TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN.

Probate Order.—Frank Carney, James O'Connell and Asmus Bris, were appointed by Judge Trenchard, sitting for probate, yesterday, as appraisers of the estate of H. S. Bris, a minor.

Gored by a Bull.—A young farmer living near Push, in this country, was badly gored by an ill-tempered bull yesterday morning and his body badly torn in several places. He was taken to Seaside for treatment, and it was thought at first that his case was hopeless, but the utmost skill and care was given him, and it is now thought he will slowly, but surely recover. His name could not be learned from any one coming up from the shore city.

Has a Kick Coming.—Benjamin Young was approached yesterday by the Fourth of July committee for his customary subscription to the general fund for the celebration, and while he is willing to do all that may be in his line for that kind of a thing, he refused, on the ground that he could not conscientiously contribute until the city council passes an ordinance to keep the cows from running at large in Uppertown, where he has a fine place subject to invasion. Just what the council will do under the extraordinary stress of his refusal no man can say, but the issue is squarely raised as between cows and coin as far as he is concerned.

Baseball Game Wednesday.—On Memorial day the Shamrocks of this city will meet the strong Multnomah nine on the A. F. C. grounds. The locals have been doing some hard practice of late and a good game is assured. Multnomah has defeated many of the strong nines throughout the state and to win the local nine will have to do some hard work. With the new uniforms which the Shamrocks have ordered the team will present a fine appearance on the field. The colors are red and green. The club has leased the A. F. C. grounds for the season and have a number of good games scheduled. 5-27-06.

JOHNSON BROS. GOOD GOODS.

118-122 Twelfth St., Astoria, Ore.

Two Instruments.—The following instruments went to the public records of this county yesterday. The United States to Pearl E. Brugger, patent, forty acres in section 29, T. 7 N., R. 7 W. The United States to J. J. Brugger, 140 acres in the same section.

Small Blaze.—A spark from a donkey engine falling on the roof of the house of Phil Hadden at Fourteenth and Jerome avenue, yesterday afternoon, caused a small fire. The department was on the scene in a short time and easily extinguished the blaze. The damage was slight.

Hammond Note.—Hive No. 39, Ladies of the Maccabees, at Hammond, gave a benefit dance there on Saturday night last, for one of their sisters, who now resides in Portland, and over 175 people attended the affair. It was one of the pleasantest social events of the social season here.

A Thorough Job.—Col. H. B. Parker is making a thorough job of the repair of the Parker House. The carpenter work on the outside is all done, and now he has a force of men at work on the inside, repapering and embellishing the interior, and has about closed a contract with a painting firm for the painting of the exterior from one end to the other. The house will be given two coats, the ground floor to be in solid white, and the three upper stories in a dark cream color.

Terra Cotta Invasion.—Three carloads of the famous terra cotta for the new county court house have arrived here from Lincoln, California, from the factory, and is being housed in the sheds upon the court house grounds and in the basement of that uncompleted structure; while three more are due to arrive any day, with nine or ten carloads yet to hear from. It will be a terra cotta terror before the last load of the costly stuff is stored here and a fanciful "white elephant" before it is ever used.

Here's a Start.—A prominent and wealthy citizen of Astoria was heard to remark yesterday, upon his reading the new hotel proposition in yesterday's Morning Astorian, that "he believed he had a lot he would offer, free, to the men who proposed to put up a $100,000 hotel in this city"; and he is a man who can, and will, make good, if the time comes. His name will be made public when he permits it, but for the moment it is but just that others manifest as much interest as he, in so prime an enterprise.

Line-up Announced.—The Shamrocks have now selected their line-up for the coming games, which is as follows: Jackson, third base; R. Graham, shortstop; McCann, left field; Wroten, center field; Carlson, second base; Weatherford, catcher; Anet, right field; Painter, first base; Brakke, pitcher; Crowe, pitcher; Yearning, catcher; Morrison, first base. The game with the strong Multnomah nine, tomorrow, will be hotly contested and well worth seeing. Tickets for the game are on sale at the Palace cigar store. Admission, 50 cents. The following is the line-up of the Multnomah team: Stott, catcher; Goddell, pitcher; Trowbridge, first base; Campbell, second base; Grey, shortstop; Houston, third base; Holman, left field; Henkle, center field; Stockton, right field.

In Police Court.—An "Amazon" of the Astor street district, drank a too liberal quantity of intoxicating beverages yesterday, became too noisy for even the patrolman's ears to escape noticing, and naturally found herself before Judge Anderson to explain. After an investigation into the facts, the girl was given the choice of leaving town or paying a $30 fine. She preferred to do the latter. Howard Brownell appeared for the defendant. Six other cases of drunkenness were awarded fines of five and ten dollars, according to the degree of intoxication, and the extent of their financial resources. Thirteen gambling complaints were read, and bail in the sum of $25 each declared forfeited, after the usual custom. The city now reaps an income of nearly $1500 per month from gambling licenses.

Morning Astorian, 65c. per month.

Returns From Seattle.—Mrs. C. D. Stewart of this city, returned yesterday noon from Seattle where she was called last week by the death of her father.

Memorial Day Exercises.—This afternoon the children of the Shively school will give memorial exercises to which everyone is invited. In addition to the children's program members of the G. A. R. will speak.

Committee at Work.—The Fourth of July committee is already hard at work soliciting funds for the celebration, and are meeting with good success. From present prospects the fourth will be celebrated in Astoria as never before.

Have Little Hope.—The democratic county candidates went to Olney last night, where they spoke to a small audience. The candidates while they realize there is not much hope of winning out, are making the best of a bad situation.

Report Completed.—The monthly report of City School Superintendent Clark, for the month ending on May 25th has been completed. According to the report the banner room for the month was room 2 of the Taylor school, with 99.6 percentage of attendance, and 100 per cent punctuality. The banner school for the month was Alderbrook school with 98.7 per cent of attendance, and 100 per cent punctuality. The total monthly enrollment was 1299, and the average daily attendance was 1254.4.

Not Here.—The fittings for the hydrants to be placed at the corner of Sixteenth and Exchange streets, and Fifteenth and Exchange streets, have not yet arrived, but as soon as they do, the water department will have them installed. It is the expectation of the water commission to once more advertise for bids for clearing the ground for the high service reservoir. Two bids were received at the previous time, but both were considered far too much and were rejected.

Republican Rally.—The republican county candidates for the coming election went to Hammond last night on the launch Queen returning after holding one of the most successful rallies of the campaign. Over 200 voters were present to listen and applaud the speakers. Fred W. Mulkey, republican candidate for U. S. Senator for the short term, was present and addressed the audience. Among those who spoke were W. T. Schollfield, Amos Bris, J. A. Eakin, M. R. Pomeroy, J. C. Clinton, W. A. Sherman, C. E. Clinton, J. C. McCue, and Fred W. Mulkey.

NO COMMON CHANCE.

Seldom is the opportunity afforded in this city to enjoy such music as will be heard at the Monteith concert in the Methodist church this evening. The choicest productions of some of the world's greatest composers will be interpreted by artists who have few equals. If you appreciate the entrancing melody of a superior voice in classic themes, the soulful strains of the violin in its perfection and the marvelous possibilities of the piano do not fail to attend. Admission, 50 cents, and money back if you do not get more than its value. See program in another column.
