MR. SCHOLFIELD AND HIS MEASURES

CLATSOP SENATOR'S BILLS IN BEHALF OF OREGON FISHERIES WERE PROPERLY AND COURTEOUSLY RECEIVED.

Water Bailiff Settem who returned from the capital on Friday night, in conversation with a reporter for the Astorian, said yesterday that the reports sent out from Salem by the Portland press agents about the four fishery bills reported by the Senate fisheries committee, did an injustice to the Clatsop senator, W. T. Scholfield, their author.

The tone of the Portland report would lead anyone unfamiliar with the real facts of their reception in the Senate to think that the bills were riddled with criticism and practically negated by the Senate, whereas, they were all four treated with courteous and adequate consideration in the upper house.

Mr. Settem says that Bill No. 53 providing for the establishment of hatcheries and defining the duties of the state warden, was reported unfavorably, as the committee was in doubt whether it did not in some particulars conflict with the game laws of the state, and was re-committed for revision, if any was determined to be necessary.

Bill No. 54 was not wholly agreed upon in committee and will go back for more extended review at the hands of the committee. This is the bill providing for deputy wardens for Eastern and Southern Oregon.

Bill No. 55, providing for the erection and maintenance of a fishway at the Willamette Falls, was reported favorably, and Bill No. 56, prohibiting non-citizens from the Sacramento river entering this territory for gill-netting purposes, was sent to the judiciary committee to be amended so as to conform more strictly with the citizenship phases of the Oregon code.

At no time, nor in any manner, was the work of the Clatsop senator treated with disrespect nor indifference, the whole batch of bills taking the most orderly course prescribed by the rules and with quiet dispatch and all propriety.

RIIS' LECTURE.

Held Complete Sway Over the Big Audience Last Night.

Jacob Riis, who came to Astoria at the instance of the Young Men's League, last night alternately wrung the hearts of his hearers with sympathy—that healthy human pain—and brought forth the relief giving laugh at homely or pathetic humor. His countenance full of good will and cheer and his masterful, brisk carriage, at once inspired one with a great respect and confidence. His is a soul inspired by and giving out the spirit of optimism. He said in closing: "This is God's world and not the devil's; and it can't help but grow better, and that is what optimism means." In introducing the subject of his lecture, he spoke of President Roosevelt, his intimate friend for years, portraying in glowing and convincing manner the full confidence and trust which his friend had won from him in many a battle for the uplifting of our brother man.

The lecture was illustrated by numerous pictures taken in those districts of New York in which Mr. Riis' greatest work originated and which spoke more eloquently than words of the unalterable conditions in human life which have reached the worst stage in the metropolis of our country, and other pictures showing the moving of mountains, which men like Mr. Riis have accomplished in the transformation of those quarters into gardens of beauty and practical utility for the betterment of the thousands and millions in that city alone, who are counted among our citizens.

Mr. Riis brought forth in well connected emphasis the unity of the whole country and the ideal universal love—in preface to his presentation of tenement work, recalling with evident pleasure the triumphs that have been wrought in these "baby slaughter houses." A houseful of enthusiastic people shook hands with the noted philanthropist. The Norwegian Singing society contributed two numbers.

Injured at Mill—Tom Jacobs, a laborer at the Clatsop mills, fell off a pile of lumber and sustained severe injuries yesterday afternoon. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where it was found that his spinal column had been badly hurt and several ribs broken.

THINGS ARE PROGRESSING.

Contractor Lebeck Keeping His Gang Hard At It.

Yesterday morning Contractor L. Lebeck returned, with his force of eight men, from Fort Canby, where he had been with a large load of guns and cartridges for that post, and which were duly landed there.

Tomorrow morning he will start his entire force upon the work of driving approximately 1,000 piles for the foundation of the Warren Packing Company's new cold-storage plant, next to the Lindenberg establishment on the Astoria water-front.

Birch & Jacobson's force of ten men are back from Bueda and have plenty of work, in fact 100 days of it, directly ahead of them, and all other contractors are equally as busy all about the city.

ASTORIANS IN TOLEDO.

Opening up of Big Plant There by Men of This City.

The Fir and Spruce Lumber Company is the style and title of the new lumbering concern, owned and financed in part by Messrs. Foard & Stokes, of this city, at Toledo, Oregon.

Frank Stokes, whose busy hand and mind have been engaged on the launching of this new enterprise for some time past, has returned to Portland.

Frank J. Gottrell, formerly with the Alaska Packers' Association, at their San Francisco office, has accepted a fine position with the new Toledo house and will assume his duties very shortly. Mr. Gottrell was a business visitor in this city yesterday, a guest of Mr. Martin Foard.

LOOKING FOR TROUBLE.

Gentleman of Elevated Spirits Resents Presence of Policeman.

Levi Johnson was in a warlike mood Friday evening, having over-indulged in the matter of liquid refreshments. He met Police Sergeant Twombly on the street and decided that the presence of uniformed officers of the law on the street cast a slur and a suspicion of wrong doing upon the community which it was his duty to avenge, and started to do so. His intentions were good, but his judgment was poor, for Sergeant Twombly, though small, was sober and industrious, and soon had his assailant on his back. He had hardly done so when Policeman Linville came around a nearby corner and seeing the conflict advanced with club drawn. What saved Twombly's head, which was the nearest, is not reported, but it is recorded that Johnson was haled to the city jail in short order. He had forgotten about the incident yesterday afternoon, when he was brought before Police Judge Anderson. As no charge but drunkenness was filed against him, he was fined but two dollars, or one day in jail.

The Passing Hour—The man who delights in splendid singing must not fail to hear Tony Stanford sing "In the Valley of Old Kentucky" at the Waldorf concert hall these evenings. It is one of the real treats of the season and is thoroughly appreciated by everyone. This fine feature is amplified by the best of the winter's production on the Kinnetograph, the new films being wonderfully clear and realistic, showing the odd and laughable vagaries of a young couple learning to skate, than which nothing funnier has been seen this season, and even this is outdone by the wonders and beauties of Niagara Falls revealed from every point of vantage from the quiet sweep of river above the crest of the precipice to the turbulent depths below, where the steamer "Maid of the Mist," makes her dangerous and thrilling trips.

Died of Consumption—Carl Mildaas, son of Olof Mildaas, of Uniontown, died yesterday morning. The deceased was a native of Astoria and aged 21 years.

Died at Ingles—Friday afternoon the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Joim died at the family residence at Ingles. The funeral services will be held today.

Bad Stomach Trouble Cured.
 Having been sick for the past two years with a bad stomach, a friend gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They did me so much good that I bought a bottle of them and have used twelve bottles in all. Today I am well of a bad stomach trouble.—Mrs. John Lowe, Cooper, Maine. These tablets are for sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

Finishes Experting—Geo. P. Clark, the expert accountant who has been examining the books of School Superintendent A. L. Clark, finished the work yesterday afternoon and made a verbal report to the school board committee. He finds the books in excellent and creditable shape, but recommends several minor changes.

Department Called Out—A blue fire up Alderbrook way yesterday morning, between 5 and 6 o'clock, summoned the men and apparatus from the station there, and the trouble was soon overcome. The down-town stations did not respond, under the orders of the chief to that effect.

Happiness Seekers—County Clerk J. C. Clinton yesterday evening issued marriage licenses in behalf of the following named young people of this county: Mr. John L. Saunders and Miss Nellie Haynes, both of Warrenton; and Mr. Charles V. Brown, of this city, and Miss Anna Kopp, of Seaside.

Business Changes Hands—Yesterday the popular Star Theatre cigar stand was sold outright by Messrs. Appel & Jackman for the round sum of $1,500, to Frank Grussl, a well known Astorian, who will conduct it in the future upon the best lines that have heretofore contributed to its high standing. The sale was negotiated through F. N. Clark, the hustling real estate man.

Assessments Approved—The board of equalization met yesterday afternoon for the purpose of equalizing the assessments made to defray the costs and expenses of improving Commercial street from 9th to 14th street, and for the improving of Exchange street from 9th to 8th street. As no objections were filed against the assessments, the board will recommend to the city council that they be confirmed.
