

The Noted Desperado Couldn't Stand That

A KENTUCKY congressman tells an interesting tale of the execution of a noted desperado in that state some years ago. Just before the sheriff adjusted the noose he asked the usual question whether the man had anything to say.

Such Is Love.

He—You know, I felt awfully cheap when I asked you to marry me. She—That's why I accepted. I thought you were a bargain.—New York World.

The Highest.

A hard headed westerner who had "made his pile" had been induced by his wife and daughters to move to New York that they might have the advantages of a more fashionable society than that afforded in Smelter City.

Suspicious.

A small boy who had been very naughty was first reprimanded, then told that he must take a whipping. He flew upstairs and hid in the far corner under a bed.

Inopportune.

"Burglars are trying to get into the apartment," said the maid in a terrified whisper. "Indeed!" answered the actress.

Other Side of It.

"Why, young man," said the stern parent, "you certainly don't think I would be foolish enough to let a penniless youth like you marry my daughter, do you?"

Another Sort of Fowl.

"The impudence of that young brother of mine!" exclaimed Mrs. Nagget. "He just told me I was no chicken when I married you."

Weather Wise.

Thirty-two people had been arrested for speeding their autos in a little town. At dusk the justice sat in his office counting the proceeds. As he finished he turned, smiling, to his clerk and said:

Persistent.

"Lend me $5, old man, will you?" "Like to accommodate you, but I'm trying to borrow $10 myself."

Cloves in Church.

"When I was a boy the whole family went to church," says a Kansas City man. "We lived in the country, and every Sabbath morning the family coach was pulled out, a team hitched to it, and the family was piled in.

"I well remember that mother put on her Sunday dress. It was a black silk, and somewhere in it there was a pocket and in the pocket a handkerchief and in the handkerchief some cloves. When we got to the church I remember we went up in front, where my father had a pew.

"When the preacher got going I also remember that some of us children would begin to get sleepy, and then I know that mother would take out that handkerchief and give out a clove to each one of us youngsters to keep us awake. I was thinking about it just the other day, and I just wondered if a child or a man in these modern times would take a clove out of his handkerchief or pocket in church and put it in his mouth what in the world his neighbor would think of him."—Kansas City Journal.

Too Busy to Grow.

A small office boy who had worked in the same position for two years on a salary of $3 a week finally plucked up enough courage to ask for an increase in wages.

"How much more would you like to have?" inquired his employer.

"Well," answered the lad, "I don't think $2 more a week would be too much."

"Well, you seem to me a rather small boy to be earning $5 a week," remarked his employer.

"I suppose I do. I know I'm small for my age," the boy explained, "but, to tell you the truth, since I've been here I haven't had time to grow." He got the raise.—St. Nicholas.

Underwear and Chills.

The reasons for the flannel underwear preventing chilling are these: The material is a bad conductor of heat; hence it retains in itself the heat acquired from the body, and this heat is largely given to the moisture absorbed. Flannel also absorbs more moisture than an equal thickness of cotton or linen, and it retains moisture better than either. Now, the passing away of moisture into the air always means the cooling of the surface from which it passes.

An Alarming Situation

frequently results from neglect of clogged bowels and torpid liver, until constipation becomes chronic. This condition is unknown to those who use Dr. King's New Life Pills; the best and gentlest regulators of Stomach and Bowels. Guaranteed by Charles Rogers, druggist. Price 25c.
