POTLAND, June 28.—George Hoven den, of Portland, is in receipt of a letter from London, under date of the 13th, from J. N. Hoffman, who accompanied M. H. Durst as the representative of the members of the hop pool, known generally as the Durst pool.

It will be recalled that the Durst pool embraced the product of about 100 growers in different sections of the state, and that it was at the request of Mr. Durst that the growers selected one of their number to go to London to assist in the disposition of the shipment. Mr. Hoffman was elected by vote of the members of the pool, and his letter is the first information received in this state concerning the status of the undertaking since the hops were shipped abroad.

The London market promising better returns for the product than any other, the arrangement was entered into by growers to place their crop in Durst's hands and make shipment direct to that point to be sold by the organizer of the pool to the best possible advantage. Upon being assured that conditions this year were favorable, the pool was completed and the representative chosen to go to England to oversee the sales and to assist Mr. Durst in handling the transaction to the best advantage.

Eggs and Butter.

There continues to be a very good market for all concerned in the egg market, prices being firm at 22c, which is considered reasonable to buyer and satisfactory to seller. In some quarters a half cent is named on top of the generally accepted figure. Ranch eggs are not coming in sufficiently to meet requirements, but the light receipts are being augmented by the Eastern goods, that sell side by side with the local eggs. No Portland storage eggs are being withdrawn, as far as could be learned.

Butter is firmer, though there are still very heavy receipts from usual sources of supply, and some from quarters new to this trade through this year.
