Look It Up!—There is a fine property advertised for sale on the fifth page of this issue of the Astorian. Look up the ad., then look up the property and be sure to look up the agent!

Commercial Saloon!—This popular place, situated at 509 Commercial street, is up-to-date in every particular. The choicest of wines and all kinds of liquors can be procured here. Best quality cigars. Billiard table in connection. If you can't come in person, call up Phone 1231 Main. 1f Leave for Finland!—Dr. J. Hagelstam who has been located in Astoria for several months, will leave tomorrow for his former home in Finland, where he has accepted a position as head physician in the Helsingfors hospital. The doctor has made many friends during his brief stay in this city who will wish him prosperity in his new field of labor.

Do You feel sleepy and not a bit like working in the afternoon? Perhaps it's because of the kind of lunch you're eating—too heavy an dtoo hard to digest. Why not try the Palace restaurant on Commercial street, where all the baking is done in those famous slow-process ovens, which turn out light appetizing, wholesome things? You'll save money, too.

Ordinance Approved!—Yesterday afternoon Mayor Wise affixed his signature to the ordinance to pay the contractors for the improvement of Bond street to the McCure line, all the property owners having signed an acceptance of the street.

Fall Down Stairs!—Al Barnum met with quite a serious accident Thanksgiving Day, falling down a flight of stairs, striking on his head and receiving several small cuts on his skull and face. A physician was summoned, the wounds dressed and he will be able to be out again in a day or two.

Body Found!—The body of the late William Lunden, who was drowned last Thursday in the vicinity of Blind Slough, was found in the river yesterday near Tongue Point, and was brought to the old Occident cannery. Coroner Pohl was notified and he took charge of the remains. He states that no inquest will be held, as he deems the same unnecessary. The funeral will probably take place Sunday.

Registration!—Ten persons availed themselves of the opportunity of registering yesterday, six being from precinct No. 6 and four from precinct 5. The registration books will close next Friday at 4 o'clock p. m., instead of Saturday, as stated in yesterday's Astorian. Auditor Anderson will keep his office open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights of next week to accommodate those who cannot register in the day time.

New Winter Book!—The Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Company yesterday issued its new "Winter Booklet," a handsome and interesting pamphlet, full of descriptive text and half-tones, illustrating the beauties and advantages of the road. It is a conspicuous addition to the company's literature, and will be appreciated by all who scan it.

Police Court!—The effects of Thanksgiving celebration was manifest in the police court yesterday, the prisoners' dock being filled with a number of booze fighters. Jas. Baker admitted that he had drank one too many Tom and Jerry's and was sent below for two days. John Morris who has been a frequent visitor at the city bastille, was accused by the city attorney of being drunk. As usual, he denied the allegation and defied Officer Coffman, the "alligator." He said the wind had changed from the east to sou'west, and it always had a deleterious effect on his mental faculties. The same story had been repeated so often that Judge Anderson fined him $5, and, in addition, he was ordered to serve out the sentence of five days given him when he was up before, and for which he had been paroled. It is to be hoped that the weather will moderate before he serves his term out. J. Pentilla left $5 out of his week's earnings for his appearance, but failing to respond to roll call, the V was appropriated to the police fund. Frank Stone, with five years' growth of alfalfa, with a face on him like the map of Sebastopol, admitted that he had been drunk and was sent to Gammal's home for lost souls for two days. Charles Hill was arrested for smoking opium and appeared by F. D. Winton, his attorney. The arrest was made by Officer Linnville, who swore that when he entered the opium joint on Astor street, the room was filled with smoke, and it wasn't tobacco smoke, either. He found Hill with an opium pipe in one hand, and he had just placed the balance of the paraphernalia including a box containing eng shee under the bed, but Tom has an eye like an eagle and he discovered the trick. He immediately arrested Hill and a young lady upon whom he was calling named Ella Cummings. After hearing the evidence, Judge Anderson found the defendant guilty and fined him $15. A charge of frequenting an opium den was preferred against Ella Cummings and the case was continued until next Monday. She even wept when the complaint was read to her.

Waldorf Entertainment!—The Waldorf management has put on another rich and amusing string of films, in which the vagaries and fate of the "cheeky traveler" divides honors with the "happy sleighride," this latter revealing all the elements of fun liable to such an event, and recalling the days and pleasures of old to many a person who views the laughable pictures to the end. The display is one of the best put on there this season and is drawing crowds nightly. But among the leading elements of enjoyment billed there are the delightful soprano solos of Miss Violet Parker, an accomplished artist, whose piece de resistance just now is "Just Plain Folks," and this amplified nightly by a number of dainty encore songs, all of which contribute to her popularity and the pleasure of the evening to the visitor.

Returned Home!—Hon. James W. Welch and wife returned home yesterday from a two months' visit to the east. Mr. Welch was sent as a representative of the Odd Fellows of Oregon to represent that organization in the supreme lodge at Toronto. Mr. Welch stated that they enjoyed the trip, being the first time that either he or his wife had ever visited in the east. When informed that business was dull in Astoria, he replied that he had visited many eastern cities where it was more dull than here. Both Mr. Welch and his wife enjoyed excellent health on their trip and were glad to arrive home again. He says there are lots of places on earth besides Astoria, but that Astoria is home and they are both glad to be back here once more.

Assumes Management!—Edw. C. Judd, formerly of Seaside, where he was interested in the store of F. Dresser & Co., and who has recently purchased the Brownsville Woolen Mills store on Commercial street, arrived in the city yesterday and was busy all day taking stock. He will assume active management of the business today. Mr. Judd is an affable gentleman, an attorney by profession, but thoroughly posted in the mercantile business, and will no doubt make a success of his new venture.

Louvre Robbed!—While the bartender was enjoying a quiet snooze behind the stove, being overcome by eating too much turkey, some miscreant, without the fear of Chief Gammal in his heart, touched the cash register and relieved it of $65.80, all there was in it, except a tab against him for drunks, which he left. While no one has been arrested, the officers have a good clue to the thief and he will no doubt be apprehended in a few days, if he is still in the city.

Coal Arrives!—Just in the nick of time, the Astoria Electric Company received two carloads of coal yesterday and two more cars are expected to arrive Monday. The coal bin was getting very low and the gas supply had to be curtailed, so that a number of families have been without gas the past week. The shortage is remedied now and it is expected an abundant supply will be furnished for all purposes.

Licensed and Wedded!—Yesterday, County Clerk Clinton issued a marriage license in favor of Mr. John C. Pratt of Marion county, Oregon, and Mrs. Harriet Clark, of this county; an hour or two later, County Judge Trenchards tried the nuptial knot for the happy pair, at his Ninth street office.

Last, but Not Least!—The good people of the First Presbyterian church are going to hold a big fair and sale of dainty and useful articles in the store room of the Reed building corner of Eleventh and Duane streets, on Saturday, December the 8th. Bear this in mind!

Property Changes Hands!—Among the numerous documents filed for record at the county clerk's office yesterday, was a deed from G. A. Marisch, and wife, to William Pitkanen, conveying by warranty title, the north 50 feet of lots Nos. 10 and 11, in block 2, of Shively's Astoria.

Leaves for Portland!—Sheriff Pomeroy will send a deputy to Portland this morning to investigate the men arrested there by Sheriff Stevens, in connection with the John D. Miller murder case. The deputy has all the requisite data to recognize the men, if they are the guilty parties.

On a Pleasure Trip!—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Willis, of Portland, made a Thanksgiving trip to Astoria and Fort Stevens, and are guests of Capt. and Mrs. Percy Willis, at that post. The gentlemen are brothers, and the meeting is thoroughly enjoyed by all concerned.

More Levies Made!—County Clerk Clinton was appraised yesterday of the following formal levies: Road district No. 6, Tucker Creek, 10 mills, on a valuation of $262,505; and School District No. 24, Elsie, 5 mills on a valuation of $144,756.

In Probate Court!—Judge Trenchard, sitting for probate matters, yesterday, made an order in the matter of the estate of Antone Anderson, directing the administrator to sell the personal property thereof, at private sale, and report in due course.

Morning Astorian, 60 cents per month, delivered by carrier.

Trial by Jury!—The largest and most enthusiastic audience ever assembled in the Star theater greeted the "Trial by Jury" operetta last night. To say that the audience enjoyed the entertainment and that it was well presented would be superfluous. To enumerate the different characters or eulogize any one of them, would be to include each and every one that participated. Sufficient to say, it was one of the best and most ably presented entertainments ever given by local talent in Astoria. So well did each one take their respective roles that to a stranger it would be difficult to distinguish them from professionals. The Trial by Jury will be repeated again tonight and those who did not witness it last night should avail themselves of the opportunity. It is deservedly worthy of special mention and should receive the patronage of the amusement loving public.

Will Remain in Firm!—Alfred R. Johnson, with Johnson Bros., prominent grocers, on Twelfth street, has decided to retain an interest in the new firm of Scholfield & Mattson, and will remain with them. This will be pleasing news to the many friends of Mr. Johnson, through whose efforts was due the pronounced success of the old firm of Johnson Bros. The new firm starts out with a most substantial business and liberal patronage, which no doubt will be continued to the new firm, if merit and square dealing is a criterion.

Road Cleared!—Roadmaster Frye had a force of men engaged yesterday in clearing the dirt from the road leading to the Tongue Point mill and expects to have the road free and in condition for permanent travel today.

Improvements!—The Astoria Electric Company has received a constant current transformer and switchboard for the street lighting system, which will be installed by the first of the year. The street railway circuit will then be discontinued after 11 o'clock at night until after the arrival of the new motor generator, which will be shipped on December 5.
