Jury Reported to Believe Thaw Sane At the Present Time--Squabble Among the Counsel For the Defense Is Rumored.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Justice Fitzgerald's work today will go a long way toward deciding the fate of Harry K. Thaw, whose trial has dragged lengthily over two months of time, only to be halted when it was near conclusion by an indirect application of District Attorney Jerome for a commission to inquire as to the sanity of the prisoner.

The Justice will spend the day in concluding his examination of the affidavits and briefs filed by the opposing counsel regarding Thaw's mental condition and will be ready to announce his decision when court resumes its sessions Wednesday.

The opinions of persons who have been constantly in attendance at the trial differ as to Justice Fitzgerald's probable decision. Opinion was expressed in some quarters, however, that because of the doubt that has been raised by the conflicting testimony regarding Thaw's sanity, Justice Fitzgerald will probably decide to appoint a commission in order to secure a thorough physical and mental examination and thus settle the question in regard to the prisoner's present state of mind.

There was a report in circulation yesterday that one of the jurors had told an acquaintance that there was not a man on the jury who did not think Thaw is sane now, but no confirmation of the story could be obtained.

The lawyers for the defendant reiterated yesterday that in their belief Justice Fitzgerald would decide that a commission was not necessary and would order the trial to proceed. They said the affidavits presented by them showed clearly that the prisoner was now sane.

A rumor in circulation yesterday was that another squabble had developed in the ranks of Thaw's lawyers was emphatically denied by several of their number.

Present Depression Not Regarded By Hill as Alarming.

NEW YORK, March 26.—J. J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railway Company returned to the city yesterday from the West. When asked for his views on industrial and railway conditions, he said:

"Remember that there is a decided business recession. There is nothing in present conditions to make anybody apprehensive.

"Several months ago," he continued, dropping into railroad parlance.

"The lights showed red to me, an ill looked like a recession in business. Wall street may end the opinion that lights showed green and that meant that everything appears clear.

"The red lights are still ahead and that means that we ought to go slow. The recession that has set in is not formidable, but business has been affected. About 95 percent of the country's business is done on credit. This credit is impaired and that is the chief trouble.

"As I said months ago, the depression will affect the luxuries of life, such as automobiles and diamonds. Fewer of them will be sold, but the great necessities of life—wheat, coal, iron and lumber—will continue to be used."

Chinaman Who Weds California Girl Has Bad Passport.

LOS ANGELES, March 26.—Yee Lung, the Chinaman who was recently wedded to a young white woman, has lost his legal battle to escape deportation. Lung, who was arrested nearly a year ago, is alleged to have had in his possession a forged certificate entitling him to residence in the United States. At Albuquerque a few weeks ago he was married to Miss Emma Culver, a resident of Monrovia, this county.

Mrs. Lung has announced her intention of accompanying her husband back to China. The order of deportation, tendered by the United States Commissioner was yesterday affirmed by Judge Wellborn in the United States District Court. Mrs. Upham, Mrs. Lung's aunt, fainted in the courtroom when the decision was rendered. Mrs. Upham has been prominently identified with Mission work among the Chinese.

DEFENSE WILL NOT DENY

Is in State of Permanent Adolescent Insanity—Five Alienists For Defense and One For Prosecution Agree On Condition.

CARMEL, N. Y., March 26.—Jennie Burch, the fifteen year old girl now on trial here for the poisoning of baby Wilbur Winship is probably destined to become an inmate of the Mattewan Asylum for the criminal insane. By an agreement between District Attorney Weeks and counsel for the defense it is stated the girl will be formally adjudged insane and committed to the asylum.

This unusual method of procedure is the result of the report of five alienists for the defense and Dr. William D. Granger, an expert for Justice Mills. When the little slayer was arraigned in court yesterday charged with murder in the first degree Mr. Granger handed in a report which declared she was suffering from a state of permanent and continuing adolescent emotional insanity.

District Attorney Weeks, in speaking of the procedure decided upon, said:

"The case has been most simply and humanely estranged. The state will put in a pro forma case. The poisoning of the Winship child will be proved, with all the circumstances, which preceded the crime. When we shall rest, the defense will admit the murder and then put on the alienists to testify as to the girl's lunacy. The state will not make any rebuttal, and thereupon the court will instruct the jury on evidence submitted. The jury following such instructions and its oath, will find the defendant guilty as charged and insane at the time.
