WANT APPROPRIATION. ONTARIO, Ore., June 29.—Henry Blackman, recently appointed by Governor Chamberlain as one of the commissioners of Oregon to the Jamestown Exposition, representing Eastern Oregon, is in Ontario gathering statistics and exhibits for the World's Fair in 1907, so as to make a report at the next Legislature with the view of having a liberal appropriation made. Mr. Blackman states that the commercial bodies of Portland are back of the movement and requested the governor to make the appointments. Oregon is the first state on the Pacific Coast to come to the front for the purpose of advertising her resources. SENATOR STEWART BURIED. PUYALLUP, Wash., June 29.—Carey Logan Stewart, member of the State Senate, is dead, after a prolonged illness. Unknown Friends. There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

TORTURED BY ITCHING ECZEMA Suffered Tremendous Itching Over Whole Body—Scratched Until Bled—Worse at Night, With Soreness and Excruciating Pains—A Western Lady's WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES "Last year at this time I suffered with a tremendous itching on my back, which grew worse and worse, until it spread over the whole body, and only my face and hands were free. For four months or so I suffered the torments of the damned, and I had to scratch, scratch, scratch, until I bled. At night when I went to bed things got worse, and I had at times to get up and scratch my body all over, until I was as sore as could be, and until I suffered excruciating pains. I did not know what it was, and resorted to a number of blood purifiers, using at times also Cuticura Soap. They told me then that I was suffering from eczema. Then I made up my mind that I would also use Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent. I used them according to instructions, and very soon indeed I was greatly relieved. I continued until well, and now I am ready to recommend the Cuticura Remedies to any one who suffers as did your obedient servant. Mrs. Mary Metzger, Sweetwater, Okla., June 28, 1905." TORTURING, DISFIGURING Humors, Eczemas, and Itchings Cured by Cuticura The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of scalp, as in scalded head—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt.

WAS LOADED AT SEA Steamer Arrives at Corinto with Cargo of Arms. FOR REVOLUTIONARY ARMY Leaves San Francisco Empty and is Loaded in Mid-Ocean With Munitions of War For the Guatemalan Revolutionists

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—A letter has been received in this city from an officer of the steamship Empire, the flagship of the Guatemalan revolutionists. She left here May 13th for Corinto, ostensibly for the purpose of wrecking a stranded British tramp steamer. The custom house records show that the Empire carried no cargo and when the cable told of her arrival at Corinto with arms, ammunition and a large number of fighting men, members of the Guatemala revolutionary army, the report was received here with incredulity. Even the broker who acted as agent for the owners of the vessel expressed surprise. In the letter the writer gives an account of the Empire's trip to Corinto, and how arms and ammunition were put on board at sea by a tug outside of this port. Upon arrival at Tonala, near the southern extremity of the Mexican coast, the Empire, it is said, took on board about 30 leaders of the revolutionary party, with General Castillo in charge. At the time the letter was written these people were still on the steamer.

STRIKE AT RIVERTON. TACOMA, June 29.—Several hundred men employed by the Tacoma Railway & Power Company at Riverton are disaffected and 50 or more quit work, with the threat of a general walkout unless the company grants an increase in wages. These are the men the company expected to bring to Tacoma to take the places of the striking Italians. The local strike situation has developed no new features. There has been no violence and the police have the situation well in hand. LUMBER KING STOPS ALL SUNDAY TRAINS Weyerhaeuser Gives Schoolhouses—Employees Must Observe Sunday. KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., June 29.—The Klamath Lake Railroad Company, operating 30 miles of road from Thrall, Cal., to Pok-gama, Ore., are owned by the Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company, has given notice to the public here that on and after Sunday, July 15, no trains will be operated on that road on Sundays. This action of the railroad company will inconvenience the traveling public and delay the incoming and outgoing mails from this point 24 hours. Weyerhaeuser, the lumber king, visited Pok-gama last Sunday and ordered the change, saying that no employe of his should work on Sunday. Mr. Weyerhaeuser was surprised to find that there were no public schools at Pok-gama and Thrall and issued orders to have a good schoolhouse built at both these places at his expense.

OUTLINES HIS CASE Thaw Will Enter Plea of "Emotional Insanity." WILL EXPOSE WHITE'S LIFE Defense Will Bring Out Whole Story of White's Shameful Life—Thaw Always Carried Revolver With Him.

NEW YORK, June 29.—An announcement that the defense will make "Emotional insanity" the basis for the release of Harry K. Thaw, in jail indicted for the murder of Stanford White, set at naught the speculation on this point today. Justifiable homicide and the straight plea of insanity had been suggested as a line of defense, but Thaw himself made the insanity move impossible by his refusal to consider it and declining alienists to question him. It will not be claimed that the young man is insane now. Such a plea would be a sentence to the asylum for criminal insane at Matteawan. This means a trial and if the plea of "emotional insanity" is justified Thaw will be a free man. The defense, it has also been announced, plans to bring out the whole story of White's life, of his relations with Evelyn Nesbit before she married Thaw and of his subsequent actions, which the defense claims annoyed Mrs. Thaw and goaded the husband on to the shooting. District Attorney Jerome, who is on his vacation, left Cape Breton yesterday for New York. The arraignment of Thaw today in the court of special sessions is simply for the purpose of receiving the prisoners plea of "not guilty," and Mr. Jerome's return, it is expected will hurry the actual trial. It is suggested today that the district attorney may personally conduct the prosecution. Mrs. Thaw will be a witness for her husband at the trial. She fully realizes that in doing so she will subject herself to a searching cross examination. That Thaw bought a revolver to kill White, or that the killing was premeditated, will be denied. The defense is prepared to prove that Thaw had been accustomed for more than two years to carrying a revolver. About two years ago, according to evidence in its possession, Thaw was attacked by thugs while out late one night, and since that time has carried a weapon. Thaw's action in telephoning Anthony Comstock was the cause of much interest. Mr. Comstock, in an interview, is quoted as saying that he is willing to appear for the defense if called upon and give evidence as to White's conduct. About a year and a half ago," said Mr. Comstock, "Thaw came to me and complained about Mr. White's actions. After his marriage he came to me many times. He saw me again about two weeks before the murder. As to Thaw's purpose in furnishing me this evidence against White, I firmly believe it was prompted by the purest motives. I do not mean that Thaw thought White should be murdered, but that he should be taken out of the community by legal process, and put in prison. Thaw seemed to have an awful weight upon his heart when he visited me but I was unable to fathom it, and he never volunteered any information on the subject. "On the strength of his information and from that received in anonymous letters, which corroborated Thaw's statements, I endeavored to get at the truth with a view to securing a conviction if possible. But when it came to preparing a case against White many difficulties confronted me. I had no substantial evidence to offer in a legal action which would make a conviction certain. "My ill-success in not bringing White to the trial seemed to depress Thaw. As to whether I believe this depression caused Thaw to commit the murder I do not care to say." The strain of yesterday's proceedings seriously affected Mrs. Thaw. She had hardly reached her apartments when she fainted and it was necessary to call a physician to revive her.

FEARED A MASSACRE Ignorant Italians Mob Public Schools in New York. SCHOOLS FORCED TO CLOSE Wild Rumors Circulated That Teachers Were Cutting Children's Throats. Cause Some Parents to Grow Anxious For Safety. NEW YORK, June 29.—Rioting similar to that which occurred Wednesday about the public schools of the lower East Side, spread yesterday to the Italian section of the city adjoining the scene of Wednesday's disturbances. Three schools with several thousand pupils were affected by today's disturbances, and the sessions were abruptly ended. The janitor of one of the schools was roughly handled by the crowd. At the schools where rioting occurred yesterday, few pupils were reported yesterday and the schools remained closed for the day. Similar riots broke out yesterday in the Brownsville section of Brooklyn, where parents of pupils charged on the schools in rage and fear and it required large details of police to confine the disturbances to the outside of the buildings. The trouble was so pronounced at two of the schools, that the teachers dismissed the pupils for the day. The trouble is the outgrowth of wild rumors that the children were having their throats cut by the teachers. THINKING OF HOME. House Members Worry Over What Is Coming to Them When They Return. WASHINGTON, June 29.—Thoughts of home on the morrow were in the minds of the members of the House today. The conference report was considered throughout the day. The final report on the agricultural appropriation bill containing the meat inspection provision was adopted. The senate eventually agreeing that the government should pay the cost of inspection. Another matter of vital moment was the agreement to the conference report on the Pure Food bill, and the Ohio and Erie Ship canal and the naturalization bill. FREIGHT WRECKED. CHEHALIS, Wash., June 29.—An extra west-bound freight on the Northern Pacific was badly wrecked in the Chehalis yards, near the milk condensing plant, at 4 o'clock this morning. Twenty-three cars are piled in every direction, the main track and all sidings being entirely blocked. It will probably be 12 hours before the line is open. No one was hurt. The accident was caused by the rods holding the switch rail giving way. BAILEY WANTS VOTE POSTPONED. WASHINGTON, June 29.—Senator Bailey in the executive session of the senate renewed his motion that December 17 of the next session, be fixed for a vote on the Santo Domingo treaty. Lodge and Spooner objected to his motion on the ground that it could not be agreed to, in the absence of unanimous consent. PUBLIC BUILDINGS GRAFT.
