BUSINESS FLOURISHING.

According To Report Of Postal Receipts And Internal Revenues.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—White stock values are falling in New York and other money centers, and commercial men are complaining about the insecurity of financial credits, business through the country, according to reports received in Washington, is flourishing and shows no diminution in volume. Postal receipts are increasing tremendously, while the gold in storm arising at sources producing internal revenue, grows with each succeeding month. Government officials declare that no more accurate barometer of actual conditions in trade and commerce exists than the financial report of the Postoffice Department. It shows that the fiscal year 1907, which will end June 30, will be the banner twelve-month period in the matter of receipts in the history of the country. Likewise, internal revenue receipts for the months ending June 30 will show the largest for a single year, with the exception of the Civil and Spanish war periods when extraordinary taxes were imposed to meet extraordinary expenses.

Internal revenue receipts last year were in excess of $249,000,000. If the ratio for the months of the current fiscal year ended February 28 is kept up for March, April, May, and June, receipts for the full year will go beyond $270,000,000, the high water mark, except in the sixties when the civil war was raging, and in 1898 and 1899, when an act was on the statutes designed to raise more to bear the cost of the operations against Spain. By comparison with last year, increases are noted in the current fiscal year on every important item of internal revenue. The total for the eight months ended February 29 last was $180,421,345 as against $166,875,412 for the corresponding period in 1906. This is a gain of more than thirteen million dollars.

Columbus had just landed. Meeting a great Indian Chief with a package under his arm, he asked him what it was. "Great Medicine, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea" said the Injun. Price 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.
