Grand Jury Returns Eleven Indictments.

MORE ARE EXPECTED

They are Charged With Giving Rebates to Prominent Wholesale Merchants.

FUTHER INQUIRY TO BE MADE

The Railroad Companies Were Much Surprised as They Did Not Expect There Was Sufficient Evidence Against Them.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Eleven indictments were handed to Judge Lochran in the United States District court this afternoon, and they cover the charges of giving rebates by certain railroad companies, and receiving rebates from grain firms and individuals. The list of corporations against which indictments were returned, as given out by Assistant District Attorneys Ewart and Dickie, who had charge of the cases, are as follows:

Great Northern Railroad, four indictments and about seventy counts; Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis and Omaha Railway company, one indictment and fifty counts; Wisconsin Central, one indictment and seventeen counts; Minneapolis and St. Louis railway, one indictment and five counts. The indictments against the above companies are on charges of giving rebates. Under the head of receiving rebates the following true bills were returned: W. P. Devereaux Co., McCaul, Dinsmore Company, Minneapolis; Ames Brooks Company, Duluth Milling company. After the bunch of indictments had been given to the court, the jurors were excused for the term. That further and a more searching investigation into the rebate question will be made, is not denied by Ewart, and further revelations are expected at the next sitting of the grand jury.

Perhaps the most surprised people of all were the railroad companies, for none of them expected indictments to be brought against them. Each company has made its best endeavors to disclaim any criminal intention in its relations with the grain companies.

COURT ADJOURNED ONE WEEK

Countess Will Pay All Legitimate Bills Incurred by the Count, but Draws the Line at Bills Not Considered Legitimate.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—The final word today in the Castellane divorce proceedings was Maitre Bonnet's assertion that Count Boni's undying affection for his wife, and that the case be adjourned for two weeks in order to give the Countess an opportunity to reflect on the advisability of a reconciliation. This the court refused to do and adjourned for one week, when the decision will be rendered either ordering an inquiry or granting the divorce.

Today's proceedings were confined largely to tilts between the opposing counsel over charges made yesterday against Edmond Kelly of the counsel for the Countess. Kelly has indignantly denied the charges and makes counter charges that the Count himself hatched up the conspiracy for the purpose of making his wife believe that Kelly had organized a plot to bring about the Count's political destruction. The argument of the creditors' case was opened by Maitre Miller and who claimed the lion's share of the money involved which was owing to tradesmen. It is stated on good authority that this claim will be contested by the Countess' attorneys who are settling all legitimate bills against the Count, but refuse to pay what are considered profligate bills.

LONDON COMMENTS

Newspapers Differ as to Result of Election.

THE VOTE IS ANALYZED

Indicates Popular Revolt Against Bossism, Trusts and Corporations.

CRITICISMS ON ADMINISTRATION

Division of Opinion Whether Election Was a Victory for Roosevelt or an Indication of Popular Revolt Against Trusts.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—All the morning papers publish long editorial articles on the result of the election in New York state. Few of them say anything of the results in other states. With scarcely an exception they comment on the close vote as an indication of the popular discontent with enormous combinations of capital. The Daily Telegraph thinks the moral is that Americans, while "Not quite ready to accept 'Hearstism' in full, are heartily sick of being robbed by trusts and corporations and are prepared to go a considerable way in that direction."

The News believes that with "Wealth, culture and intelligence" against Mr. Hearst, "his strength is one particular portion of the world movement of unrest." The Mail considers the result as an evidence of "growing exasperation against trusts and their tactics," while the Chronicle, in a similar vein, says: "Americans, if they are wise, will read the true moral not in the majority against Mr. Hearst, but in the huge minority for him."

Several newspapers comment on the intervention of President Roosevelt through Secretary Root. The Standard and the Tribune consider the result a serious rebuff for the President, while the Mail says it is an "Unquestionable victory" for him. The Telegraph says the President "will find little cause for self-congratulation" in the result, while the Post says he "turned the scale in a critical moment in what it calls the 'cause of decency.'"

The interview with Richard Croker also is credited with affecting the result and the Chronicle voices the opinion of a majority of the press when it says, "Mr. Murphy has had the best of the deal."
