Horses For Hawaii.—Stalls for 25 horses and two cows are being built on the main deck of the steamship Hilonian, which is scheduled to sail for the Hawaiian Islands, today. The animals are being shipped by James McQueen, of Honolulu, who has spent several weeks in Oregon buying them. They were secured in the eastern part of the state. Mr. McQueen has been buying horses and cows on the Pacific Coast for years, and taking them to the islands to place on the market. Heretofore his dealings on the coast have been made with the California stockraisers. He is so well satisfied with his experience in Oregon that he declares he will probably make all future purchases in this state.

Publish Irrigation Report.—Copies of the report of A. P. Stover, irrigation engineer of the Department of Agriculture, on "Investigations of Irrigation Practice in Oregon," have been received by local commercial bodies. Mr. Stover includes in his report the amount of rainfall in the various sections, showing where irrigation is most needed and how methods are being employed at present to obtain it. The work was undertaken at the request of Governor Chamberlain, who asked the department over a year ago to assign an officer to the task.

Chinaman Arrested.—Last night Sheriff Pomeroy arrested a Chinaman by the name of Wong Tay on complaint of a fellow countryman. The trouble arose over monetary matters, and the principals have several times almost come to blows. The complaint charges Wong Tay with assault. Bail in the sum of $50 was furnished by Hop Hing Lung to insure the defendant's appearance in the justice court this morning.

School Board Meets.—Last night the school board met in Superintendent Clark's office in the city hall, and transacted some business relative to the schools' interests. Miss Amy Holmes and Miss Elfeffson were chosen as teachers for the coming year. They will teach in the Alderbrook school.

N. A. Ackerman, 421 Bond St., does all manner of taxidermy, furniture upholstering, carpet cleaning and laying, mattress making a specialty and all work guaranteed. tf

Paid the Fine.—Justice Goodman was called upon to judge an assault and battery case yesterday, as between two of the demi-mondaines from the other side of the city, and promptly assessed the aggressor in the sum of $12, which she paid on the spot, and went about her affairs.

Queen Esther, of the Astoria regatta, has named the following ladies as her "Navy" and each and all have signified their consent to serve the dainty sovereign through the three days of pleasure that will mark her, and their, reign; and it is needless to say, the queen, the city, and the visiting thousands in attendance, will rejoice in the gracious and courteous ministrations of this accomplished group

The Misses Leta Drain, Ellen Nolan, Gertrude Upshur, Lola Foard; Lura McFarlane of Tacoma; Martha Foard, Freda Foard, Sally Gray, Louisa Gray, Margaret Taylor; Maude Rahles, of Portland; Miss Reichel, of Germany; Miss Irene Simington, Ethel Gerding; Helen Dawson, of Florida; and Frances Eates.

One hundred letters go forth today from the press committee of the regatta, invoking the good-will and presence of the newspaper fraternity of Oregon and Washington in this jolly season, and the other and timely essentials are all underway at the hands of the general committee and the sub-committees, so that no hesitancy need be felt for the unrivalled success of the coming regatta.

Jenny.—Treatment for pimples and blackheads calls for absolute cleanliness. Pimples show that the body is absorbing poisonous substances, and needs Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. Frank Hart, druggist.

Vaudeville Again.—Manager P. Gevurtz, of the Star theatre went to Portland, yesterday morning, to make arrangements for a fine line of vaudeville to be played here during the regatta season, and will bring the best engagements he can make in this line, and they are to be better than any seen here in a long while. He will also secure one, or more of the finest moving picture films now on the circuit, and this line of attraction will supplant the Willard stock company for a while, at least.

The doctors used to bleed mankind. For every ill that they could find. But now they're wiser, said one to me, And give instead Rocky Mountain Tea. Frank Hart, druggist.

He Made It Good.—Nathan Horton, an employe of the Kelly Lumber Company at Warrenton was arrested on a warrant issued out of Justice Goodman's court, and the case was called, but the larceny charge, predicated upon the taking of certain time checks from the company's office, all payable to bearer, and aggregating the sum of $61.95, was dropped at the instance of the complaining witness, upon the confession of Horton, and the return of the money in open court, at the payment of costs.

A Legal Warning.—Word reached this city yesterday that the attorney-general of the State of Washington has made a definite ruling in which the use of loose-leaf books are prohibited under the statutes of that state, in the fulfillment of the public records. The ruling reads as follows: "The statutes of this state call for the auditor to record deeds and other instruments in large and well-bound books, and I am of the opinion that an auditor, under our statutes as they exist today, would not be justified in using a loose-leaf record and index."

To Expedite Work.—The government has endowed the local post-office with a splendid special post-office Remington typewriter, equipped with a 32-inch carrier for the making up of all manner of reports, and it will prove of immense service throughout the whole establishment.

Seaside Logging Notes.—Word from Seaside says that the Moorer's Logging Company is using two engines, a Lidgerwood and Willamette. The timber will be cut out about October. The logs are entirely spruce. The Seaside Spruce Lumber Company, has also opened a new camp about two miles from Seaside. F. N. Moorer is superintendent of the company's logging camps. Bain & Kunzler, of Seaside, who have been logging on Cullaby Lake, have closed down for the present.

Killed Yesterday.—At 10 o'clock yesterday morning Harry Allen, an employe of the Meserve Brothers Logging Camp on Gray's river, was crushed by a log and instantly killed. The unfortunate young man was engaged in sawing a large log, when it suddenly rolled down upon him crushing out his life. The deceased was a native of Canada and has relatives living in Manitoba. They were communicated with yesterday by wire relative to the final disposal of the remains, though no answer has yet been received.
