

ROOSEVELT FOR HUGHES

Indorses Republican Candidate for Governor.

PRINCIPLES INVOLVED

Says Hughes Stands for the Same Principles Advocated By President.

PUBLICATION IS AUTHORIZED

Statement Believed to Strengthen Republicans in New York, with a Tendency of Bringing the Independents into Line.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The first public utterance made by President Roosevelt, touching on the campaign in New York, was conveyed to the public at a monster mass meeting at Cooper Union tonight, in the form of an endorsement of the gubernatorial candidacy of Charles E. Hughes. Marcus Braun, chairman of the meeting, read the message, which was as follows: "Anyone who believes or who has tried to convey the impression that I am not heart and soul for Charles E. Hughes for governor of New York, is either wilfully or inadvertently laboring under a delusion. I am first, last and all the time for Hughes, because I believe and know and feel that he stands precisely for the same principle as I stand for. I authorize you to make that statement to your friends and my friends on the east side with all the emphasis that is in you."

The message was received with tumultuous applause and cheering. It is claimed by the Hearst followers that the message was demanded by the chairman of the state central committee in order to bolster up Hughes, and which which his election as governor of New York largely depends.

From papers found in the room, however, it appears that they are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hamilton, of Highland, N. Y. The bodies were found in their chamber. The woman had been shot through the breast, and the man died from a bullet wound in the head. The right hand of the man clasped a revolver of large calibre. Nothing indicated a struggle.

Dr. Rosen will remain at Fez because of the disturbed state of the country.

It was said that similar requests would probably be made by that organization to every other railroad in the United States between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

STILL FIRING JAPS.

Student at Annapolis College Retired, Claimed to Be Voluntarily.

TOKIO, Oct. 27.—The allegation that the retirement of Midshipman Asahi Kitagiki from the naval academy at Annapolis, was due to the request of the Japanese embassy at Washington, is deemed here to be impossible; as the Japanese government has carefully avoided anything likely to provoke the United States. Kitagiki's parents are without word from him, but it is believed his retirement was voluntary and in no way connected with the situation at San Francisco.

CHAUFFEUR ARRESTED

Attempted to Save Life of Small Boy Who Jumped in Front of Machine.

THE BOY DIED OF INJURIES

Is the Father of Carey Snyder, Murdered at Hillsboro, Who Disappeared Ten Months Ago, Whose Wife Made Confession.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 27.—Robert M. Snyder, a millionaire capitalist, and who was under indictment in St. Louis on a charge of bribery, died at the Agnew hospital here tonight from the results of injuries received in an automobile accident on the Independence road a few moments before.

Snyder was in his own automobile, driven by Frank M. Schroeder, an expert driver, and was riding eastward and was just passing a moving trolley car when the chauffeur saw a small boy jump in the path of the machine. In an effort to save the boy, Schroeder turned the machine toward the curb, and as it struck, Snyder, who was in the rear seat, was thrown out and against an iron trolley pole, fracturing his skull at the base of the brain. The boy, whose name was Arthur Roedell, was knocked down and fatally hurt. Schroeder was not injured.

Snyder was taken to the Agnew hospital, where he died without regaining consciousness. Schroeder was taken to the police station, where he made a statement of the affair and was later released. Schroeder says he was not driving over ten miles an hour at the time of the accident.

Roedell, the injured boy, died late tonight. Robert M. Snyder is the father of Carey Snyder who disappeared ten months ago and whose body was found October 1 near Hillsboro, and who made the husband of Mrs. Snyder who made a confession today. Robert M. Snyder is survived by a widow and three sons.

ANARCHIST DISAPPEARS.

Friends Claim He Was Secretly Arrested by Detectives.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 27.—Friends of Alexander Berkman, the anarchist, who mysteriously disappeared here Thursday, insist that he has been abducted either by private detectives or secret service officials. Walter Behlen, at whose home Berkman stopped here, yesterday called on Harris R. Cooley, chairman of the board of public service, and told the latter that he had received information which led him to believe that Berkman had been followed here by detectives and that they had procured his secret arrest and that he was now being held a prisoner somewhere without due process of law. Mr. Cooley granted Behlen permission to make a search of the workhouse and other institutions here, but he was not found at any of these places.

INSURGENTS FIGHTING.

Cuban Outlaws Will Be Taken Care of by Troops.

HAVANA, Oct. 27.—As a result of continued depredations in the numerous small bands of insurgents in Santa Clara Province, Brigadier General Franklin Bell has ordered the Fifteenth cavalry, which is stationed at Placetas, to occupy the towns of Santa Clara, Esperanza, Cienfuegos, Cruces and Santo Domingo, taking the places of the rural guard garrisons, which will then be released to pursue and scatter the marauders. This pressing into service of the rural guards is in accordance with Governor Magoon's policy not to use American troops in the suppression of disorders.

YOUNGEST SOLDIER.

Controversy Settled in Favor of Man From Seattle.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The controversy as to who was the youngest soldier of the Civil War has probably been settled in favor of Perry Byan of Seattle. He enlisted as a drummer boy in Company D, 24th Iowa volunteers, on August 22, 1862, at the age of nine years and nine months. He was born October 22, 1852, in Kane county, Ill., but enlisted from Mount Vernon, Iowa. After serving nearly a year he was honorably discharged on a surgeon's certificate of disability. The pension officers have investigated Byan's war papers and found that his representations are correct. He will receive a tidy sum as back pension.

SCHMITZ IN LONDON

Claims to be Making Investigation Municipal Affairs.

INTERESTED IN SAN FRANCISCO

He is Non-Committal in Reference to Recent Charges of Grafting and Believed He Will Not Return Home.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—A Herald cable from London today conveys an interview with Eugene Schmitz, mayor of San Francisco, who is at present in the British capital, spending most of his time in visiting London's municipal districts in order to see how affairs are administered and the class of building that is in vogue. Mr. Schmitz expressed the opinion that in reconstructing San Francisco they must build for the people who will live there 200 years hence, as well as today and that was the reason for his visit to Europe. He intended to visit most of the big cities on the continent, he said, and his visits to Liverpool and Glasgow already made, had been useful. He spoke of the dock system at Liverpool as having favorably impressed him and declared that some of the ideas, if applied to San Francisco, would make that port one of the greatest of harbors.

Mayor Schmitz said he hoped, as the result of his tour, to make all the best points of municipal administration in Europe contribute to the well-being of his people, so that in a few years San Francisco will have arisen a finer and more beautiful city than ever. When asked about the recent Heney-Ruef sensation in San Francisco, he feigned indifference, but is very anxious to keep in touch with developments. It is mooted, that in the event of Ruef, Schmitz and the board of supervisors being indicted for alleged grafting, Schmitz will not return to San Francisco, at least, not until the political storm blows over.

SEVERE WIND STORM.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—Two persons were seriously injured by the blowing down of two buildings at Third and Carr streets, shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. The storm came without warning from the southwest. In a number of cases people went out into the streets, fearing a cyclone.

An unoccupied two-story frame residence on Bond Avenue, East St. Louis, was also blown down during the storm.

MRS. SNYDER CONFESSES

Claims Perry and Rogers Murdered Her Husband.

HUSBAND A CRIMINAL

Crime Committed at Time of Proposed Attempt to Rob Forest Grove Bank.

KILLED DURING THE QUARREL

Charges of Illicit Connections with Geo. Perry Assigned as the Cause for Making the Confession to District Attorney.

HILLSBORO, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Carey M. Snyder today made a complete confession of the murder of her husband to Deputy District Attorney T. B. Tongue and C. E. Runyon, court stenographer. She was driven to desperation by the belief that District Attorney Allen was reaching the conclusion that she had sealed her lips because her relations with George Perry were illicit and that there was a growing suspicion that she might have been implicated in the murder. Wounded to the heart by the false light in which she had been placed before the public, and when shown documentary evidence implicating her with the murder, she made a sweeping confession this morning.

She stated that her apparent indifference to the murderers being punished was due to her love for her husband turning to hate on account of his criminal propensities and the inhuman treatment to which she had been subjected. She admitted that her husband was to have taken part in the Forest Grove bank robbery with Perry and a man known to her as Rogers, and that a quarrel ensued which led to the spot when the deed was committed. She accuses her dead husband and Perry of planning first to hold up the box office at the Helig theater and of robbing Dan Marx's jewelry store in Portland, after murdering the clerk, and explained why the bloody plot failed. The decision was reached to rob the Forest Grove bank. Perry's apparent indifference to the situation and his attitude of innocence, Mrs. Snyder asserts, is due to the belief that she knew nothing. She says Snyder promised Perry not to let his wife know anything about the plans. Because she refused to become an accessory to the conspiracy to murder and rob, she says she was beaten brutally and again by her husband, and that once two shots were fired into the wall over her head to intimidate her.

DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE.

Regrouping of the Great Powers of the World.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—A London dispatch published here today, claims that a defensive alliance has been made between Great Britain, France and Italy, which is to become operative whenever the triple alliance between Germany, Austria and Italy shall expire. This regrouping of the great powers, says the dispatcher, is a natural outcome of the destruction of the balance of power in Europe consequent on the paralysis of Russia in the Japanese war.

The compact, it is stated, is an important step in the formation of a league of peace, the great object King Edward has labored to accomplish since he succeeded to the throne. Spain and Portugal are said to cordially support it and the further statement is made that there is good reason for believing that it commands the sympathy of the United States.

CORTELYOU TO RETIRE.

Will Resign Chairmanship of the National Committee.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Postmaster General Cortelyou will retire from the chairmanship of the Republican national committee when he becomes secretary of the Treasury, in succession to Secretary Shaw. This statement is made on good authority. It has been generally understood that Secretary Shaw would retire from the treasury on the 4th of March next, but an intimation has been given that he might sever his connection with the department between the first of January.

Harry S. New, vice-chairman of the Republican national committee, will, it is said, assume the duties of chairman when Mr. Cortelyou retires.

AWARDED JUDGMENT.

Court Street Theater Company Secures Heavy Damages.

BUFFALO, Oct. 27.—A verdict awarding $65,500 damages to the Court Street Theater company of Buffalo against the Empire Circuit Company, known as the Burlesque Trust, was returned by a jury in the Supreme Court last night. The Court Street Theater Company sued the Empire Circuit Company for $100,000, alleging that it had conspired to ruin the business of the plaintiff by inducing managers to break existing contracts for engagements there under threat of entire exclusion from the numerous burlesque houses controlled by the Empire Circuit throughout the United States. A number of the managers did cancel their contracts and the theater closed on January 13, 1902, and was never reopened.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—The Herald this morning prints the following: "A new head to the throne of Poland was born in Los Angeles last night."

"A boy who in future years may rule the destinies of that once powerful kingdom and assist its people in throwing off the yoke placed on them by the countries which now govern it, was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Gilhousen, at their home at 287 Brighton Avenue at 6:30 o'clock last night.

"The child is a grandson of Colonel John Sobieski, descendant of King John III, and direct heir to the Polish throne. His mother, Mrs. Gilhousen, is the only living child of Colonel Sobieski, her younger brother having died in 1895.

"Mr. Gilhousen is the teller at the First National Bank in this city and is a well known clubman. The young couple were married here five years ago, shortly after Mrs. Gilhousen arrived in Los Angeles from her former home in Salem, Ill. They are both prominent in society.

CHEYENNES AND UTES.

Battle Imminent Between Two Tribes of Indians.

CHEYENNE, Oct. 27.—According to advices received from the Wyoming state officials, the government will take no chances and will send an entire regiment to surround the Utes. Two companies of infantry have gone to intercept the Utes in case they attempt to reach Cheyenne agency before the arrival of the cavalry from Fort Meade. Old timers here say that should the Utes reach the Cheyennes, they would fire that band into revolt and a serious war would result, as the Cheyennes are hard fighters.
