On the 17th the soldiers at Fort Stevens will have two games; one with Fort Columbia, and another with the crack Schiller's nine of Portland. Manager Allen of the Shamrocks has come to an agreement with the Fort Stevens nine and a game will probably be played here between the two teams in the near future. At Skamokawa today the Warrenton and Skamokawa teams will meet, and after the game the Shamrocks of this city will play the winners.

Funeral Today.—The funeral of the late John Anderson, whose body was recovered near Sand Island a few days ago, will take place this afternoon from the Pohl undertaking parlors at 1 o'clock with the interment in Greenwood cemetery.

An Inadvertance.—By an inadvertance the report of the election totals in yesterday morning's Astorian, the figures cast in Astoria precinct No. 7, "against prohibition" were left out. There were exactly eighty-seven votes cast against it there, to the ninety-five filed in behalf of it.

Has Made But One.—Merritt R. Pomeroy, sheriff-elect of this county, has made but one suggestion in the matter of his proposed appointments of deputies, that of Allan Y. Anderson; and all other rumors and announcements, of any sort, are gratuitous fabrications from interested sources.

Report Made Soon.—Chairman J. T. Ross, who, with Messrs. Young & Kelcey the Portland engineers, went over the course of the proposed seawall, on Friday afternoon, says that the engineers will file a report on tomorrow or Tuesday in relation to the cost of plans and specifications amend that enterprise.

Accidentally Shot.—While walking through a meadow carrying his gun, G. W. Nutter yesterday morning had the misfortune to cause the accidental discharge of the weapon, so that the contents severely wounded his left hand. Mr. Nutter at once came to this city where his wounds were attended to.

Find Body.—Yesterday morning while Gus Pickernell and William Bush were drifting down the river with a gill net they picked up the badly decomposed body of what was upon inspection found to be that of a man. The head, arms and legs were gone and identification was impossible, though it is thought the remains are those of a Japanese who jumped overboard from the steamer Brookfield while being deported about a year ago. The remains were removed to the Pohl funeral parlors, and will be interred tomorrow.

Schedule Changes.—This morning the new summer schedule of the Astoria & Columbia Railroad goes into effect and it is worth the while of everyone here about to familiarize themselves with the changes, which, while not radical, are sharp enough to cause one to miss their train very easily. For instance, the morning express that used to leave here at 7:45 o'clock, now departs at 8:20; and arrives at Portland at 11:55 instead of 11:20 a. m. as heretofore. The west bound service from this point is practically undisturbed by the new card.

Erect Fountain.—At the meeting of the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon it was decided to purchase and erect a fine fountain in the new city park. At first it was the intention to secure the fountain in time for dedication on the Fourth of July but it was found upon investigation that this could not be accomplished. The fountain however will be obtained as soon as possible, and will be an ornament to the new park. The matter of erecting benches throughout the park was also considered but it was thought best to first get the fountain before setting about with this project. The carpenters' union has started that in the matter of erecting benches, it will donate the labor to put them in place, when the work has been decided on.

Final Honors Paid.—There was a large concourse of relatives and personal friends in attendance upon the funeral of the late Nathan Kimball yesterday. The cortege left the undertaking parlors of W. C. A. Pohl in the undertaker's hearse, where Rev. W. Seymour Short, of Grace Episcopal church read the beautiful ritual of the dead at the graveside, and when all departed from thence the grave of the pioneer citizen was, itself, buried in a mass of magnificent blooms.

A "YELLOWSTONE" WINNER.

Popular Young Lady of This City Apprises of Her Accession to the List.

Yesterday morning the pleasant intelligence was sent to Miss Tillie Daveneau, chief operator here for the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company, that she had won as one of the favored "elect" in the group of young ladies who are to take the great trip to the Yellowstone Park, at the generous expense of the Portland Oregonian.

Miss Daveneau is overjoyed at the good fortune that has befallen her, and is intensely grateful to the hundreds of friends in Astoria and abroad, who have contributed to her success in the big contest by casting their votes in her behalf. There are full sixteen days of travel and enjoyment in store for her and her colleagues, and those who know her will not doubt her capacity for garnering all the pleasure incident to the outing. She will leave on or about the first of July on her well-earned vacation, with the good wishes of a host of friends.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

Father, mother, voter? A young man, in the very bloom of early manhood, with bleary eye, bloody face and hands, so intoxicated that it is impossible to walk straight, comes staggering into a public place; with a third, falls back against the door or anything that will hold his weight; and there resolutely refusing to move; the proprietor, being a woman, must call in help, and only by sheer force is the victim removed. Put out in the street, there must he lie till able to get up and stagger away, or be taken by what we call law and justice, thrown into jail to await the verdict. Drunk on the street; but give us some of your money, and you may go and do the same again if you want to. What better example of slavery do we want? Yet we cry "Free America."

NOTICE FOR BIDS.

Bids will be received until Monday, June 18, 1906, at noon, at the office of the School Clerk, 179 Eleventh street for placing drains around the McClure Schol Building in accordance with plans and specifications to be found at the office of Architect J.
