IN THE CITY THEATERS. .

The Beach & Bowers minstrels in charge of J. H. Smith, played to a well-filled house in Lead last evening. The opening was excellent and the stage setting as fine as ever has been seen in Lead and those who performed were artists in their line. The opening overture by the company was well received, the band being an excellent one. Solos by Earl Flynn, John Higgins, Harry Perrill and Ben Horner were above the ordinary, but when Barney McConnell sang "Genevieve," he brought down the house and it was necessary for him to respond to several encores. When Roswell J. Wright, the phenomenal male soprano, sang "Would You Care." the audience went wild and many would not believe Mr Wright was a male impersonator. He is Mr. Wright and is all-right. The arrival of Sousa and his band made the audience act like overgrown children, and this act which is original with Beach & Bowers' company, surpasses all previous efforts in this direction. The second part of the program was as good as the first and consisted of songs, jokes of a side-splitting nature, and other good specialties among which Gareis Brothers, human springs, easily ranked first. These men are excellent acrobats and made a hit with their speclalty humorous features which greatly amused the audience. J. H. Smith. the manager of the company, is striving to make his show of the kind that ranks first and succeeds admirably in his efforts. They have appeared in Lead several times and the present attraction by far excels that of any of their previous engagements.-Deadwood (South Dakota) Pioneer-Times, This troupe is due here, at the new Astoria, on next Tuesday,

ALWAYS WAS SICK.

When a man says he is always sick, troubled with a cough that lasted all winter-what would you think if he should say-he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists: Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough

JUST BROKE HIS NECK.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.-The mystery surrounding the death of Charles H. Stevenson, the lawyer, whose lifeless body was found at the bottom of an elevator shaft in the rear of Washington street nearly two weeks ago is to remain unsolved, so far as the coroner's jury is concerned. The inquest was resumed yesterday and an open verdict returned.

The causes of death as given by the coroners physician, were a broken neck and hemorrhages of the brain, due to external violences.
