stocking. But the young man was not only elected leader, but redeemed the district from Tammany as well. When he was elected president of the Republican County Committee, the wise ones laughed again and said that Mr. Parsons could do nothing against the wishes of the old bosses. It was a hard fight for him to retain more than a nominal control, but his recent victory gives him a clear field. It is confidently expected that he will rehabilitate the broken down local Republican organization, which has so often struck hands with Tammany for purposes of graft.

One incident of the primary results that attracted attention was the extinction of James Brice Gordon Rinehart, the young Harvard man who attempted the political regeneration of the East Side. J. B'Gee Rinehart, as the Bowery called him, was simply snowed under in his attempt to secure the Republican leadership of "De Thold" Assembly District. The Republican leader there has of late years been the property of Tammany Boss Big Tim Sullivan. Rinehart swore to down Sullivan, if he was elected, to the big boss simply gave the order that timehart's opponent, Louis Roeninger, should be "squeezed" out and then "some fellow handed B'Gee a lemon." was the Bowery's disinterested comment on the result.

New Yorkers have watched with interest the recent sessions of the Government Pure Food Law Commission held in the city. Father Knickerbocker learned that much of the "prepared" foods he eats, do not, alas, bear any relation to the names blazoned forth on the labels. Salt cod, according to the testimony evoked by the Commission is often haddock, canned baked beans are usually merely boiled, and veal loaf is sometimes concocted largely of feathers and bits of rope. Butter is dyed yellow and catsup is dyed red, and the green of the pickle is said to be put there very often by man rather than by nature. Even the cherry in New York's cocktail is said to be colored red—but as no New Yorker of taste takes cherries in his cocktail, this news will not greatly cause worry along the Great White Way.

New York is looking forward with interest to the 300-mile automobile race for the Vanderbilt cup, to be held on Long Island on October 6 and it is estimated that 150,000 persons will view the contest. Part of the thirty-mile course lies within the city limits. In the little county of Nassau, where the race is held, the auto day is the most prosperous day of the year. On the night before the race, single beds in farm houses and inns rent in some cases as high as $20 and the guest must not cavil if other persons share the room with him. Moreover on the day of the contest farmers' wives, sisters, cousins and aunts sell sandwiches and fruit to the patient spectators at Waldorf prices, and the race committee employs 500 men as special policemen at $5 per man. Even when an occasional chicken or pig is run over the offender is easily persuaded to part with a greenback. It is little wonder, therefore, that the farmers on the outskirts of the city like the smell of gasoline.

JOHNNIE CROWE DEAD.

EVERETT, Wash., Sept. 29.—Johnnie Crowe, the prizefighter, died this morning in his dressing-room as a result of knockout blows received in the 13th round last night in a match before the Everett Athletic club with Billy Snailhem, of San Francisco. He was struck over the kidneys and stomach and did not recover consciousness. Snailhem is under arrest.

BUSTER BATTLESHIP.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Connecticut, the only first-class battleship ever built in a yard owned by the United States Government, was put in commission this morning at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, exactly two years after she was launched. Captain William Smith is in command. The Connecticut is the largest ship ever commissioned for the American Navy. She displaces 16,000 tons.

RAISIN RAISINS.

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 28.—Raisins makers of El Caon and Escondido valleys report the pack this year a little short. There is a great scarcity of labor and some may be lost on that account, but the main reason given for the drop is that the Los Angeles market has demanded so many of the grapes in their fresh state that there is not as much left to cure.

AT THE NEW THEATRE LAST NIGHT

BIG HOUSE GREETED "THE ROYAL CHEF" AND COMMENDS THE ENTERPRISE OF THE MESSERS FISHER AND ELVERS.

Eight hundred Astorians took a hand in the pleasant task of launching the new and handsome Astoria Theater last night.

The house was just comfortably filled and the absence of crowding was a contribution to the real pleasures of the night and its leading event.

The forty jolly and accomplished people on the farther side of the curtain were not one whit behind in their part of the happy celebration and "The Royal Chef" will be long and kindly remembered in this city for the sterling merit of its quality and its presentation here as the original, introductory bill of the house.

There was absolutely no room for doubt of the genuine success of the pretty musical concert when the final curtain was rung down for the applause of the night had a consecutiveness and an earnestness about it that precluded any dubious conclusions in that line. It was bright, catchy, amusing and entertaining in every phase and feature and served its purpose admirably both in a professional and social way.

The house itself was a revelation of comfort, service and beauty and the universal comment among the big clientele last night was wholly indicative of the public appreciation of the progressive spirit of the Messrs. Fisher and the determined and faithful efforts of Manager R. E. Elvers. In behalf of the re-establishment here of a first class theater in which the cultured and exacting Astorian might, once in a while, at least, go to see something of real historic merit presented by stars and troupes of tangible standing in the profession.

The big theater is well lighted and ventilated and though there were some few delinquencies in the equipment, as is the case with every "first night" the world over, there is nothing that will not be amended and made perfect in due course.

The house, the play, the patronage, the pleasure, all were on the common level of real success and it is hoped the new Astoria Theater will never present a less excellent bill nor know a lesser patronage than made up the acceptable record of last night.

STORY TOO COMMON.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Charles G. Kline, an Evanston coal merchant, using a shotgun as a weapon, mortally wounded his wife as she lay in her bed in their residence early today. Then he placed the muzzle of the weapon against his side and killed himself instantly. Mrs. Kline died half an hour later. It is believed Mr. Kline enacted the tragedy while mentally unbalanced. He had suffered from a disorder of the brain, for some years, and for a time was a patient in a sanitarium. Mr. Kline was 43 years old and his wife 39. They leave six children.

ORCHARD NOT CRAZY.

SALT LAKE, Sept. 29.—A special to the Associated Press by its Boise correspondent says: "The story that Harry Orchard has lost his reason is without foundation."

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The funeral services over the mortal remains of the late Mrs. Rose Sorbye will take place at St. Mary's Catholic church, tomorrow morning, Monday, at 9:30 o'clock and interment will be had at the Clatsop cemetery. Services at the graveside will be private.

Simington Dry Goods Co.

Value. Quality. Courtesy.

New Goods for the Coming Fall and Winter.

EVERY department at Simington's is now showing generous stocks of new seasons goods, and in several the lines are complete. Two features are always in evidence in goods at Simington's. The first is the quality--we will have none but the best the market affords. The other--style--is of equal importance, especially to our women customers. We look months ahead, keenly watching everything that will show the workings of Dame Fashion's mind. The result is that Simington's shows correct and authoritative styles weeks before they are on display elsewhere. A case in point is our present splendid line of silks and dress goods. We have been showing the beautiful plaids that will be worn so extensively this fall for the past month. Visitors are always welcome at Simington's. Come in and look over the bright new goods.
