Because One of the Managers Had Insulted a Young Girl Employee, All Girls go on Strike, Demanding Apology.

There was none of the Kamm fleet in these waters yesterday, the Undine being hauled off the run, and the Lurline not being ready to come out yesterday morning. She will be down today under command of Captain Olney, Captain Larkins is reported dangerously ill at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, with an affection of the heart. The captain has a host of friends in Astoria, and in fact along the entire river run, who will only be too glad to hear of his early and complete recovery.

NEW YORK, July 12.—All the necktie industry of the city is still tied up in a hard knot, for conferences held last night between the strikers and the contractors failed to smooth out the situation.

One thousand of the girl tie-makers were in and out of Jefferson Hall all day. Among them there walked as a heroine Miss Fannie Pepper, for it was an affront to her by one of the managers, which caused the girl to go on a strike.

The union demanded a fine of $25 from the contractor and an apology, both of which he refused to give.

"To be treated like a lady," is the watchword of the strikers.

Miss Sarah Braumstein, the secretary of the United Neckwear Makers' Union, of the Central Federation of Labor yesterday directed the operations of a hundred pickets, some of which in their zeal were arrested. She said:

"We do not care for the boss, yet we would not hurt him, but we say this much, that unless he apologizes for his conduct there will be all the New York men going to business with no neckties next winter. It is for the dignity of labor that we stand."

All of the contractors met yesterday afternoon in a hall in Cannon street and decided to intrench against these demands of the strikers. The union will hold a mass meeting in Jefferson Hall at 8 o'clock this morning.

FRENCHMAN IS SENTENCED TO DEATH FOR MURDER AND REFUSES PARDON—WOULD GIVE ALL CHANCE TO SEE EXECUTION

NEW YORK, July 12.—A cable dispatch to a morning paper from Paris says:

"I want to be guillotined. They condemned me to death, and they shall execute me. I'll have none of their pardons. There is no reason for a revision of my sentence. Paris has not seen an execution in 10 years, and I'm going to give them the sight free."

This declaration was made by Pierre Adam to the prison authorities and lawyers who were trying to persuade him to appeal for a commutation of his death sentence for murder. He has resisted the persuasions persistently for three weeks and clamors to have his head chopped off. The authorities do not comply with his wish.

The position is a curious one. As the law stands it prescribes that executions shall be public, but since the guillotine was moved some years ago from the notorious Place de la Roquette the officials everywhere have successfully resisted the attempts to secure a new site and the guillotine has lain idle in a shed, the officers of justice not venturing to offend any part of the city by insisting upon its erection. They have consequently persuaded every person condemned to death to appeal for a commutation, which was forthwith done. Adam's unprecedented refusal creates a difficulty. A public execution invariably leads to disturbing carousals and mischievousness by the scum of the city and the establishment of a guillotine anywhere without the assent of the authorities representing the respectable citizens would inevitably arouse anger. Hence the reluctance to carry out death sentences.

Bills are under discussion alternately legalizing private executions and abolishing capital punishment, and Adam's novel attitude may lead to the passing of one or the other.

INSANE FROM PROSPERITY.

CHICAGO, July 12.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Baltimore, Md., says:

Prosperity is declared largely responsible for the marked increase in insanity, according to the report of Dr. Charles Hill in charge of the Mount Hope retreat, which was made public yesterday.

"I believe," says Dr. Hill, "that by a thorough research it could be traced in a great part to the prosperity of the period; the luxurious indulgence, the dissipations, the departure from the old standard of rectitude and the moral deterioration."

SKY SCRAPER FIRE.

Firemen Fight Flames On Thirteenth Floor of Big Sky Scrapper.

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—Shortly after 2 o'clock this morning fire broke out on the thirteenth floor of the Missouri Pacific Railroad building, Seventh and Market streets. It originated in a room where old records were kept. All the downtown towers and extension ladders were brought out, but would only reach to the sixth floor. Pipe lines were carried through the windows and hoisted by means of rope. The attic on the thirteenth floor where the fire originated is a low shed room and the firemen worked lying down. Hallways and corridors were flooded with water which ran in a stream down the elevator shaft. The fire was remarkable in that it was the first in St. Louis which has been located at this altitude in a skyscraper.

The firemen were engaged in fighting the blaze until an early hour. The damage could not be estimated. The storeroom was filled with many records which may be of great value.
