TRANS-PACIFIC LEAVES OUT

Atlas Has Her Orders Changed—Kilburn Out For Coos With Crowd—Fine Tanker W. S. Porter in Port—Louis Arrives Home From San Francisco.

Tom Bell's fine little 65-foot steamer is all completed, as far as woodwork is concerned, at the Leathers' shipyard, except the painting and this will be prosecuted at once. It is not known yet where her engines are to be installed, and this will not be determined until her owner is discharged from the "Evergreen" state house at Olympia, where he is doing time as a representative, and is too busy to attend to lesser matters. Mr. Leathers is about to lay the keel of a fine new, 15 ton launch for W. P. Hunt, that will be equipped with a 35 horse power, three-cylinder engine.

The oil tank steamer Atlas received orders yesterday to abandon her trip to Puget Sound with her tow No. 91, and proceed to San Francisco by herself, leaving the barge here to distribute her cargo of fuel oil to such points and steamers as might need it. This was a direct blow to the genial representative of the Standard here, Hiram Lelmenweber, who had it all cut out for a ten-day cruise over to the Sound for recreation and a good spell of sea-sickness, the latter being the larger deprivation of the two, (so far as his friends are concerned).

As the steamer Meteor pulled out yesterday morning from the Callender there was stretched out at perfect ease on her immense deck-load of lumber the huge pet of the ship, "Queen," the mastiff which was rescued by the Meteor's crew some time ago, from the wreck of the schooner "Quickstep," and is prized above cargo, engines or grub-locker by the men on the stout and sturdy lumber carrier.

The steamer F. A. Kilburn arrived down from Portland yesterday and tied up at the Callender pier and will leave there this morning for Coos Bay points and Eureka. Among her passengers were noted, yesterday, the following well-known people: State Senator John S. Cope; Representative D. A. Chase; J. W. Bennett and James Upton, well known attorneys of Marshfield, and E. C. Furrin, all headed for the Coosian metropolis, Marshfield.

The five-masted schooner Louis, of the Simpson fleet, crossed in yesterday, from San Francisco; the first time she has been home since she and the sea tug Samson did business in the Bay of San Francisco, with the anchored English lumber drogher, somewhat to the disadvantage of the Louis, which has been patching up her wounds ever since.

The O. R. & N. towing Oklahoma came down from Portland yesterday morning, with the schooner Dora Bluhm on her hawsers, and returned up stream at once with the barkentine R. P. Cheney on one bow and the schooner Golden Shore, on the other.

The steamer Meteor did not leave the Callender pier until yesterday-morning, but she went below and succeeded in crowding out, along with the Tiverton and the Washington, in the wake of the Costa Rica.

The handsome oil tanker W. S. Porter arrived in from San Francisco yesterday afternoon, and set out to the metropolis without much delay here.

The steamship Costa Rica came down from Portland early yesterday morning, and left out almost immediately for San Francisco. She took no passengers from this port.

The steamship Roanoke is due down from Portland this morning on her way to Eureka, San Francisco and Port Los Angeles. She will make it early.

The steamer Alliance went on the dry-dock Monday evening at Portland and will undergo general repairs before sailing again on her coast route.

The Japanese steamship Hoto Hiro Maru is due down from Portland this morning, grain laden for Dalney, near Port Arthur.

EFFECT OF THE FOOD LAW.

Driving Many Worthless Catarrh Medicines Out of Existence.

The Pure Food and Drug Law, which went into effect the first of January, has already shown the good that will follow its enforcement.

Many worthless remedies that have been advertised for the cure of catarrh, a disease that is usually prevalent, have been driven out of existence by the Pure Food Law.

The effect of this is to increase the sale of remedies that are valuable and that fulfill the provisions of the law. Hyomel, for example, is meeting with a larger sale than ever before and T. F. Laurin is still selling it under a guarantee that it will cure catarrh or the money will be refunded. Hyomel is a scientific treatment that is recommended by the best physicians. It cures catarrh without stomach dosing, through inhaling medications that go right to the affected spots.

By breathing Hyomel three or four times daily through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, its medicated, healing air penetrates to the most remote parts of the nose, throat and lungs, searches out and kills all catarrhal germs, and soothes and heals any irritation in the mucous membrane.

The complete Hyomel outfit costs $1.00, extra bottles if needed 50c, and is sold by T. F. Laurin under the guarantee that it will cure or cost nothing.

HUNTING FOR TROUBLE.

"I've lived in California 20 years and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure" writes Charles Walters, of Alleghany, Sierra Co. No use hunting Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed at Chas. Rogers' drug store, 25c.

SCULLY IN LUCK.

Rathbone Sisters Tender Him Thanks and a Pin.

The popular lodge of Rathbone Sisters has been giving a very enjoyable series of dances this season and Doll Scully has lent them ready aid in many ways and has in a large measure contributed to the success and pleasure derivable from their social affairs.

Of course, he couldn't help it, he is constitutionally adapted to such agreeable lines and counts no duty onerous that is contributed to the fair sex; and in this instance he has received his reward, unsought, unexpected and wholly appreciable.

Yesterday he was made the recipient a beautiful Elk pin, oxidized in natural colors and surmounted with a diamond, the following note from the grateful donors accompanying the gift.

"Mr. Doll Scully: "With the compliments of Astoria Temple, No. 25, Rathbone Sisters; for kindnesses shown.

Mrs. A. Josephson, Mrs. A. Schneidgal, Mrs. H. M. McCroskey, Mrs. A. Danielson Committee."

Scully is smiling so profusely now-a-days, there is talk of setting his ear back, to give him a fair chance.

Advice to mothers. Don't let your children waste away. They can be strong, healthy and vigorous with Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It's a swift-winged messenger of health. 35 cents, tea or tablets.

Morning Astorian, 60 cents a month, delivered by carrier.

Start the Bowels

When you suffer with sick headache, biliousness, torpid liver, tainted breath or stomach ills—start the bowels. Health demands that they move naturally at least once a day; otherwise poisons are thrown back into the blood and the whole body becomes a lodging place for disease. Keep the bowels open with when there is the slightest evidence of irregularity, and you will be free from the complaints caused by sluggish bowels or an inactive liver. The action of Beecham's Pills is gentle but thorough.
