months and thought I would see if you could do me any good. I attend High School and would not like to miss any time if it is possible. Marion Barsen, North Adams, Mass.

Miss Barber writes again after two years

My Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Some time ago I wrote to you for advice, being troubled with trregular and painful periods and female troubles. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and using the Sanative Wash, and I am glad to say I am completely cured and have not had any sickness since. I wish to thank you for your kind advice and shall recommend your medicine to my girl friends. Marion Barser, 101 Bracewell Ave., North Adams, Mass.

Free Advice for Young Girls

All young girls are earnestly urged to write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge. Thousands of women are well, strong and beautiful to-day because they made a confidant of Mrs. Pinkham and followed her instructions at this critical time of their lives.

ANIMAL PARTIES.

A Delightful Form of Amusement For Small Children.

Many mothers are at a loss for amusements when arranging a party for their small children. Something novel is sought for and not always found. Here is a suggestion that is sure to meet with the approval of the wee folks. The animal party, if carried out according to the following directions, is bound to be a success.

Invitation cards are sent out for "an animal party." and each card bears on it some picture of a bird or animal. The nursery is gayly decorated with pictures of wild animals, bows, arrows and toy guns, Indian weapons and brightly colored blankets.

The party commences with the animal game. The children form a circle with one child blindfolded in the middle; the children hold hands and go barrels, 15c; wood barrels, 17ac; extra round until the "blind man" calls "Stop!" He then touches some one in the circle with a toy whip he holds, and whoever is touched must imitate the cry of an animal, which if the blind man fails to guess he must remain in the circle until he guesses right, and the child caught becomes blind man.

A less noisy game is the tailless fox. A large sheet is hung on the wall, on which has been sketched the figure of a tailless fox. Each child is given a fox tail made of wadding, with a pin in the end, and, blindfolded, he tries to pin the tall on to where he thinks it belongs. The child who gets nearest the spot receives a prize of an animal full of sweets.

Another circle game is wolf and a child, as lamb, in the middle. The wolf is outside and tries to break through the circle and reach the lamb. Should he succeed, the two children through whom he broke in become respectively the wolf and the lamb.

Supper is a great feature in the animal party. Children are so fond of Injuns and wild animals that the table is often decorated with toy buffaloes and Indian dolls, while at each place are a toy revolver and an American flag. Tiny tots, too, delight in the family hunt, which takes place in another room, where various toy animals have been hidden in odd places. There should be enough toys for each child; otherwise there will be many heartburnings. The children come into the room and are told to imagine it a large forest, where wild animals are hiding. The hunt begins, and each child captures a hidden wild beast. The name give their patrons an excellence of serof a child is written on each animal, vice not obtainable elsewhere. and the hunt goes on until the children have discovered the gifts intended for them. When they find an animal with another child's name upon it, it is buried once more and the search con- by the Block system. tinued. The animal party means a very jolly afternoon, and the children will go home saying. "Well, we've had a dandy time."

Lining Veils.

The fashion of lining fancy veils with a becoming shade of chiffon is increasing. One girl was seen wearing a new and extremely becoming veil of the finest tulle in a fetching shade of marron. Delicate scrolls of chenille wandered over the hem, and there was a powdering of large and small dots over the rest of the surface. It was worn with a small sable toque, drawn neatly over the face. It was crossed at the back and tied in an immense bow under the chin, the ends being tucked in the front of the jacket. This lamb. The ring represents the fold and shade of marron is wonderfully becoming to a clear complexion, and especially with its cobweb lining of chiffon in pale blush rose tint. Very few women realize that pale blue tulle makes a stunning lining for the winter vell, particularly when combined with silver gray net, as it adds a delicate bloom to fresh cheeks, and, if spotted with white, the effect is quite fairylike.

How to Wash Fine Linen.

As to how fine linen should be washed and guarded a large linen manufacturer gives some excellent hints. He advises the best of washing soaps to begin with, Soaps full of alkali discolor linen. It is better to wring linen by hand or at least have the roller of the wringer fairly loose. Be sure that the rinsing process is thorough. A great improvement in doing up linen is this stock: Dissolve one ounce of gum arabic in half a pint of warm water, add one tablespoonful of the solution to a quart of water and wring out the linen in the mixture.
