Bark Genevieve Molinos Pays Some Access Dues on Space Marks—Oklahoma's Big Tow Up River—Barkentine Hesper for Sea.

The steamer Alliance came down from Portland yesterday and laid at the Callender pier for several hours, taking on freight. She had her limit of passengers aboard and departed for Coos Bay at 3 o'clock. Captain Kelley on the bridge.

The paper hangers and decorators have driven the bar and river pilots out of the "snuggery" at Eleventh and Bond streets; in other words, the pilots' headquarters are being handsomely overhauled and brightened up.

The schooner Sequoia arrived in from San Francisco yesterday morning and will load out lumber from Portland for a return voyage.

Twenty-nine people stepped ashore from the dandy little steamer Telegraph at 1:30 p. m. yesterday, and she delivered twenty tons of local freight here also; on her return trip to Portland she took as passengers Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Rarick, of the First M. E. church, and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Brix, who go to the metropolis as delegates to the Oregon M. E. conference, which opens there today and will be in session until next Tuesday and at which all the pastoral appointments for the coming year will be made.

The steamer Yosemite, with an immense load of lumber and about twenty-five passengers in her cabins, came down from Portland yesterday and left out for sea and San Francisco at 4 p. m.

The Oklahoma arrived down yesterday from Portland with the barkentine Hesper on her hawsers. The latter is lumber laden for San Pedro.

The Oklahoma returned up river with the ship St. Nicholas and the schooner Sequoia on her lines; the former will be dropped at Clifton to go into winter quarters; the latter will go to Portland for lumber and when the Oklahoma reaches Westport she will pick up the schooner Irene, which sailed that far on her "own wings" last Sunday, and will take her on to the Inman-Poulsen yards at Portland.

The bark Homeward Bound was hauled in to the Elmore pier yesterday and will begin discharging her thousand tons of Australian coal there today. She is under charter for six coastwise voyages in the lumber trade, between Portland and San Francisco, as soon as she is free from her present engagement.

Mr. Fred Lindsley, proprietor of the Colonial hotel at Seaside, passed through the city today on his way to Oregon City, where his saw mill interests demand attention.

Miss Marie Smith of Salem is visiting friends in Astoria.

J. W. Kirkland, a resident of Milwaukie, is spending a few days here with friends.

Frank R. Davis, a well-to-do farmer residing on Elliott Prairie, is in the city.

The French bark Genevieve Molinos, just arrived here from London, as is the case with all, or nearly all French vessels, had to pay an access in tonnage dues here on account of her failure to have her ship's spaces properly marked. They cost her about $11 extra.

ANARCHISTS AFTER HIM.

Second Bomb Addressed to Jacob Schiff Seized by Philadelphia Detectives.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Jacob Schiff, of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, was informed last night that secret service men in Philadelphia had seized a bomb in that city, wrapped in pasteboard and addressed to him in New York.

Mr. Schiff said that he suspected none and could not think for what reason any person would wish to take his life.

"This is the second infernal machine that has been addressed to me," he said. "I cannot understand it at all. What possible reason could anyone wish to assassinate me? I have done no hurt to anyone that I know of."

A previous attempt on Mr. Schiff's life was made on August 18 of last year, when a cylinder, packed in inflammable cotton and filled with gunpowder, was sent to his New York office. A clerk who regarded the package as suspicious, soaked it in water before opening it. No clue to the sender of the bomb was ever discovered.

African Pygmy Tried to Kill Keeper, When Latter Turned Hose on Him.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Ota Benga, the African pygmy, who has been exhibited at the New York Zoological gardens for some time past, tried to kill a keeper yesterday with a knife. He fought furiously before he was disarmed. Benga's anger was excited because the keeper, in a spirit of fun, turned the hose on him.

Benga has been exhibited in the monkey cage. He has attracted wide attention because of the protests of several negro societies against the exhibition.

TWO DECREES IN DIVORCE MATTERS HANDED DOWN—THE DAY ABSORBED BY THE SUPRENT-TWILIGHT SUIT.

The higher court of Clatsop convened at the usual hour yesterday morning with Judge McBride on the bench and the customary retinue of officers and attorneys in attendance.

The following matters were disposed of during the day's session, to-wit: In the matter of M. L. Fabre versus H. C. Fabre, for divorce, the decree prayed for was granted; in the matter of Lena Miller versus M. D. Miller, an action of the same sort, a similar decree was handed down.

The balance of the day was devoted to the hearing of the testimony in the cause of Mary M. Suprenant versus Mary W. Twilight, as administratrix, which is being tried before a jury. The day closed with the witness still under examination, and the case will be continued this morning.

An answer was filed yesterday by the attorneys for defendant, in the case of Fred Reans versus Arthur E. Peterson, for damages in the sum of $2,020. The answer alleges that the defendant acted without malice or deliberate intent of injury, and wholly upon the natural and compulsory basis of self-defense; that he was provoked, insulted and threatened by the plaintiff before he made any attempt to defend his person, and only used his hands upon the plaintiff when it became necessary to protect himself from the evident purpose of plaintiff to do him bodily injury, and then he used circumspection and used his fists only enough to stop the prosecution of plaintiff's avowed and determined purpose.

The court will resume business at the "old, old stand" this morning at the usual hour.

ACTORS' LIABILITY COMPANY.

Is Name of Proposed Insurance Organization to Protect Them.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Plans were discussed yesterday for the formation of an insurance company to protect against loss when postponements are made in big theatrical productions.

It will be the object of the Actors' Liability Company, as the concern will be called, to protect actors, managers and the public and eventually to insure managers, actors and authors against the failure of plays. The company will insure the public in such a way that they can be absolutely assured when they buy a theater ticket that they will see the performance on the night for which the ticket is purchased or receive twice the amount of the purchase money.

DIES AT FOREST GROVE HOME

DR. FREDERICK CRANG, WELL KNOWN IN THIS CITY, BREATHE HIS LAST AT THE ADVANCED AGE OF EIGHTY-FIVE YEARS.

The sad intelligence was received in this city yesterday, shortly after noon, of the sudden death at Forest Grove, of Dr. Frederick Crang, at the venerable age of 85 years. The news was not wholly unexpected by the intimate friends of the family here, nor by the kinsmen who dwell here, for the aged physician has been in very dubious health for a long while. He died of general debility and a gradual wasting of the tissues and springs of life.

He was a notable man in the state and widely known and universally respected and counted his friends in this city by the scores, having lived here for some years, and a large group of his children being well known and highly respected residents of this city and county.

Among those of his children at present dwelling in this city are Mrs. Geo. H. George, who left for Forest Grove on the evening express yesterday, accompanied by Mr. George; Mrs. H. G. Van Dusen, who was at the bedside of her father when the final summons came, and who will be joined there this morning by Mr. Van Dusen; Mrs. McKenzie, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Van Dusen here, for some time past, and whose health is somewhat impaired at present; Frank L. Crang, the well known superintendent of the Astoria water system; Edward C. Crang of Portland, and Captain Thomas Crang, the Columbia river pilot, each and all of whom are en route to the Forest Grove home on the unhappy errand of the hour.

The details of Dr. Crang's illness and death and the subsequent arrangements for his sepulture will be announced as soon as the Astorian is in possession of them.
