PORTLAND, August 13.—In the local hop market there was an entire absence of business, and dealers generally appear to have settled down to await developments rather than manipulate the market.

For the first time in some days dealers decline to express opinions on the outlook, and only will say that nothing in sight indicates a break.

From the best sources it is figured that about 75 per cent of the Oregon crop is signed up, and as a rule dealers are long on the market.
