WILL CARRY LUMBER TO FRISCO

TUG SAMSON AND THREE BARGES EMPLOYED IN CARRYING ROCK TO JETTY WILL CARRY LUMBER TO SAN FRANCISCO SOON.

It is learned that about the middle of this month all the funds available for carrying on the jetty improvement will be exhausted and the work will be discontinued until more money is available.

In view of this the tug Samson and the three barges belonging to the Columbia Contract Company, will be placed in commission carrying lumber to the Bay City, and other California ports. The barges now being used for carrying rock to the jetty, are the Washluc, Wallcut and Washogal. These barges it is estimated have a capacity of 1,000,000 feet. They are the largest craft of their kind on the coast, and while they were constructed especially for carrying rock, it is said that they will give just as good satisfaction in transporting lumber.

The Samson will be used to tow these barges up and down the coast and it is figured she will be able to make two round trips a month, if she should ply regularly from the Columbia river. It is held that the tug and the three barges would be equivalent to a fleet of five sailing vessels of ordinary size.

Ever since it became generally known that the contract of delivering rock to the government jetty for the season would close about the middle of the month, the Columbia Contract Company has received many inquiries from the various shippers along the coast, asking whether the vessels were on the market for chartering. Big offers were made for them when it was learned that they were open for business. After giving the matter further consideration, the company finally decided to operate the craft on its own account. With the freight rates $7 per 1000 for lumber to California, the profits likely to accrue from the venture would be much greater than to charter the vessels to others.

Poice Kept Busy.—During the month of July the police department made a total of 136 arrests for all causes. This number was divided as follows: Drunk, 43; disorderly, 23; lodgers, 6; miscellaneous, 61 (gambling, fighting, etc.); vagrants, 3. This record of arrests shows that the officers have been kept busy. Last year during the month of July the total number of arrests was only 50. The great number of arrests now as compared with the same period last year keeps the entire force on the go as the number of patrolmen is not increased. The need of a patrol wagon is greatly felt by the force as most of the arrests are made in the "open town" district, which necessitates a long walk to the jail when an arrest is made and the consequent prolonged absence of the patrolman from his beat.

The Run is On.—Results from the fishing grounds in the Columbia river yesterday would seem to indicate that the long looked for run of salmon is at hand. The reports from all directions last evening were of the brightest sort, and the fact that the increase has been of three days duration lends color to the hope that is abroad. It is said that twelve boats delivered over one thousand pounds of fish each at the Sanborn Cutting cannery yesterday, and one of the Elmore boats is known to have docketed 1,400 pounds and the lesser catches heard from along the waterfront are all stronger than at any time prior in the season. From a computation recently made there are approximately 3000 boats engaged in the local trade and if the increase goes on there will be something doing in the next seventeen days, and that wholly to the good.

Respectfully Suggested.—There are quite a number of people hereabout who would be glad to see some genuine water sport during the regatta, in the shape of a series of games of water polo, between some of the local teams and Portland players, with something spicy to play for. Think it up, gentlemen!

Open Next Week.—Manager F. N. Clark of the Brownsville Woollen Mills store which is to open here the first of the coming week, arrived in the city via the steamer Telegraph yesterday, and will immediately put the finishing touches on the company's place of business on Commercial street (in the room formerly occupied by the Bon Marche) and make ready for the Bon Marche during the time he has been in duress, was set at liberty yesterday morning by Sheriff Pomeroy, and is now enjoying his customary liberty. He has a keen eye in his head for political "skulduggers" from this day on.

TWO PRISONERS IN POLICE COURT TESTIFY THAT THEY DRANK FOR BENEFIT OF HEALTH—BENCH WARRANT IS ISSUED.

The police court seemed to have been mistaken for a sanatorium yesterday, and Mayor Wise, who is temporarily acting as judge, thought to be a physician. John Toole, and James Cramer, were the patients. Both gentlemen had been arrested on charges of being drunk so when they were asked to plead, they mutually agreed that they were guilty. "But I was sick with rheumatism," asserted Cramer, in extenuation of his condition. "You see, judge, I heard that whisky was good to cure it, and so I took a glass or two, and then I was arrested." James further admitted that he had concluded that whisky did not have half the salutary effect on his ailment, as a single night in the city duncion, and submitted with grace to a sentence of two days more in jail, which Judge Wise prescribed.

John Toole took his cue from the plea of his predecessor, and admitting his guilt with alacrity, hastened to add that a severe throat disease was the primal cause of his undoing. "Was that the reason you yelled at the top of your lungs?" interposed one of the officers present, who had made the arrest. This query seemed to have a quieting effect on John and he sat down with a grin that might have been termed sickly, had not a three weeks' growth of beard interfered with the workings of his countenance. The additional charge of being disorderly was booked against John and he was forced to accept the minimum fine of $10.

P. A. Peterson, who was due to appear last Tuesday in court to answer to a charge of resisting an officer and who deposited $25 to insure his appearance, failed to show up at the appointed time and his case was continued over until yesterday. Peterson was not present when the case was called, and thereupon the court declared his bail money forfeited, and issued a bench warrant for the defendant. The hearing will likely come off today.

Free Man Once More.—Frank Hendricks, the man who was sent to the county jail for a period of fifty days on a proven charge of having voted twice at the last election held in this city, and who has been a model prisoner during the time he has been in duress, was set at liberty yesterday morning by Sheriff Pomeroy, and is now enjoying his customary liberty. He has a keen eye in his head for political "skulduggers" from this day on.

He Paid the Costs.—B. J. Callahan, who struck R. M. Watson, editor of the Seaside Signal, on Saturday last, and for whom a warrant was issued and served from the court of Justice Goodman here, appeared yesterday morning, waived trial by jury or any other way, and paid into court the sum of $31.65, including a ten dollar fine.

Pound Broken Into.—Some time Tuesday night the city pound on Seventeenth and Duane streets was broken into and when Poundmaster O'Neil arrived yesterday morning he found three of the 11 dogs missing. The lock on the door had been broken and the door was open so that all the canines might have escaped had they been so inclined. The act is said to be a piece of spite work on the part of some person residing in the vicinity.

From the Far North.—Deputy Marservice at Nome, for the past seven years, has returned to this port for a visit with his brother P. A. Stokes, and was busy all day yesterday greeting old time friends, and enjoying himself generally. There were many to welcome him home and will help him to have a good time on his furlough.

On Road Inspection.—The County Court was abroad in the land yesterday inspecting some of the principal highways of Clatsop, but their report is yet to be filed in the premises. Many of the roads are subject to review in relation to contract work lately finished upon them, and for acceptance if the same has been properly done.
