CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS

TOM RICHARDSON WILL ATTEND BANQUET GIVEN VICE PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS IN JULY RAILROADS TO ADVERTISE.

In response to an invitation from Manager Whyte of the local Chamber of Commerce, Tom Richardson of the Portland Commercial Club sent the following reply yesterday.

Manager Whyte, Astoria Chamber of Commerce, Astoria Oregon. "Securing Vice President Fairbanks is a triumph. Congratulations, invitation accepted. signed Tom Richardson.

Manager Whyte has written Vice-President Fairbanks asking if he objects to speaking in the open air and whether or not he is to travel in a private car. A special committee will go to Seattle to escort the Vice President to our city and should he not have a private car one will be furnished by the local Chamber of Commerce. However it is not likely that the latter move will be necessary, as it is not probable the Vice President would travel without the luxury and convenience of a car for himself and party.

Literature boosting Astoria, in the near future, will be distributed from the passenger coaches all over the country, of the Southern and Union Pacific Systems. The matter was first taken up with William MacMurray, General passenger agent of the O. R. and N. and after proving to his satisfaction that the Astoria literature was as good as any put out, he agreed to take 5,000 of the circulars and 5,000 copies of Walter C. Smith's address. This great help was secured through Manager Whyte's efforts and is one of his most far reaching moves in the securing of a "Greater Astoria." The school children are rising nobly to the occasion and have thoroughly grasped the idea and spirit, which Manager Whyte endeavored to instill into their minds. The post cards are arriving at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters in bunches of fifty, each card contains twenty names and this means that a thousand persons will be mailed the literature, the Chamber of Commerce has for this purpose. As a result of this method of advertising, people in Norway, Sweden Finland and other parts of Europe are learning of the advantages of Astoria.

Why

Have a torpid liver when Herbine, the only liver regulator will help you? There is no reason why you should suffer from Dyspepsia, Constipation, Chills and Fever or any other liver complaints, when Herbine will cure you. F. C. Walte, Westville, Fla., writes: "I was sick for a month with chills and fever, and after taking two bottles of Herbine am well and healthy." Sold by Hart's Drug Store.

Alaska Fleet Of Cannery Shios About Ready To Depart For Nushagak—Bangor Leaves Out For The Bay City—Waterfront Items.

The Kamm flagship Lurline got down late last evening, and did not start back for Portland until well on toward moonrise. She was doing considerable business, however, which always accounts satisfactorily for any time-card discrepancies.

The Warren Packing Company's Alaska ship, Berlin, is still in waiting for her crew, and this provided, will be in fine condition for her summer stay in the far north. The Alaska fleet will probably get away this week.

Just one year ago this morning the fine steamship, Columbia was sent crashing from the blocks on which she rode for repair, in the dry-dock at Hunters Point, the terrible earthquake being the force that did the damage.

The St. Nicholas will close her hatches over her cannery cargo sometime today, and will be in trim for her voyage to the north, for the Alaska season in the service of the Columbia River Packers' Association.

The John Currier is fully loaded for her trip to Nushagak, Alaska, in the interest of the Alaska Fishermen's Packing Company. She will load into the stream this morning.

The steamer Johan Poulsen has arrived in from San Francisco and went directly to the Columbia Mill docks at Knappton, where she will load out on the return voyage.

The fine French bark Leo XIII, grain laden for Europe, is due down the river sometime today, ready for her long voyage.

The general-service steamer Harvest Queen, of the O. R. & N. Company, came down last night with a lot of extra freight for this city.

The handsome four masted schooner Bangor went to sea yesterday on the low-lines of the bar tug Wallula, bound for San Francisco.

The Geo. W. Elder is due back from Portland on her way to California ports, tomorrow morning, and will leave out at high noon.

The steamship Costa Rica is due in this morning from the Bay City, and will return down on her way south, on Saturday next.

The fine steamer Hassalo is so busy these days she has to chuck her schedule with extreme regularity.

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

It makes all the difference in the world to the convivial man where, and what, he drinks. Most men desire beauty and cleanliness, and handsome appointments in the saloon they patronize regularly, as well as the essential pre-requisite of genuine wines and liquors that are served to them. And these things are so particularly and properly conspicuous at Otto Sund's elegant resort, the Commercial, at No. 509 on the street of that name that they account thoroughly for the fixed and splendid custom he enjoys. There is nothing allowed to pass his counter but the best and choicest in every department of indulgence, and the service behind it all, is the most pleasing and satisfying in the city.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Charles M. Gilman, representing the well known paint house of R. M. Nason & Company, of Portland, arrived in the city on the steamer Lurline last night, and will be here several days doing business therefore.

Hon. Swepson Mortop came over yesterday morning, from the classic precincts of Knappton, and reports that flourishing suburb of Astoria in healthy and hearty condition.

Frank Bourne, the capitalist of Frankfort, was in the city yesterday, on business bent. He says that railway matters are in statu quo over there just now.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Scherneckau, leave today, for a few weeks visit at Orella Washington.
