

SLOANE MURDER TRIAL.

Indications That It Will Drag Along for Two Weeks.

SPOKANE, Dec. 1.—The defense in the Sloane murder case spent practically the whole morning in attempting to bring out the fact that the deceased was insane. In spite of the objections of the prosecution and an adverse ruling of the court, it brought out the fact that in conversation with W. J. Carpenter, a local photographer, the deceased said his sister was at the insane asylum. It is believed that the defense will reach expert testimony by Monday, but the trial of the case will probably continue two weeks longer.

Sidney Sloane shows no effects of the trial and is as unconcerned as ever. The mother, however, shows every effect of the terrible strain and may break down completely.

The defense also brought out that the defendant was appointed commissary general of a boys' army for the reason that he could supply other boys with provisions stolen from the store; that he once stole a $20 gold piece from the cash register, drank a quart of champagne at one time in the store, and at one time broke out several slats in a partition in the wine cellar because he could not immediately open the door, at the risk of breaking a number of bottles of liquor.

PRESIDENT OF SENATE.

Whealdon of Wasco a Prominent Candidate.

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—Well-defined rumors of a coalition between Dan J. Malarky and Nathan Whealdon, are the latest, ament the fight for president of the Senate. The story is that Whealdon who, until a few weeks ago, was supposed to be for Haines, of Washington county, has served notice on that senator that they have come to a parting of the ways, and that he is now out for the big plum on his own hook.

Whealdon has been looked upon for some time as a candidate. It was even almost admitted by the senator himself, that he was a tentative and contingent candidate—something on the order of the Barkis of Dickens. But events of recent date all go to confirm the story that the senator from Wasco is very much in the game.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Alban's, West Virginia, when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment, but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by Chas. Rogers' drug store. Price 50c.

BOYCOTT BUTCHERS

Continuation of Women's Strike Against Butchers.

BUTCHERS ARE ORGANIZED

Many Meat Markets Close Their Doors Because They Cannot Reduce the Prices on Account of the Packers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The strike of the women of the East Side tenements against the butchers, because they increased the price of meat, has extended to Harlem. It was determined at a large meeting of women held in Harlem last night, to boycott the butchers absolutely until the prices of meats are lowered.

The Harlem butchers also organized last night to combat the boycott and declared they would join their brethren of the lower East Side in closing their shops rather than face the possibility of having their places of business wrecked. Like the butchers down town, they declared the increased cost of meat was not because the packers had raised prices. The women at their meeting adopted resolutions not to buy any more meat until the price is lowered.

Meanwhile fish will take the place of meat in thousands of families. Several little skirmishes occurred yesterday, but most of the butchers on the East Side twitted their patrons by telling them that they intended to stand by their customers and fight the wholesalers.

HENRY M'GINN FINED.

Ordered to Pay $150 for Insulting Judge.

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—For his alleged insulting language addressed to Presiding Judge Sears of the Circuit Court, last Monday, Attorney Henry E. McGinn today was ordered to pay a fine of $150.

This was the outcome of the hearing this morning wherein Mr. McGinn was cited to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court. The charge and the language used by Mr. McGinn, when he appeared in court and Judge Sears refused to recognize him, were indirect results of the recent investigation of the grand jury of the alleged libelous cartoon published in the Oregonian some time ago. Mr. McGinn objected to the relations between that jury and District Attorney Manning and Attorney C. E. S. Wood, in the role of assistant district attorney. He appeared in the juryroom against the will of the district attorney.

Mr. McGinn was in the courtroom this morning, but he personally took no part in the procedure. He was represented by Judge M. C. George. Mr. Manning was also present.

The courtroom was crowded, every seat and every available bit of standing room being taken by the throng of attorneys and citizens who came to the courthouse expecting to witness sensational developments.

The result of the hearing was different from what had been expected. When Judge Frazer, speaking for the court, announced the imposition of a fine for $150 for the offense charged against Mr. McGinn, Judge George gave notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court from the ruling of the Circuit Court, and the appeal was allowed.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stichel, of Miletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns, and Injuries. 25c at Chas. Rogers' druggist.
