Do You feel sleepy and not a bit like working in the afternoon? Perhaps it's because of the kind of lunch you're eating—too heavy an dtoo hard to digest. Why not try the Palace restaurant on Commercial street, where all the baking is done in those famous slow-process ovens, which turn out light appetizing, wholesome things! You'll save money, too.

ANOTHER FLOOD RAGING.

We thought that last week would end the floods for a while, but we were mistaken.

At 7:30 this morning, when we opened our doors, another flood of customers poured into our store—people anxious to get their share of the great woolen goods bargains now being offered by this store.

This is the last week, so you had better hurry.

Mr. Weather says: "Buy a Rain-coat—you need one." We'll show you a bigger and better line than you ever saw in Astoria before, and save you from $2.50 to $10.00 on the price.

For further particulars see our ad on page 8. Brownsville Woolen Mill Store.

Westport Mill—It is reported that the Westport mill will soon change hands. A gentleman from the east who owns a large tract of timber back of Westport is the reputed purchaser.

Filed Acceptance—W. F. McGregor, who received the Republican nomination for precinct committeeman from precinct No. 6 at the primary election, filed his acceptance yesterday with the city auditor.

Street Improvement—The contractors who were awarded the contract for improving Commercial street from Ninth to Fourteenth street, commenced laying plank yesterday. They expect to have the street completed this month, laying one side at a time, so as not to interfere with traffic.

Pauper Dies—John Dillard, who has been a pauper on the county for several years, died yesterday morning at St. Mary's hospital. Nothing is known of his antecedents, or whether he has any relatives. He will be buried today in the pauper's field.

Mr. Snow, an experienced tailor and cutter, representing Messrs. Straus Bros., Master Tailors, Chicago, will show his immense line of cloths at C. H. Cooper's store on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, November 21, 22 and 23. Don't miss this display. Orders taken for suits, overcoats and other garments. Fit and satisfaction guaranteed.

Police Court—Yesterday was a busy day in the police court, the dock being full of drunks and disorderly persons. John Berring was accused of being drunk and admitting the soft impeachment, he was fined $10. He went below for five days. Tony Neglin, D. Johnson, J. McGowan, and S. Simonson, forfeited $5 bail each. Fred Beal was charged with being drunk and was mulcted in the sum of $5. C. Nickonen, a deaf mute, read the charge of being drunk from the complaint, and wrote on a slip of paper and handed it to the judge, the one word, "guilty." He also stated that he had urgent business in Portland and was very anxious to leave on the first boat. The court took this into consideration and fined him $5, with the alternative of leaving the city. John Tanning was accused of being an idle and dissolute person, having no visible means of support, to which charge he pleaded guilty and was fined $50 or 30 days in jail, but was paroled on condition that he leave the city. The most important case was that of Florence Gordon, arrested upon a charge of vagrancy. The evidence on the part of the prosecution disclosed the fact that she was in the habit of robbing men after inveigling them into her den, and was a notoriously bad character. She appeared by attorneys and after taking the evidence on the part of the city, the case was continued until this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Dead in Denver—On Saturday afternoon last, as Hon. Harrison Allen was pursuing his duties as district attorney, in circuit court, at Oregon City, a Western Union messenger handed him a dispatch from Denver, announcing the death of his brother, James L. Allen, city clerk of the Colorado metropolis, and well known in Astoria, where he visited with his wife in the summer of 1905. He was 35 years of age and leaves a widow but no children, and was ill but for a few weeks, succumbing to some malady of the blood that resisted the best skill brought to bear upon it. The many Astoria friends of both gentlemen will sincerely sympathize with Mr. Harrison Allen in his bereavement.

Thomas Peterson—Thomas Peterson died yesterday morning at his residence on Young's Bay, after an illness of about one week. Mr. Peterson was born in Germany, November 28, 1829 and was in his 88th year. He arrived in Astoria in 1858 and built the Traveler's Rest, on Young's Bay, a short time after, where he resided to the day of his death. He leaves five sons and two daughters, one son, Thomas J. Peterson, conducts a cigar store on Commercial street, residing in Astoria. The other children reside in Kansas and Alaska. Mr. Peterson was well and favorably known in Astoria and left a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Will Operate Mill—Judge Trenchard stated yesterday, that arrangements would be made to operate the county saw mill, now located near Jewell, this winter, to saw out timber for several bridges in the Nehalem valley. As soon as the lumber is sawed, the county court will sell the mill and invest the money in a rock crusher, which will be located near Jewell, and put at work turning out rock for the improvement of the Nehalem road from Jewell to the junction. It is expected that the mill will be started up about the first of January.

Contest Election—J. W. Kleeb, Republican candidate for state senator from Wahkiakum and Pacific counties, will contest the election of H. S. McGowan, Democrat, who was elected in the district by 24 majority, and has served notice that he will contest the election and ask for a recount. The qualification of all members of the legislature is decided by the legislative assembly, and if a recount is had, it will have to be reported to the state senate of Washington when it convenes in January.

Repairing Slides—Fredrickson Bros. have a force of men at work repairing the slides in the vicinity of Twenty-ninth street. Five houses were vacated by the occupants during the recent storm and all but one of them will be watched closely, and if there are no further slides, a new foundation will be built under them. The residence of Mr. Sattum will be moved on the back part of the lot where there is no danger from slides.

Navigation Dangerous—The mosquito fleet of Astoria is unable to navigate the waters of the lower Columbia on account of the immense amount of driftwood and logs in the river. Most of the drift is from the Cowlitz flood and has been a serious menace to navigation for several days.

Early Spring—Old settlers in Astoria predict an early spring. Their prediction is based upon the long established theory, that when there is an excessive rainfall in November and December, there has always been an early spring. There are about 15,000 people in Astoria who sincerely hope that their predictions will be verified.

Star Theater—The Margaret Fisher company opened last night at the Star theater to one of the largest audiences that has ever been in the house since it was opened. The company presented the "Great Blue Grass Derby," one of the best plays that has even been staged, and the company did justice to it. Mrs. Fisher won the hearts of the audience from her first appearance on the stage and is certainly a very clever actress. The company is evenly balanced and the support was far superior to the general run of companies. The play is replete with sensational developments, with sufficient humor to make it interesting, and the audience was well pleased with the entertainment. The company have always been popular favorites in Astoria and have improved since their last appearance in the city. The same play will be presented tonight and tomorrow night, and is assured of crowded houses during the entire week.

Swinging Right Along—The new meat house of J. J. Carlin & Company, at No. 108 Eleventh street, is swinging right along and making new friends and patrons every day. They have had some trouble about their telephone number, but that is all fixed now and a call over "3901 Main" gets you just the meat you want and at just the right price. This matter of price is what they bank on and they have banked considerable, by the way. Don't forget their number.

Sale Under Judgment—By virtue of an order of sale under execution, Sheriff M. R. Pomeroy yesterday sold at the court house door, 141.85 acres of land in Section 1, T. 5 N., R. 11 W. and lot 15 in block 10, Elk Creek Beach, to The Eastern Investment Company, Limited, a Portland concern, to satisfy the claim and judgment of C. W. Fulton against George Bartley, for the sum of $309.31, the face of the judgment and accrued costs. The purchasing company was the assignee of Mr. Fulton.

Almost a Stampede—The rush at Simmington's big cloak and suit house yesterday amounted to a practical stampede. The great store was literally jammed with ladies after the extraordinary bargains in suits, cloaks and furs, and in view of its reputation today the Messrs. Simmington have made even ampler arrangements for the reception of the crowds. It is said to be so thoroughly genuine and complete that the shrewdest of Astoria's clever bargainners were amazed, as well as delighted.

Among the Estates—Sitting for probate business yesterday, Judge Trenchard made an order allowing and approving the final account of S. J. Hubbard, as administrator of the estate of John Carlson, deceased, and directing the distribution of a cash balance of $344 among the several heirs. He made a similar order in the estate of Charles Williams, approving the final account of the executor, John Tyberg, closing the estate and discharging said executor.

Back from Wallula—H. G. Van Dusen, state fish warden, has returned from his trip to the Wallula hatchery and reports that the big unfinished dam is still intact, though the river is flooding over it at a depth of four feet. He feels certain it will stand all assaults made upon it, and prove a rich source of supply in due season.

Immense Interest—The stranded ships on Clatsop beach, the Peter Iredale and the Galena are still objects of great interest to everybody who can get down to see them, and last Sunday there were hundreds of people on the beach, many of them from Portland, viewing the helpless, yet handsome derelicts.

Sold Timber Land—E. Z. Ferguson, acting as agent for the owners, yesterday conveyed the title to 3,000 acres of timber land in the Nehalem valley, near the Milburn townsite, close to the David Tweddle place, to E. M. Snow of Seattle. The purchase price was from $15 to $1 San acre.

Put Under Restraint—An order was made yesterday committing a young girl by the name of Esther Nelson to the Boys and Girls' Aid Society at Portland, and she will be dispatched there this morning. Parental neglect is the cause upon which official action was taken.

Now of Astoria—A young man by the name of William D. Smith has joined the clerical force of the Fisher Brothers company and has been assigned to the hardware department. Mr. Smith will make his future home in Astoria.

Still They Come—A fine baby girl has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Chisolm at No. 235 Eighteenth street. She made her appearance at 10:30 o'clock a. m. yesterday. Dr. O. B. Estes officiating.

Dog Pound—No action was taken last night by the common council relative to the removal of the dog pound from its present location. The committee have endeavored to find a suitable place for the pound, but the same objection is raised in every part of the city to its being located in their particular locality. It is very probable the pound will remain where it is, until such a time as one can be provided outside the city limits. In some sequestered spot where moth and rust doth not corrupt, nor thieves break through and steal.

Citizens' Convention—The citizens' convention will meet tonight at the city hall for the purpose of making nominations for mayor, two councilmen from the first and one from the third wards, and a city attorney. It is probable that Mayor Wise will be endorsed and also Councilmen Lebeck and Hansen from the first ward and Axel Jacobson from the third ward. No name has been suggested for city attorney, but it is certain that some one will be nominated for the position.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Emily Thatcher, of Salem, is in the city on a visit of a few days with her sister, Mrs. John Ryan, on Ninth street. She was accompanied hither by Mr. Alec Moir of the Capital City, and now en route to California on a visit for the winter.

A. Gray of Skamokawa was in the city yesterday.

Ed. Anderson, a prominent logger from Chinook, is in the city on business.

Elias Reas of Tacoma is a guest at the Astor.

E. W. Wright, marine reporter of the Oregonian, was in the city yesterday.

R. H. Sale of Onetda was in the city yesterday.

George Hibbert of the Clinoak Observer, was in the city yesterday.

C. M. Celler returned last evening from a business trip to Portland.

Andrew Berg, who has been in charge of the Sand Island lighthouse, was in the city last evening.

J. J. Bugger of Skamokawa was among the arrivals in the city yesterday.

Marshall Morgan of Westport was in the city yesterday.

S. H. Johnston and wife of Young's River, are in the city.

Mrs. L. S. McClellan of Tillamook, registered at the Irving yesterday.

CARD OF THANKS.

I will thank the people of Astoria and vicinity for the kind attention shown to my sister during her illness and death, and for the many beautiful flowers that were given as a last remembrance. Sincerely yours, CHARLES OSTLING.
