

Bunt, the Bear

Bunt, Uncle Billy's pet bear, had broken his chain and got loose. Uncle Billy was gone to town, and Uncle Billy was the only person in the house who could make him behave.

Bunt came shuffling and snuffling into the house. He smelled some honey ey up in the attic in a big wooden chest. Bears love honey. He shuffled upstairs and grunted and snuffled when he got close enough to smell the honey plain.

When Uncle Billy came home they told him how bad the bear had been. He went upstairs to lead him down and chain him in the back yard.

Poor Bunt looked so miserable when he was being dragged away that Uncle Billy said, "I'll sell you to a circus, but first I'll give you as much honey as you want to eat, only you mustn't tell anybody I gave it to you."

Bunt winked his little piggy eyes as much as to say that he knew better than to tell. Uncle Billy turned back and gave him a great big piece of honeycomb to eat, and I am sure that Bunt did understand every word, for he has never to this day told anybody who gave him that honeycomb. — Atlanta Constitution.

An escape of gas in one's bedroom is injurious to health, even though it be a very slight one. It is frequently an unsuspected cause of sore throat and headache.
