ELECT BLACK POPE

Jesuits Preparing to Select Their General.

CEREMONY VERY IMPRESSIVE

Delegates Entitled to Participate in the Election Are in Earnest—Event Begins on September the 8th.

ROME, Sept. 5.—The first steps in the election of the "Black Pope," or general of the Jesuits, so anxiously awaited by over 15,000 Jesuits all over the world, and considered of such great importance by all the adherents of the Catholic church, are now being taken. After the quadrumvir period of four days of the strictest seclusion, in which the congregation of the company of Jesuits prepare for the final election of their general and which began yesterday, the final meeting will occur for the counting of the ballots, leading to the election. All the delegates entitled to participate in the meeting will rise early that morning, Sept. 8, for mass, although none of them, according to the constitution of this important function, will be allowed to celebrate it except the vicar, Father Ruggiere Ferdi, in the chapel of the German college. He will also administer communion to all the delegates. The scene of over three score black clad men with white hair and earnest faces in preparing for their ceremonies will be most impressive. The delegates will then rise, and forming a procession, enter the large hall of the German students, intoning the "Veni Creator." The hall will be very severely decorated, a large crucifix hanging on the main wall above the table destined for the vicar and the assistants, in front of which will be rows of seats for the delegates, sufficiently far apart to admit of each writing secretly. Once assembled they will all fall on their knees and a deep silence will ensue, which will not be interrupted for an hour. They will all pray to be inspired by God in the selection they are about to make, as they are supposed not to have made up their minds previously as to the best person to choose, it being strictly forbidden to show any preference in the information which they try to collect about the possible candidates before the day of the election. Most of the Jesuits, especially the older ones, will carry into the hall some bread and a bottle of water as they will not have eaten since the night before and they are not allowed either to leave the hall or to touch anything but bread and water until the election is over.

After having appointed two scrutineers to assist the vicar in sorting and reading the votes, each delegate will take a solemn oath in the name of Jesus Christ's eternal wisdom, to be faithful in the accomplishment of their office. Then each delegate will be provided with printed sheets on which inside on the right they will write the name of the candidate and on their left their own in disguised handwriting, to further the secrecy of the vote. The sheets will then be folded and sealed, so that in opening them for the scrutiny the name of the voter will be concealed and will not be looked at unless a irregularity is suspected or that the voter has voted for himself, which is strictly forbidden. This same operation will be repeated until one of the candidates has attained more than half of the votes. Once the majority is gained by a candidate he will be proclaimed elected and all present will rise, approach him reverently and render him homage by kissing his hand. A decree will then be drafted recording the meeting and the results of the vote. Immediately after, the general leading, the delegate will go in procession to the chapel, singing the "Benedictio," and after prayer they will leave the chapel intoning the Te Deum. The "Black Pope" will then receive the congratulations of his friends.

A general of the Jesuits is appointed for life and from the day of his election is the absolute ruler of the order, but the work of the congregation will continue for a few days after September 8, for the election of the general's assistants, who also are chosen for life, or, to be more exact, their appointments which continue during the life of the general as in his death, their functions cease.

The congregation will also appoint a secretary for the general as "monitor," the office of the latter consisting in advising the general, who, however, is entirely independent of him. Generally both these positions are entrusted to two of the assistants. Their election as well as that of the assistants, is carried out under exactly the same rules as that of the general.

PROBABLE FATAL BLOW.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Sept. 5.—The destruction of the Shaw Crucible Works at Damon's Point, North Beach, by fire late Saturday afternoon, strikes what may be a fatal blow to an infant industry. The plant had been completed but a short time and had only been in operation a few weeks, but is now a mass of smoldering ruins. The enterprise was started as the result of careful experiments by an expert, which proved that a fine quality of steel could be manufactured by a single process from the black sands so plentiful at Damon's Point. Outside capital was interested, a company was formed, and the plant erected. No details have yet been learned, or whether there is any insurance.

THE BREATH OF LIFE.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O. it's grand for throat and lung troubles." "OUR BOYS."

Star Theater. Has Good House Last Night.

"Our Boys" was again the offering at the Star last night and pleased a fair sized audience. The piece went with the usual swing, the Boys coming in for a great amount of favor and the "cheese mongers" causing much merriment. Mr. Willard was all that could be desired and seems to put all his soul into his lines, as does Mr. Blanchard. We think this is one of the best parts we have seen this excellent actor in. Too much praise cannot be said of the rest of Mr. Willard's company, and we think it will be some time before Astoria sees another stock company that has so endeared itself in the hearts of the people of Astoria.

A CRITICAL PERIOD

INTELLIGENT WOMEN PREPARE
Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women as this time draws near is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

We believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other medicine can.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland, of Chestertown, Md., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I had been suffering with a displacement for years and was passing through the change of life. I had a good deal of soreness, dizzy spells, headaches, and was very nervous. I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me, and I have passed safely through the change of life a well woman."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Her advice is free and always helpful to ailing women.

FIGHT IS ON AGAIN

Premier Stolypin Will Contend for Free Hand.

OPPOSED BY REACTIONARIES

Conference of Russian Premier and the Prominent Men of All Factions Set for Next Monday—Stolypin is Strongly Backed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5.—The struggle between Premier Stolypin and the court Camarilla over the questions as to whether or not the former shall have a free hand in the government of the empire will come to an issue at a conference of prominent men of all factions in the administration and court circles which will be held at Peterhof on Sunday, September 9. The program of Premier Stolypin will be passed in review, but it is conjectured that the reactionaries will make their principal fight on the fixing of the date for the holding of the elections for members of the lower house of Parliament, which they hope to defer to the "Greek Calendar" on the ground that any election in the near future must result in the choice of an assembly even more radical than the one which the emperor dissolved in July last. According to current gossip Count Witte has returned from Germany to participate in the conference, but at his residence here the Associated Press was told that he had not arrived and was not expected.

Though Premier Stolypin has strong backing in his fight against shelving parliament, he is still seeking the cooperation of M. Shipoff, M. Samarin and other bureaucrats in the effort to induce Emperor Nicholas to adhere to the date originally fixed for the reconvening of Parliament.

The authorities have confiscated a proclamation issued by the revolutionists of Moscow which contained nothing but speeches delivered by the Emperor during the last two years, together with a short preface commenting on "The talent and wonderful oratorical ability of our beloved monarch."

The compilers of the speeches have arranged in parallel columns several addresses by the Emperor which are conflicting in tone. The remainder of the speeches are responses made by the Emperor to deputations, which in many cases are merely meaningless phrases, verging on the ludicrous in the absence of the context.

At a large meeting of the Black Hundred organizations, which assembled in answer to letters of Count Konovinitzin, calling upon his followers to revenge his death in case he should be slain by the enemies of the organization, a resolution was adopted to kill anyone offending their "outraged leaders."

TESTED AND PROVEN.
There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Astoria readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

W. Jenkins of 426 East Mill street, Portland, Ore., says: "I have no occasion to change anything I said three years ago in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, for since that time other members of our family have found equally beneficial results in treating kidney complaint. Before using Doan's Kidney Pills I suffered with acute attacks of backache, and a derangement of the action of the kidneys, and dull dragging pains made it difficult for me to attend to my work. As the result of using this fine remedy I have been free from kidney complaint and backache for over three years, and therefore feel great confidence in recommending them to others."

Plenty more proof like this from Astoria people. Call at Chas. Rodgers' drug store, and ask what his customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

APPEARANCES

Often a person is sized up by his appearance; by the tone that surrounds him. And more often a business house is sized up by the stationary it uses. A cheap letter head or a poor bill head gives a mighty poor first impression and makes business harder to transact. Good printing costs no more than poor printing. The first impression is half the battle in business. You wouldn't employ a "sloppy" salesman; why put up with "sloppy" stationery, that gives a wrong impression of the importance of your business. Let us do your printing and help you to make that ten strike.
