TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful periods, the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers alling women helpful advice.

12th ANNUAL

REGATTA

Astoria, Oregon
August 30, 31 and September 1
1906

If there be any Doubting Thomases, they'll take to the woods when the Regatta opens in gorgeous splendor. When they say there will be no Regatta their wish is father to the thought.

HAIL TO OUR QUEEN!
RAH! FOR OUR ADMIRAL!

Don't miss the illuminated river parade.

Chief Farmer Bowlby is getting his ranch in shape. Daddy Chester says his baby show will win the Blue Ribbon.

The Council is expected to put a ban on sausage factories until the dog show is over. Who owns the prize Poodle, Daschund, Dane or Bull Terrier?

Won't we have fun, though! when the band begins to play, when the flags flutter and the pretty girls put on their best holiday duds and Regatta smiles,

The Two Dicks (Leathers and Smith) in their famous turn, "How to Make Things Hum."

Our handsome Assistant Secretary is a fine stenographer, but she writes just as fast on the typewriter; she's a daisy, sure.

With Nelson Troyer handling the water sports there'll be something doing every minute.

The Event that Makes Astoria Famous

AUTOCRAT

Choose your stationery as you will, you wouldn't appear before your best friend in shabby, slovenly clothes. Why clothe your written self in this way. The very best "clothes" in paper are inexpensive.

"AUTOCRAT," the very latest, coming in all colors, is the best for correspondence. Come in and look it over. Try it with a pen. If you don't like it you can go away happy—we won't get mad—if you do come you will probably buy and both of us will be happier.
