IRRIGATION DITCH NEEDS OF NATION

Big Kohala Ditch Formally Opened in Hawaii.

FURNISH PLENTY OF WATER

Canal is Now Fourteen Miles Long and Will Be Extended Twenty-one Miles—Cost is Half a Million.

HONOLULU, June 15, via San Francisco, June 22.—The Kohala ditch, the biggest irrigation enterprise of the kind here, was opened last Monday with ceremonies in which Secretary Atkinson, lately acting governor, took part. The ditch at present runs 14 miles, of which nine are mountain tunneling, and it will eventually be 21 miles long and will supply 70,000,000 gallons of water per day to numerous plantations and to large areas of land which are now uncultivated because of the lack of water. The ditch as far as at present constructed cost $500,000.

In the course of his address at the opening of the ditch, Secretary Atkinson quoted a letter from President Roosevelt in which the latter pledges his support to efforts to secure immigrants who will settle the lands of Hawaii. The President in his letter, which was addressed to Atkinson while the latter was acting governor, says that he will do all in his power to assist in the matter.

P. D. Kellett Jr., former clerk of the first judge of the first circuit court, pleaded guilty yesterday to one of the indictments against him for embezzlement of court funds, gross cheat and forgery, and was sentenced by Judge Lindsay to one year's imprisonment at hard labor. In commenting upon pleas for leniency based upon the fact that the defendant's shortage had been made good, Judge Lindsay made reference to the remarkable prevalence of embezzlements here and said that it was probably due in part to the custom of the courts of overlooking embezzlements when they were made good. He declined to follow such a precedent and inflict merely nominal punishment.

Captain Goings of the America Maru yesterday pleaded guilty in Judge Dole's court to a charge of violating the federal immigration laws by bringing immigrants here in the steerage of the steamer without providing legal accommodations en route. He was fined $250 and costs and the fine was paid. All of the Japanese and Pacific Mail steamers calling here are stated to have made alterations in their Asiatic steerage quarters since the arrest of Captain Goings some months ago. The principal grounds of complaint were that not sufficient space per bunk was allowed, and that there was no separation of the sexes.

MAY CANCEL LICENSES.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Eleven of the fire insurance companies whose licenses to do business in California are open to cancellation because of their refusal to either furnish the State Insurance Commissioner with a complete list of policies or sign the stipulation granting an additional 60 days to their policyholders for the filing of proofs of loss yesterday declared that their companies would stay in California and settle losses until they were driven out. These companies are the American of Boston, American of Philadelphia, Concordia, Delaware, Dutchess, Globe and Rutgers, Germania, Girard, New York, Spring Garden and Westchester Fire. The American of Boston and the American of Philadelphia will, it is said, settle as best they can and retire from the insurance business.

Education, Reverence for Law, and Truth.

EDUCATE THE FAMILY FIRST

Corporation Has Grown To Be Mighty Power—Is Protected by Law—Ventures Are Safeguarded and Protected.

CHICAGO, June 22.—General Stuart L. Woodford, formerly minister to Spain, in delivering the commencement address to the graduates of Northwestern University last night spoke of what he declared the great needs of the nation is education, reverence for law, and observance of the truth. Under the second he took occasion to criticize corporation officials who "Behind their artificial authority commit acts that they would not consider as individuals. He said in part:

"Education must begin in the family. If I could find words to burn into the consciousness of the parent, I would say, 'Teach your child reverence for age, observance of truth, courage and obedience.' If I could burn words into your minds, I would say 'As you go into active life remember to teach your children to reverence age, to speak the truth, to lay the foundation of all things in their individual lives and in the great things of the state upon obedience, reverence and truth.'"

"The corporation has grown to be a power, and it was born under the protection of the law. It holds property because the law guards it. Its every venture is safeguarded by the sanctity of the law. An officer of the corporation who, to seek increase of fortune for larger individual, personal enjoyment, who tramples on the law, who uses his position and influence to evade the law, is a traitor to the dearest and best interests of the republic."

"A total of 518 degrees were conferred by Acting President Thomas F. Holgate for the trustees. The Rev. George Henry Smith of Boston and the Rev. William Henry Lacey of Fuchow, China, were made Doctors of Divinity and Dr. Wilbur Fiske Lillett, president of the theological school of Vanderbilt University, was given the degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology."

Pleasant Party.—Last evening at the home of Mrs. L. Larson, corner of Eleventh and Madison streets, a pleasant party was given in honor of her niece, Miss Lizzie Larson. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable time had. Those present were: Agnes Erickson, Myrtle Hansen, Leona Leabo, Sadie Oleson, Helen Oleson, Hilda Kulunku, Alice Nelson, Annie Johansen, Lillie Kraus, Westley Welch, Frank Johnson, Mattie Seafeldt, Ralph Dordinger.

The question, Why is propriety pink? is fallacious. Such expressions as "the pink of propriety" and "the pink of perfection" have really nothing to do with color at all, but descend from Mercutio's "very pink of courtesy," which is at once explained by Romeo as "pink for flower." Romeo's explanation is either correct or a silly Shakespearean pun, "pink" really standing for culminating "point"—acme. In either case color does not come into the matter. The flower "pink" is not named after the color, but vice versa—contrariwise to the case of "carnation," in which the fleshy color has given its name to the flower. A "pink" is so named either because the flower is "pinked," as punctured needlework or a punctured duelist is, or because it resembles an eyelid—the "pink eye" of "plumpe Baechus" in "Antony and Cleopatra"—meaning not pink colored eyes, but eyes half shut, brought to a "point." "Pie," a peak or point, is the common Celtic ancestor of the various "pinks."—Spectator.

Buying an Election.

In bygone days men were often unwilling to be made members of the British house of commons. It was costly and therefore a difficult position for a poor man, but at the same time representatives were not easily to be found among the well to do classes. There is an amusing account of how the sheriff rode up to the county court in the fourteenth century, ready to nominate a candidate. A gay knight, fearful of election, "hastily withdraws from the crowd at the words election and parliament and spurrith off as fast as his good horse may carry him." On the other hand, some sought election by any means, and the first instance of corruption in electioneering matters is said to be that of Thomas Long, in 1571, who, "being found to be a very simple man and not fit to serve in that place, was questioned how he came to be elected." The simple man admitted that he "gave to Anthony Garland, mayor of the town, £4 (£20) for his seat in parliament," which was ordered to be returned, though the seat was not forfeited.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thing, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.
