

UNWORTHY DEMAGOGUE

Secretary Root Denounces Hearst Dangerous Man.

YELLOW JOURNALISM

Persistent Office Seeker, Worthless as a Congressman and Unsafe Man

DISCREDIT TO HONEST LABOR

Secretary Root Stated in Speech at Utica That His Statements Re- ceived Approval and Indorse- ment of The President.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 1.—The largest mass meeting ever held in this city greeted Secretary Root, whose remarks were received with cheering and frequently applauded. His speech was a bitter denunciation of Mr. Hearst, which the speaker said had the full and complete indorsement of President Roosevelt. Having said that the President earnestly desired the election of Hughes, he said, among other things:

"I say to you with President Roosevelt's authority, that he regards Mr. Hearst as wholly unfit to be governor of New York! as an insincere, self-seeking demagogue, who is trying to deceive the workmen of New York by false statements and false promises, and I say to you with his authority that he considers Mr. Hearst's election would be an injury and discredit alike to honest labor and to honest capital, and a serious injury to the work in which he is engaged, of enforcing just and equal laws against corporation wrongdoers. President Roosevelt and Mr. Hearst stand as far apart as the poles asunder."

Secretary Root quoted from President Roosevelt's first message to congress in which, while referring to McKinley's assassination, he condemned reckless utterances on the stump and in the public press which appeal to dark and evil spirits of greed and envy and sullen hatred, and declared that "Wind is sowed by men who preach such doctrines and they cannot escape the responsibility for the whirlwind which is reaped." Continuing the secretary said: "I say by the President's authority, that in penning these words, with the horror of President McKinley's murder fresh in his mind and before him, he had Mr. Hearst specifically in mind. And I say by his authority that what he thought of Mr. Hearst then, he thinks of Mr. Hearst now."

Secretary Root characterized Hearst as a violent and unworthy demagogue and persistent office seeker. He said Hearst had been worthless as a congressman and declared, that while he professed to favor an independent judiciary, he had made a deal with Boss Murphy for the nomination of a judiciary ticket. He called attention to Hearst's own corporation management to show his insincerity of his attack against corporations. As a demagogue, Root said, Hearst is the most dangerous, because he is rich and generous and because he is the owner of newspapers of wide circulation.

What evidence, the speaker went on, has Mr. Hearst ever produced of his fitness for this office. In his private life he spoke no further than to say that from no community in this state does there come concerning him that testimony of lifelong neighbors and acquaintances to his private virtues, the excellence of his morals and the correctness of his conduct, which which we would like to have concerning a man who is to be made governor of this state. Mr. Root went on to say that Hearst is known as being young, possessing great inherited wealth and the owner of a number of yellow journals, and that he had courted the opinion of the laboring men on all questions relating to capital and labor.

Of Hearst's public record, Mr. Root declared there is an abundance of affirmative evidence of his unfitness for office. While standing as a political purist, the speaker said, he comes to us covered all over with the mark of Tammany and Murphy, whom he himself has denounced as a scoundrel and thief; that he comes not in answer to the call of the people not as the highest candidate of the democratic party of the state, but named by his own procurement through a shameful deal with the boss of Tammany. As congressman he has done nothing. During the three years he has been in Congress that body has been in session 467 days, and there are 135 recorded votes by yea and nay, showing that he was not in his seat one-tenth of the time.

His voice was heard in congress in all of those years but once, and that but for ten minutes in a question of personal privilege, and he did not even contribute a motion to adjourn to the business of congress. Root said Hearst was so rich that the $15,000 paid him for his services may seem of no account. "But no honest man would have thought it right to take it," Root declared that the public only knows Hearst by the papers he publishes and that with these papers he sought to array capital against labor; labor against capital poverty against wealth and wealth against poverty, with such bitter vindictive feeling and that he would destroy all respect for law and love of order. "What public servant," continued the secretary, "has he not assailed with vile and vulgar epithets; what branch of free government has he not taught his readers to believe a corrupt agency of oppression?"

Enlarging upon the subject, Root said: "Only once has this method of incendiary abuse wrought out its natural consequences and that was in the murder of President McKinley. For years, by vile epithets and vile

CROKER VS. HEARST

Election Will Turn Largely on Question of Trusts.

TAMMANY WILL BE DISHONORED

Election of Hearst Will Have a Ten- dency to Paralyze Capital and Cause Men to Invest in Government Bonds.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—In an article published in the Freeman's Journal of Dublin, Richard Croker asserts that the election in New York will turn largely on the question of trusts. He expressed the belief that if Hearst wins and carries out his program, the effect will be to paralyze capital and thereby paralyze labor, because capitalists would be compelled to withdraw their money from industries and developments and invest it in government stocks and bonds.

Regarding Tammany's support of Hearst, Croker said: "I think it most astonishing and an unprincipled performance of Tammany to turn its delegation over to Hearst, when he has accused them all of being thieves and pictured them going to state's prison, and to ignore the true Jeffersonian democrat, William Sulzer. I cannot understand why Murphy would allow the organization to depart from its recognized principles. Would it not be better for Tammany Hall to be defeated fighting for principle than to dishonor itself by outraging the principles of Jefferson."

INCORRIGIBLE YOUTH.

EUGENE, Nov. 1.—Francis Tony Tivoy, aged 11 years, was committed to the state reform school by Judge Crissman today and was taken to that institution. The commitment was made at the request of the boy's father, who says he is vicious and incorrigible.

COUNTESS CASTELLANE

An Unhappy Marriage Be- ing Aired in Court.

CHARGES OF INFIDELITY

Court Castellane Making Steruous Endeavours for Recon- ciliation.

LETTERS PRODUCED IN COURT

If Count Castellane Cannot Secure Amicable Settlement, He Will De- mand a Trial and Sensational Developments Probable.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—In spite of the statement made yesterday by Maitre Cruppi in his opening address to the court in the case of Countess Castellane for a divorce from her husband, Count Boni de Castellane, that there is not the faintest possibility of reconciliation, it is by no means certain that the court has abandoned such an outcome. His conduct since the suit began appears to have been based on the belief that his wife must yield in the end. This theory will explain the count's refusal of liberal offers of a life income. It was also disclosed that the count has never ceased writing letters to his wife, begging for a reconciliation. Friends of the count say he was dumfounded to learn that the countess had allowed the presentation yesterday of a detailed case. He was so confident that his wife would surrender that he has not prepared any defense. It was only today that documents were transferred to the counsel for the opposition.

These papers amount in the main to letters written by the count to his wife and which show the contempt in which she held her husband. These letters will probably necessitate the production of letters which provoked them. It seems certain that Castellane's defense to the charge of infidelity will be "unproven," and he consequently will demand an inquiry and the production of witnesses for the purpose of prolonging the case, his idea being to accomplish reconciliation. This would extricate the count from money difficulties with which he is beset. The calling of witnesses is what the attorneys for the countess are particularly anxious to avoid, as doing so would drag in some of the highest names in France. The report that the husbands of the two women referred to yesterday have challenged the count to a duel, is without foundation.

NOT A FAIR DEAL.

Los Angeles Democrats Not Represented on the Election Board.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—The Herald this morning prints an article saying that fears are entertained by Democrats that they will not receive proper representation on the election boards of the state next Tuesday. Significant instances are alluded to in several counties. In Los Angeles, the Herald claims that out of a list of forty-five Democrats sent to the board of supervisors as judges of elections in Pasadena, sixteen are reported rejected. In another instance at Lamanda Park, where eight Democrats were recommended for judges the Herald says that all of these men were rejected and a similar number of representatives appointed. The law committee of the Democratic organization may take up the matter.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

One Man Dead and Several Injured at Chattanooga This Morning.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 1.—A terrible explosion occurred in the yard store room of the Cincinnati & Southern Railroad shops at 1 o'clock this (Friday) morning, and as a result one man is dead, one fatally injured and at least a half dozen others badly hurt. The storehouse was entirely destroyed, the cooling station badly damaged, several cars burned and windows for blocks around broken. The explosion came like a thunderclap from a clear sky, shaking every structure in the city. On account of the lateness of the hour, it is impossible to estimate the property damage.

USUAL OCCURRENCE.

Two Trains Collide on the Union Pacific Near Medicine Bow.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 1.—Two passenger trains on the Union Pacific, the east bound overland and the west bound Pacific express, had a head on collision on the ridge west of Medicine Bow this morning. Both engines were demolished. None of the passengers were injured, although badly shaken up.

LABORERS WANTED.

Southern Pacific Needs 4,000 Railroad Laborers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—The Southern Pacific wants 4,000 laborers. This is the statement of one of the local officials. Orders have just come from Harriman to hasten the development of the Pacific Slope lines, and the officials are getting busy. Within the next two years over $25,000,000 will be spent in the construction of lines on the Pacific Coast, by the Harriman system.

RIOT IN NEW YORK

Striking Chauffeurs and Sympathizers Engage in Disturbance.

STARTED BY YOUNG WOMAN

Required One Hundred Policemen to Quell the Riot and Resulted in One Man Being Seriously Injured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A riot in which five hundred chauffeurs and their sympathizers participated occurred tonight. About one hundred policemen were required to quell it. Many of the policemen had their helmets and uniforms ruined. Roundsmen Frank J. Dunn was seriously injured. The police declare the trouble was started by a young woman who urged the crowd standing on the street to break up the police protection of a passing automobile. The crowd surrounded the automobile. Stones, sticks and eggs were thrown from every direction. The police made repeated attempts to arrest men who appeared to be the ringleaders, but each time a man was caught he was rescued by his companions.

Late tonight there was another clash between the strikers and policemen. The arrival of reserve policemen saved Patrolman Levy from serious injury. Charles Opp was arrested. He had been so severely handled that he had to be taken to the hospital. Another man was arrested and though injured, refused medical assistance.

WILL BE MARRIED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A Boston special to the Journal says announcement was made at the office of Henry W. Savage last night that George Ade, the playwright and witness, is engaged to marry Miss Helen Hale, a wealthy college graduate, who has sung in several Savage operas.

POLITICS IN NEW YORK

Both Sides Claim a Victory Next Tuesday.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

New York City Ablaze With Poli- tical Turnouts and Cam- paign Speeches.

ESTIMATES AS TO THE RESULTS

Republicans Claim Hughes' Election by 200,000 and Democrats Claim Hearst Will Carry State by Over 100,000 Majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—With the close of today the storm center of political action in this State was transferred from the upstate counties to Greater New York until November 6. Both Hughes and Hearst will make their appeals to the voters of metropolitan districts. The program is arranged for them to call many special meetings daily and their vigorous and almost unprecedented campaign will continue practically to the dawn of election day.

Greater New York was ablaze tonight with political enthusiasm. The Republican followers held more than a hundred meetings in as many different places and Hearst spoke at sixteen different meetings. The estimates are being made by both sides as to probable pluralities of the respective candidates. National Committeeman Ward was at Republican headquarters and said, upon information received, after a careful canvass of the city and state, Hughes would be elected by at least 175,000 and he would not be surprised if it is more than 200,000. Tammany leader Murphy said today that he estimates Hearst's plurality in Greater New York will be from 80,000 to 100,000, and added that New York and King's county would go strong for Hearst.

FRED TAYLOR KILLED.

BOISE, Nov. 1.—At Oakley today, Fred Taylor was shot and killed by Hiram Wells, the town marshal. Taylor had been placed under arrest for drunkenness and he broke and ran. The marshal fired two shots over his head and then sent a bullet into his back, piercing his heart. There was much excitement over the matter. Taylor's friends are making an effort to find Wells, with the avowed purpose of killing him; but the latter was hidden by his friends.

INCREASED BUSINESS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The report of Auditor Jardines of the New York postoffice shows that the receipts for the month of October for the sale of stamps, etc., reached $1,721,969, the largest month's business in the history of the office. This is an increase of 14 1-4 per cent over the corresponding month last year.

In commenting on the report, Postmaster Wilcox said it showed a prosperity throughout the country that exceeded anything known in the past.

BALLOTS ON TIME.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—There is doubt in the minds of the members of the election board whether the ballots for Tuesday's election can be printed in time. Never before has so short a time been allowed the printers to get out the enormous amount of work before them and it was admitted early this morning, when the decision of the court of appeals was received, that only by the exertion of every emergency could the ballots be in the voting places when the polls open on Tuesday morning.

SOCIALISTS PINCHED.

Congressional Candidate Spends the Night in Jail.

SEATTLE, Nov. 1.—Emil Hermann, the socialist candidate for congress, spent last night in the city jail for having obstructed the streets at Second avenue and Union streets. Hermann, the police allege, blocked the streets in making a socialist speech. He gave a bail bond today and was released.

The usual notice of appeal to the Superior court was given in the case of Mrs. Nina E. Wood, a woman socialist, who claims to be a member of the Portland bar, in Oregon, who was fined $50 and costs for obstructing the streets.

Peter Helm of Chicago, who sustained a laceration of the scalp, internal injuries and possibly a fracture of the skull and Miss Eva Cook, a linotype operator of the Examiner, who suffered a laceration of the scalp and internal injuries. WORCESTER, Nov. 1.—Representative Rockwood Hoar, son of the late George F. Hoar, died tonight at his residence here after a prolonged illness. The congressman was taken ill on September 26, and was at first thought to be suffering from neuralgia. Alarming symptoms soon developed and a few days ago an operation was performed, but in spite of this, the patient seemed to fall.

SOLDIERS OUTWITTED

One Hundred Utes Capture Army Supply Wagon.

CHEYENNES WILL INTERFERE

Indians Have Separated Under Different Chiefs so as to Keep the Soldiers from Gaining Information of Whereabouts.

BUTTE, Nov. 1.—Dispatches from Miles City this evening state that advices received at Fort Keogh of the arrival at Ashland of the Fort Keogh troops. They saw no Utes, the renegades apparently outwitting the soldiers by making a wide detour toward the Cheyenne reserve. Scouts have reported seeing bands of Indians in isolated sections and apparently the Indians have separated under different sub-chiefs to avoid giving their advance a hostile appearance.

A dispatch from Sheridan states that a band of one hundred Utes today captured a wagon loaded with supplies bound from Arvada for the Tenth and Sixth cavalry. The driver was held up at the point of a rifle while the redskins ransacked the load and carried it away, allowing the driver to go.

White Bull, one of the Sioux Chiefs, is in Sioux City today on his way to the scene of the Ute uprising in Wyoming, to act as an emissary of peace. He said he was anxious to meet the leaders of the Utes and dissuade them from fighting.
