A Quiet Day Along Astoria's Waterfront.

HEATHER LEAVES FOR NORTH

Items of Interest Collected by the Reporter—Despatch, Nome City, and Whittier Due in From San Francisco.

Word was received here yesterday, that with her headgear carried away and her rigging seriously damaged the schooner Bainbridge, Captain Englebrethton, put into San Pedro, Sunday evening for repairs. She had been in collision off Santa Rosa Island with the barkentine Gleaner, commanded by Captain Ismael. The Gleaner did not escape damage but repairs were made at sea and the vessel continued on her course. The Bainbridge was bound for Port Blakeley and the Gleaner for Coos Bay.

One of the important missions of the Heather to the north is the placing of a splendid, latest pattern, whistling buoy on the American margin of the entrance to the Straits of Fuca, and near the scene of the recent terrific disaster to the steamship Valencia. She has the monster signal can lashed on her forward deck now.

The Heather will leave this port this morning for her voyage to the far north, with Commander Werlich, local inspector of the lighthouse district on board for the cruise. He arrived down last night on the late express and went on board immediately.

The steamship George W. Elder is at last in the drydock at St. Johns, undergoing the full measure of repair that shall place her on the roster of usable vessels once more.

The big steam schooner Tierton which has been loading timbers at the Tongue Point Lumber Company's dock, cleared yesterday for San Francisco with a cargo of 350,000 feet.

The steamers Despatch, Nome City and Whittier are due here from San Francisco, and the British steamer Dulwich from Victoria.

The four masted schooner John A. Campbell came in over the Columbia bar yesterday and is at anchor in the lower harbor.

The steamship Baracouta should make this harbor today, having left San Francisco on Saturday last, for Portland.

The steamer Sue H. Elmore left out for Tillamook City yesterday morning at 9:15 o'clock.

The oil steamer Atlas arrived in at 5 o'clock yesterday morning and went directly on to Portland.

"Vacation Estimates" on the coast of a summer's outing in Colorado and Utah, is the theme of the newest booklet issued by the Passenger Department of the Denver & Rio Grand Railroad. One is told what can be done or seen on an expedition of $10.00 per week and up.

LIFE A LUXURY.

Deserves All Luxuries Which Man Can Conquer From Nature by Toil.

CHICAGO, May 28.—"Life is a luxury and it deserves all the luxuries which man can conquer from nature with his toil or his thought. M. M. Mangasarian declared yesterday in his closing lecture of the season before the Independent religious society in Orchestra Hall.

"The cry against luxury," he continued, "is an evil symptom. It is the old spirit of asceticism in a new guise. Luxury is the gratification of the wants of the civilized man. It is not true that luxury degrades a nation. If the Greeks and the Romans perished, so did the barbarous Parthians and the severely simple Spartans.

"The modern man is stronger and capable of greater endurance, not in spite of the comforts and luxuries of civilized life, but because of them. When the life of society was more simple and severe men could not stand the strain to which the American or the European is subjected today.

"But wealth, against which the reformers raise their voice, has made human life decent. Even liberty is born of better material conditions. Prosperity elevates the masses. It is not 'Blessed to be poor.' Poverty, like disease, is life at a low ebb. Art, science, genius, beauty, are all luxuries and yet how unprofitable and flat life would be without them. Get all you can enjoy and enjoy all you possess. The quest of wealth and the conquest of knowledge protect civilization from falling into the sere and yellow leaf."

OREGON TRACK MEN LEAVE FOR SEATTLE

Hayward Will Depend on the Sprints, Jumps and Weights to Win.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 28.—The track team of the university left this afternoon on the north-bound train for Portland and Seattle, and will arrive in the latter city Tuesday morning. The triangular track meet between the universities of Oregon, Washington and Idaho will be held on the Athletic Park oval, Seattle, next Wednesday.

Trainer W. L. Hayward is reasonably confident of winning the contest, but will make no positive statements. However, he is usually taciturn over the results of contests, but the students are all confident of victory. Washington has a strong team, and a very close score is looked for, but there are enough first-place men on the Oregon team, together with strong second-place men, that place the balance of doubt on the Oregon side. Idaho has a good team, but is not in the class of either Oregon or Washington. Her strength is in the distance events and pole vault.

Oregon is especially weak in the distance events, and Hayward will take no half-mile or mile men with him to Seattle. The strength of the Oregon team lies in the sprints, jumps and weights, and the men in these events are considered strong enough to win the meet without the distance men. Following are the men who left today in company with Trainer Hayward and Manager Winslow; Captain Hug, McKinney, Moulten, Kelly, Frissel, Moores, Kuykendall, Veatch, Priedaux and Obberteauffer.

Herbine Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints.

It is the best blood enricher and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfect harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise. R. N. Andrews, editor and manager Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla., writes: "I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit. Sold by Frank Hart's drug store."

It is Dangerous to Neglect a Cold.

How often do we hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

Mlle. Paulina of Holland is said to be the smallest woman on earth. She is 20 inches in height, 18 years of age, and weighs less than nine pounds.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Arctic Club held exercises yesterday in Woodlawn Cemetery at the graves of Commander G. W. DeLong, the Arctic explorer, and his five shipmates of the Jeannette expedition in 1879. The members were joined by delegations from the DeLong guards of Hoboken, the Alumni Association of the Nautical School Ship St. Mary's, the Navy League of the United States, and the Naval Order of the United States.

After a prayer, a poem written by Miss Minna Irvin was read. Wreaths were placed on the graves by the daughters of Sergeant Long, one of the survivors of the Greely expedition. Taps were sounded and the party then went to the grave of William Ziegler, who financed the two polar expeditions which bore his name. Here similar ceremonies took place. Anthony Fiola, who commanded the second Ziegler expedition, paid a tribute to Mr. Ziegler.

Racial Discrimination.

A small French-Italian coasting steamer was proceeding on its way. The passengers were of various nationalities—English, American, French, Italian and one large German. Most of the male passengers were gathered in the smoking room when the steward appeared at the door and with a bow announced, "Dinner, it is serve!" The English and American contingent arose and started toward the dining saloon. The steward, seeing that his announcement had not been understood by all, continued, "Messieurs, c'est servi!" and as a portion of the passengers still remained seated, "Il pranzo e servito!" The French and Italians followed the English and Americans, leaving the large German in solitary state. "Himmel!" he muttered hungrily. "Is it dot no German mans gets some things to eat on dis boat, helm?"—Harp's Weekly.

FAST TEN ROUNDS

McGovern Makes Remarkable Showing Against Britt.

NO ONE IS DECLARED WINNER

McGovern Has the Best of Close Fighting—Britt is in Better Condition Fight is Very Fast Throughout.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Terry McGovern surprised everybody tonight by his wonderful showing against Jimmie Britt in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden. Tim Hurst was referee, but as no decision can be given under the laws governing boxing, the spectators had to judge for themselves as to the relative merits of the men. Immediately after the fight both the principals and officials of the match were arrested charged with participating in a prizefight. Britt looked to be in the better condition of the two, and about five pounds lighter. He was very clever and shifty and ducked away from some hard swings. McGovern stuck to his old style of bulldog fighting. There was a great deal of clinching, holding and infighting, but whenever they indulged in a mixup, Terry seemed to have the better of it. It was a hurricane fight throughout, both men giving and taking plenty of punishment.

Exposure

The cold draughts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of the temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, bring on coughs and colds.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best cure. Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Tex., writes, Jan. 31, 1902: "One bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take. Sold by Hart's drug store."

Sciatica Cured After Twenty Years of Torture. For more than twenty years Mr. J. B. Massey, of 3322 Clinton St., Minneapolis, Minn., was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application of that liniment relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle has effected a permanent cure. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 5-cent bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by Frank Hart, and leading druggists.
