THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF CLATSOP

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT MISS EMMA WARREN REPORTS THE SYSTEM IN GRATIFYING ORDER THROUGHOUT.

An Astorian reporter dropped in on County School Superintendent Miss Emma Warren, yesterday, to ascertain how matters and things and people in that important department are developing; and was given to understand that the entire system is in flourishing and satisfactory condition.

The teachers of the "West Side," including Seaside, Warrenton, Hammond, Clatsop and Skipanon, including a dozen or more instructors, have formed a "Teachers' Association" for mutual improvement and will hold perhaps half a dozen meetings during the school year.

Among other matters of current interest, Miss Warren exhibited a school report, just at hand, from the Clatsop school, for the month of October and drawn up and filed by one of the bright young people presided over there by Miss Rosa West. The report is beautifully inscribed and carefully compiled and conveys the following information:

"Report of the Clatsop school for month ending October 26, 1906: Number of pupils enrolled, 18; whole number of days' attendance, 300; whole number of days' absence, 7; whole number of times tardy, 2.

"Roll of Honor: Roy Chambers, Frank Waterhouse, Verna Tagg, Lystra Tagg, Elvia Tagg, Pauline Jorgensen, Seymour Dawson, Bertha Jorgensen.

"A literary society was organized by the school Friday, October 26. The society is to meet the last Friday of every school month, between the hours of 2:30 and 3:30 p. m. The officers elected were: Frank Waterhouse, president; Carolyn Waterhouse, vice president; Elvia Tagg, secretary; Omar Chambers, marshal; Verna Tagg, critic, and Marie Jorgensen, reporter.

"The school was favored last Wednesday with a visit from the county superintendent, Miss Emma Warren."

Pilot Commission—The Oregon Pilot commission yesterday convened in regular session for the month of November at the office of Commissioner Geo. Nolan in this city, at which time and place there were present President A. V. Pendleton and Commissioners Sylvester Farrell and George Nolan, with Secretary Bert Ross in charge of the records. The current bills of the commission were duly audited and paid by a warrant. Captain H. W. Matthews, of the bar pilots, was granted a new license; Captain C. S. Gunderson, of the same service, had his license renewed; Captain Grove, of the river pilot service, was granted another branch, and the license of Captain Harry Empkins was granted a new river license.

Grand Opera—At the Star the Nellie Andrews Company of Grand Opera Vocalists were enthusiastically received last evening in "The Bohemian Girl," and responded to several curtain calls. This is the greatest singing act that has been heard in Astoria. Music lovers will find it a rare treat to hear them. The singers are Miss Andrews, Henri Gunson, William Gordon with Chas. Hazelrigg, pianist. Besides this excellent company there are some specialty acts of merit, illustrated songs and comedy moving pictures. The programme is A-1 and well worth seeing. Manager Gevurtz left yesterday on a business trip. During his absence L. E. Selig will have the management of the Star.

The Cat Came Back—Captain Griggs Inspector of Construction of the Light House District, is the owner of a pet cat to which he was very much attached. The cat was on the Heather and yesterday it fell from the upper deck to the lower, dislocating its forward leg. Some of the crew wanted to "bury it at sea," but Capt. Griggs objected. He gathered the cat up in a basket and brought it to Dr. Ed. Llewellyn, who is an experienced cat surgeon. Dr. Llewellyn set the broken leg, bandaged it up and it will soon be as good a cat as ever. The captain thanked the doctor and went on his way rejoicing.

The Ladies of St. Mary's Church will hold their fair on the 15th, 16th and 17th of this month. All the established features that lend interest will be in evidence, as well as many novelties. Excellent meals will be served at noon and in the evening. A special program at night.

Any thin or undeveloped girl or woman will be benefited by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It is one of the greatest known remedies for making people strong, healthy and well. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. For sale by Frank Hart.

Estate Matters—Judge Trenchard, sitting for probate, yesterday made the following orders: In the matter of the estate of Emil Balmer, deceased; Fred Balmer was appointed administrator, under bonds of $1,000, and C. F. Wise, J. J. Kinney and C. Wesche were named as appraisers. In the matter of the estate of Peter Nufer, deceased, that the administratrix sell the following realty belonging to said estate: Lot 27, block 30, Hill's First Addition to Astoria; and the south 1/2 of lot 5 (block 33, Upper Astoria.

Off for Wallowa—State Fish Warden H. G. Van Dusen departed on last evening's express, for Wallowa and Ontario, to investigate the progress and conditions of the state's hatcheries and fish racks at those points. He is anxious about the results of the recent heavy rains in those localities, and especially for the safety of the big 150-foot dam, 14 feet high, now under construction at Wallowa.

We Are Busy and selling great quantities of goods, but there are lots of fine goods left yet, and we are selling the same at one-half and in many instances at less than one-fourth of the original cost. Come now, don't wait. C. H. Cooper's Great Retiring Sale. 11-1-11

Dam in Danger—Birch & Jacobson received a telegram from Martin Foard at Bucoda, Wash., requesting them to send a competent foreman and three good men immediately to Bucoda, stating that owing to the severe rains there is danger of the dam being carried away. Mr. Jacobson and three men left for there yesterday.

Traps Quit Fishing—Parties from Chinook yesterday state that nearly all the fish traps on the Washington side have been taken out of the water, and the fall fishing is practically ended. The season was far above the average, and the price paid the highest known on the Columbia river.

Streets Flooded—Residents of Upper Astoria in the vicinity of 37th street, reported to Superintendent of Streets Kearney yesterday, that the streets were flooded in that vicinity and unless some steps were taken to stop it, the water pipes would be undermined and break.

Police Court—Owing to the inclemency of the weather, it was low water slack at the police court. One poor unfortunate who was pinched for being drunk was fined $5 or two days in jail. He will wait in jail until the weather moderates. One banker was fined $25 for dealing faro.

Mayor Wise Accepts—Hon. Herman Wise will file his acceptance today of both the Republican and Democratic nominations for mayor. The complimentary vote cast for him by the Republicans makes it imperative to accept that nomination, as not to do so, would be treating his many Republican friends with discourtesy.

Hiram Gray Missing—Word was received in this city yesterday, that Hiram Gray, an old resident and pioneer of Clatsop county, was missing and it was feared he was drowned. He was in Astoria Monday and left for his home at Hammond on the evening train. The accident is supposed to have happened at Flavel last Monday night, and it is stated that Mr. Gray was trying to keep a drunken Jap from falling overboard who was leaning against the rail, and the rail broke, throwing both into the river. Search was made for him all day yesterday, but up to a late hour last night no trace of him could be found. Mr. Gray was about 75 years of age and has resided in Clatsop county for over thirty years. He formerly resided at Skipanon and after his house burned down four years ago he moved to Hammond. He was a warehouse watchman for the Old Oregon mills.

Pipe Line—Nearly one hundred trees have been blown down along the pipe line road during the recent storm, fifteen of which fell across the water mains, but did no damage. Assistant Superintendent Johnson went out yesterday and cut the trees out of the road and it is now open for travel. Trees fell across the telephone line which cannot be repaired until the storm abates.

Registration—The registration books for the city election will be opened next Friday at the office of the city auditor and remain open until December 7. Those who have not already registered must go so if they desire to vote at the city election.

Warrants Called—City Treasurer Thomas Dealey yesterday issued a call for warrants amounting to $1,200, drawn on the special street fund for the improvement of Alameda avenue.

Is Going Fast—Better place your order for coal while there is plenty, for it won't last long at the present rate. Good coal is extremely hard to get and prices are climbing. Phone 1961, S. Elmore & Co., corner Ninth and Commercial. Our price now $7.50 per ton on the wharf. 11-9-11

Commercial Saloon—This popular place, situated at 509 Commercial street, is up-to-date in every particular. The choicest of wines and all kinds of liquors can be procured here. Best quality cigars. Billiard table in connection. If you can't come in person, call up Phone 1231 Main. 11

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mattson of Clatskanie, was among the arrivals in the city yesterday. Thos. Guinian of Portland is visiting friends in the city. Chas. Bester of Seaside was in the city yesterday. L. W. Ames of Chicago was an arrival on the noon train yesterday. A. McDonald of Ilwaco registered at the Astor Hotel. Jacob Wilson, a prominent farmer of Skamokawa, was in the city yesterday on business. W. B. Farley of San Francisco was among the arrivals in the city yesterday. A. L. Foster of Albany was a visitor in the city yesterday. Henry Fowler of Gray's River was in the city yesterday on business.

CHIEF GAMMAL ON THE SCENE.

An unusually large crowd of people had collected on 15th and Commercial streets, election day and from the exciting talk and gesticulations it was thought that there would be trouble. Chief Gammal appeared on the scene and found the two disputants to be a Democrat and a Republican arguing as to whether Governor Chamberlain wore Brownsville Woolen Mills store's clothes or not. For further particulars call at the store on 684 Commercial street.

Break in Water Mains—Another break occurred in the Uniontown water mains yesterday, caused by sliding land. Temporary repairs were made and will probably be completed today, but it is impossible to place them in a substantial shape until some steps are taken to prevent the land from sliding.

LADIES.

A sale on ready-to-wear and dress hats. They will please you for style and our prices will be cut to suit you. If our windows do not reveal just what you are after, step inside and you'll find it. Mrs. M. Peterson, Star Theatre Building.
