YESTERDAY

C. ROY FOX ADMITTED TO BAIL—WILL PLEAD TOMORROW—DIVORCES AND CIVIL ACTIONS DISPOSED OF BY COURT.

Yesterday was the twelfth judicial day of the present term of the Hon. Circuit Court of Clatsop county, and the day's session was opened at 1:30 o'clock p. m. with Judge Thomas A. McBride on the bench, and the following officers in attendance: District Attorney O. F. Hedges; County Clerk J. C. Clinton and Sheriff M. R. Pomeroy.

The only criminal matter to be brought to the attention of the court was the presentation of a demurrer to the indictment and complaint charging C. Roy Fox with conspiring to induce a minor to enter a house of prostitution, presented by defendant's attorney. Argument thereon was set for tomorrow, and the defendant was admitted to bail in the sum of $150, which was deposited in court, in cash by Geo. W. Dunlap, of Seattle, the uncle of young Fox.

In the case of Frances Mattson versus William Mattson, suit for divorce, default was entered and a decree granted.

In the case of R. J. Kirkwood versus Blanche Kirkwood, for divorce, default was entered and a divorce granted.

In the divorce proceedings brought by Daisy M. Phillips versus James Phillips, defendant's demurrer was over-ruled and defendant allowed eight days in which to answer.

In the suit to quiet title brought by John Waterhouse against A. W. Ogilvie, default was entered and a decree granted as prayed for.

The court then recessed until 9:30 o'clock this morning.

Man Overboard—Three men arrested on a charge of drunkenness and a gambler forfeited bail to the amount of $42 in police court yesterday. Three more drunks were found guilty as charged and fined $5 or 2 days in jail each. Among those charged with intoxication was E. O. Johnson who fell overboard about 4:30 o'clock Sunday morning. He was attempting to walk along the O. R. & N. dock and by some miscalculation as to his course projected himself into the Columbia river. Policemen Geo. Kauffman and Tnos. Liville heard his loud voiced pleas for assistance and went to his aid. Procuring a rope, they threw one end to the befuddled Mr. Johnson. The latter was in no condition to help himself however, and had to be rescued by a boat. Upon reaching shore he found much to his disgust, that he had escaped the clutches of Neptune only to fall into the hands of the law, and was taken, despite his struggles to the city bastle.

All Want the Best—When one goes in search of amusement of a certain kind, as, for instance, a fine line of moving pictures, he wants the best and latest and will not be satisfied with thread-bare and common presentations. In this line, the films now on at the Waldorf are said to be among the real artistic work of that kind programmed in this western country. In all there are six of these realistic strings and all are living portrayals of the leading events of history, such as the "Bennington at San Diego," the "Transfer of Paul Jones;" the "Two Champion Wrestling Matches of the World;" the "Slums of Paris;" "Monsieur Beaucaire, or the Gentleman Friend;" and others of equal and remarkable fidelity, make up a series of entertaining items not to be discounted in this city.

A Sturdy Westerner—The late James F. Moore, (father of Al Moore, night engineer at the Astoria Electric plant in this city) who died at his home near Portland on Monday, was a fine type of the sturdy westerner. He was born near Montreal in the year 1847; and went to St. Paul and Minneapolis just after the Sioux Indian massacre; thence he went to Winnipeg, where he met, and later married Miss Sidney English. They were the first white settlers to establish themselves in that country. He was for years in the employment of the government on the plains as a freighter hauling freight through Minnesota, Dakota and Montana, to the soldiers and posts in the far west. He led an active life always, and died with most unhappy suddenness, leaving a wife, and eight sons, all living in Oregon. His fatal malady being pneumonia.

Portland Thief Captured—P. S. Harrison was arrested in this city yesterday morning, and held on a complaint of the Portland police. Harrison was swamper for the Skidmore Drug Co., of Portland and had several times carried money to the bank. Thursday he was given $664 in coin, paper and drafts, and this amount did not reach the bank, money and porter disappearing together. Telegrams were at once sent out to notify the police of the towns south and west but the thief did the unexpected thing and came to Astoria.

Here he started out to spend his plunder. He secured a room at the Metropolitan and leaving the major part of the money under the mattress of his bed, he started for that portion of town lying beyond Bond St. Here he became inebriated and took Will Wilbur into his confidence concerning the storage place of his money. Young Wilbur lost no time in taking advantage of the information and going to Harrison's room, secured about $150 from the cache. Meanwhile, Harrison was arrested by Policeman Oberg, and taken to jail. Will Wilbur himself was arrested on suspicion by Policeman Houghton just as he was about to purchase a suit of clothes with the stolen money. He will have his preliminary hearing before the justice of the peace today.

A Portland police officer came down last night, and will probably take Harrison back to the metropolis as soon as he has given his testimony in the Wilbur case.

Bad Uppertown Blaze—The residence of J. Johnson in Uppertown, near Booth's Cannery caught fire at about 3 o'clock last night and at 3:30 was still blazing fiercely. The fire was barely gotten under control as the Astorian went to press. No estimate of the damage was available.

Going to Havelit—While the steamer F. A. Kilburn was unloading at the Callender pier here yesterday morning, one of her passengers, Mr. M. C. Bingham, of Coquille City, was ashore looking over Astoria with a pleased eye and a friendly tongue, and to a representative of the Astorian he said the object of his mission up this way, was to see the shipping men of Portland and the Columbia valley, and especially, Tom Richardson and ascertain if it is now possible to arrange some plan whereby Coquille City and country shall not have direct and quick inter-communication with this section. He said the people there were simply determined to put an end to their hibernation, and get in touch with the outer world, and that if this section could not and would not arrange it, San Francisco would, and the people there are loyal enough to want Oregon capital to take the initiative and hold the trade. He will put it up to Portland in good shape.

Tongue Point Strike—Superintendent Hazen, of the Tongue Point mills was somewhat astonished on Saturday last when the bulk of his working force at that big establishment, walked out at 4:30 p. m. when they found they were not to have the usual hour and a half lee-way on the working schedule to which they had been accustomed all winter. He claims that at least one half the crew did not want to strike and that they are willing to go to work, but are acting simply upon agreement with the others. No mention of wages nor increase of any kind were made according to Mr. Hazen's account of the matter. He also says the movement was propitious as he desires to do a lot of overhauling on the machinery of the big plant and will take the occasion in that behalf. None of the other mills in the city were affected by the movement up to the close of business yesterday, and it is difficult to say what, if any, relation the strike has to the movement in Portland. It may develop today.

Close to Astoria—Word came in from Jewell yesterday that a strong party of Harriman engineers was in the field about fifteen miles from this city and headed this way, on the old lines running up from the Nehalem country. They are evidently out of the Lytle camps and are said to be making good progress.

School Report—The monthly report of the Astoria Public Schools has been completed by Superintendent A. L. Clark. The total registration is 1502. The highest per cent of attendance was that of Olney school, which had an average of .91. In the seven schools there have been but six cases of tardiness during the past month, an exceptionally good showing.

Do you feel sleepy and not a bit like working in the afternoon? Perhaps it's because of the kind of lunch you're eating—too heavy and too hard to digest. Why not try the Palace restaurant on Commercial street, where all the baking is done in those famous slow-process ovens, which turn out light, appetizing wholesome things? You'll save money, too.
